to Laty sings in Avoidto
A oneg both sweet and troe,
raying many a maiden hore I meet,
tolem and old that cong so sweet.
My Leily's song of Avoids.
Ney think me end, and lees, and dear,
All mo! they cannot reed aright:
am vot sad when her I hear,
And have her in my sight.

My Lafy loves—i.a Arend'o,
Her love will lest for age.
There's nothing here that eas compare
With that rich gem, so awest and rary,
My Lady's love, of Arendio.
Rome day, to me, whos dreams are true,
My Lady in her robes of white
Shall come and I shall heep for aye,
And have her in my sight.
—Edward F. Strange.

A Dig in the Ribs, on the right side and lower part of the aphragm, though playfully meant and de-tered, is calculated to evoke profanity frees chappy whose liver is out of order. When at region is nore and congested, pokes seem indish. Look at a man's countenance are ou prod him under the ribs. If his skin and yeballs have a sallow tings, you may infer-led that his tongue is furred, his breath apt to be sour, that he has pains not only beneath his ribs, but also under the right shoulder-bade. Also that his bowels are irregular and als digestion impaired. Instead of making a lim to take, and steadily persist in taking, floatetter's stomen. Ritters, the finest agti-bilious and alterative medicine extant. In-comparable is it, size, for dysepses, theu-matism, nervouncess, kidney trouble, and sever and ague.

My boy (three years old) was recently taken with sold in the head. It assumed finally to settle in his nose, which was stopped up for days and nights so that it was difficult for him to breathe and sleep. I called a physician, who prescriced, but did him no good. Finally I went to the drug store and got a bottle of Ely's Gream Balm. It seemed to work like magic. The boy's nose was clear in two day, and he has been all right ever since.—E. J.
