The sole entertainment the college was the of, and a speech from, the "declaring that as an individual in hearty accord with the result

who walk up the Capitol Hill, then walk down sgain, as aters of the electoral college, do feel the folly of their doing. It is messenger work. It would be as done, in fact, by a two-cent stamp Ally done, in fact, by a two-cent stamp an a letter conveying their ballot; it would be better done still by amendthe law so as to abolish not only the ng of the college but the college which does not at all carry at the object of its creation and has bene so thoroughly useless that no sen-Me man can be a member of it without ling of disgust that he is forced to so silly. Let us abolish the electoral college promptly and have a direct vote of the people on the candidates.

Mayal Power of France. The very peaceful speech of Emperor Filliam at the opening of the Landiag is t little value as an indication of the rift of events, though it quiets any appreosition to calm public anxiety at me and abroad may be due to an earnest rish to postpone the inevitable conflict will the fatherland is in a better state of tion, for if the emperor traveled Ith his eyes open he must have disred that the strength of the German my is not so overwhelming as it s to be from a home point of view at that the German navy is so hopelessly shind the times that in a few days from claration of war France could have is coast blockaded, his ocean commerce led and be levying tribute from very seaport of the Baltic and the North s. A quick result of this certain success the French by water would be an uprisog of the Danes against their stubborn ting, who has succeeded in cultivating a tic spirit in his people by sustaina minister of the Bismarck type in his ce of the constitutional powers of the sembly. Denmark is ripe for democracy, erman empire in Bismarck's hands vershadows and controls the destinies Europe. Italy with her powerful mavy would probably have to be reckoned an active ally of Germany in any truggle with France, but the Italian tions would at first be chiefly confined to the Mediterranean and, as a pesultarity of the French navy is the drillg of large bodies of blue jackets for hors duty, a French and Danish force of ome size might annoy the Gerans by way of Schleswig Holstein before they had a chance to fight a battle in the Rhine country. France has about 38,000 men afloat and 8,000 more conly under instruction in barracks and lorts on shore, besides 1,400 boys in Staining. A high naval authority has ently expressed the opinion that in mining of every kind that could be seful in war, the modern sailors of the French navy are far ahead of any other tion; and as they serve for a regular erm of years, a declaration of war would se followed by a sudden multiplication of the force by the calling to the flag of all o had been trained under it. France es a large fleet of torpedo boats so built that they can be carried by rail from the Mediterranean to the English channel the has two ships nearly completed, the ge and Cecille, which are admitted by glish experts superior to anything float; and she has now in active service 39 ironclads of various classes, 40 proted cruisers, 30 protected gunboats and sam sloops and 40 training ships. The armor and guns of these ships are the that could be produced by that scienlife accuracy and enterprise for which the French are famous. This superiority of the French navy, overshadowing even England, is enough to make Germany think cautiously of the consequences of

A. Higgins. The Delaware Republicans have restylish name, though it covers in this this calle as yitch fellow who practices law at the Wilmington bar, and knows enough to go to the Senate, as that body is at present constituted. It does not in these days regular a high order or great quantity of some or elequence to be a senator; and a man much more than moderately endowed would be a startling contrast to the general tone of the body. Higgins will do. Delaware is a little state and we do not care to have her out big men in the Senate when her put big men in the Senate when the big state by her side persistently sends little ones.

A Good Practice Settled.
Attorney General Kirkpatrick has given what seems to be a well considered and sound opinion, declaring that the governor should issue a commission to John F. Metzger, who appears on the face of the returns to be elected judge in in the 29th district, but whose claim is contested by W. S. Bentley. The attorney general holds that the retiring judge, having been commissioned for ten years and not until his successor chosen, is out of office at the end of the ten years and cannot sit pending a contest. He holds also, that it is necessary that the office should be filled ; that there is no vacancy and therefore the governor cannot appoint. There has been an election and good Governor Beaver, who invited to visit the body and who and made a "short and felicitous to commission judges as soon as practical." to commission judges as soon as practicable after the election; the commission being but the evidence of title and not the source of it. The returns made to the secretary of the commonwealth showing the election of a candidate should serve to secure him a commission from the governor; which commission may be superseded when the result of the contest is declared.

Doubtless this is the best practice. The attorney general might have decided it either way under the law, which leaves the matter in the discretion of the governor. But as a district should not be without a judge pending a contest, it is better to hold that the prima facie title draws the commission.

GREELY appears to think that we will have an early spring. Wait a few weeks and we will hear from the ground-hog.

Ir will be remembered that a certain Mr. Swenson not long ago secured a patent for a method of manufacturing sugar, dis-covered by him while working for the government for that very purpose, at a government experiment station. Commis-sioner Colman promptly requested the attorney general to bring suit for the an-nulment of this patent, and a demurrer of Bwenson having been overruled by the court, the right of the government to bring suits of the kind is settled. This is an increase of 165,600, as compared with the two years preceding. The cost of printing and binding in 1888 was $209,091. The geological reports alone cost $45,344. We can not dodge a painful sion that this is largely waste literature, and perhaps the sacred writer had in mind some report of this sort when he observed : "O! making many books there is

La Mone Kow, Chinese agent in British Columbia, in an interview the other day said that the Emperor of China has issued a proclamation recalling all the Chinese in United States, that it would be obeyed, and that in ten years all the Chinese in this country would have returned to China. If this report is true and the mandate is accompanied by a penalty such as the re-fusal of burial at home it is quite probable that it will be obeyed by all but an insignificant number of Chinamen. Then the people of the Pacific coast will have to learn very rapidly how to get along without Chinese servants and laundrymen.

MY POOR BACK

That's the common exclamation of those suffering with rheumatism or hidner troubles. In either disease Paine's Celery Compound will surely effect a cure, and there will no longer be any cause to complain of "poor backs." Hundreds of instimonials like the following confirm our claims for that grand old remedy, Paine's Celery Compound:

"Two weeks ago I could not sleep more than an hour at a time any night, was constipated and kidners did not act, and had a good deal of pain in the back. Since I took Paine's Celery Compound the pain left my back, and I can sleep like a child."

Zenas Sanders, West Windsor, Vermont. "Having been troubled with rhounstism for five years, I was almost unable to get around, and was very often confined to my bed for weeks at a time. I have used nearly all medicines imaginable, besides outside advices, but to no advantge. Having seen Paine's Celery Compound advantised. I gave it a trial. I have used only bottle and am perfectly cured. I can now jump around and feel lively as a boy." Frank Caroli, Eureka, Nevada. Price, $1.00. Six for $5.00.
