After the Election.
The Democratic newspapers and organs are returning to the vomit which they indulged themselves prior to the election...

There has seldom been a more burning outrage perpetrated in the name of justice, than the commitment to jail for 72 hours of a citizen for swearing...

THE standing committee of the Eastern diocese of Pennsylvania has voted for the confirmation of Dr. Knight as bishop of Milwaukee, but it refused to confirm Rev. Father Gratton, of Boston...

JIM CROW is condemned to death for murder, but he will not "turn about and twist about and dance Jim Crow" at the end of a gallows rope...

WESTERN newspapers, a number of copies of special editions of which were received here the past week, show that section of the country to be building up with its usual marvelous rapidity...

A PARIS dispatch to the New York Herald, is an interview with Baron Gersuith de Hirsch, the well known Jewish banker who has given vast sums estimated at $20,000,000 to Russia and Austria...

THE government seems to fear a political motive behind the offer, but Baron Hirsch protests that he is guided by the purest philanthropy and is confident that assimilation is the answer to the "Semitic question"...

THE City Troop of Philadelphia have just spent $120 apiece for a ball. It would not take many balls of the kind to kill most soldiers, but these troopers are bullet proof...

THE Democratic party was defeated just as much and no more than its candidate, whom its principles were fully and ably represented.

THE Vesuvius.
The dynamic cruiser Vesuvius is a vessel of the very greatest importance as a vessel that must work at a relatively short range...

I suffered with rheumatism in the shoulder for months, and the only thing I found that did me any good was treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills...

above deck at the bow to the bottom of the hold at the stern, the devices for aiming are said to be so perfect that great accuracy of fire may be obtained...

The smartest thing in merchandising is to lose money judiciously. It is more than smartness—it is wisdom.

Robert Morier incident convulses the diplomats of the world. Did he betray the German military plans in 1870 to Bazaine? There is a deeper Berlin question to Philadelphia women to-day than that.

German organizations move in masses. Some time since we captured a whole division of Berlin jackets. Thousands of them. But some 3,000 remain that have captured us.

You will find them divided in four classes by prices, namely: Jackets Two Dollars, Jackets Three Dollars, Jackets Four Dollars, Jackets Five Dollars.

Each of the 3000 is a sample (possibly a dozen or twenty exceptions), made with scrupulous care. There are Beavers and Worsted of many different colors, many sorts of cut and trimming, some richly braided.

There is a buzz in Berlin—Jackets.

The Schnabels Elysian silk-lined Men's Overcoats with a character of a century behind the name—not the coats—dropped from $40 to $25.

There it lies, a list 36 inches long of Clothing Bargains, closely written. Small boys and large, youths and men, suits and overcoats. It is a tale of prices—a very brief tale, the prices are cut so.

There are things and things in any big Linen stock that comparatively few know the real worth of. But there are ten times as many things that everybody knows something about.
