W LANCASTER BUSINESS COLLEGE?

Well, if you mean the largest enrollment of pupils for the Erst week of January since its organization, it is an indication that it is meeting with its r.ward and that IT'S all right.

The L. B. U. does not hold out such inducements as "Full Course for s—," which has been characterised by a some what caustic writer, as a" Ball Fork Bull Heads" and while that is a rough way of putting it, it is true that the dull boy is the only one to profit by this arrangement. The bright young fallow must pay for the excessive cost of this instruction for the dull one.

DO YOU UNDERSTARD?

Our patrons are our leading citizens and business men, and to them we would refer all applicants as to standing of this institution.

Fay a visit to the college and spend a day there, and then judge as to the merits of the school. Address.

H. C. WEIDLEE, Principal.

A GOOD RULE,
