Los ANGELES, Ca'., Jan. 8, 1889.

In my researches I find quits an amount of mensy belonging to the heirs of Samuel Sampson, who died here in the summer of 1888, that will eschest to the state of California if no heirs can be found. He is supposed to have a sister living in your city and the presumption is that he came from your city. If you know anything about his relatives or any one who would likely know, or any information that could give me a trace of any of them you would confer a great favor on me by doing so, and at the rest favor on me by doing so, and at the me time enable me to put them in pos-mion of their rights.

Yours very respectfully,

The series of Mexico tours organized by leases. Haymond & Whitcomb, is proving any successful, and well it might be so, for there could not possibly be a more theroughly satisfactory way of traveling in a foreign sountry. A splendidly equipped train of the vectibule pattern, with dining car, barber shop, and even a bathroom included, enables the party to visit many out-of-the-way cities and interesting senior require. and interesting scenic points, which individual sourists are compelled to omit. The itin-crary this year has been enlarged so as to inplace several important places in both Mexico and California which previous tourist parties have not visited. In the former list is the famous eld city of Guda's jara, unquestionably one of the most fascinating and quaint places is all Mexico. The second party will leave Philadelphia, Monday, February 11, and be absent eighty-two days. The third and last Mexico excursion of the season is announced for Monday. March 11. This trip will over for Monday, March 11. This trip will omit California, and occupy only forty-seven days. In addition to the Mexico tour next month, there will be three excursions to California in the regular winter series, February 7, 11 and if (the last one including a visit to New Orans at the time of the Marti Gras 'carnival.)
