

Daily Intelligencer.

LANCASTER, JANUARY 17, 1899.

That Samson Bowe... After the experience of the March blizzard of last year we will be cautious about saying that the winter is over before the fourth of July.

The frigate Trenton, now on her way to Samoa with Rear Admiral Kimberly, is a wooden cruiser carrying ten guns and classed as second rate.

We exported in December breadstuffs to the value of $10,155,700 and imported to the value of $12,018,576, which is nearly forty-six millions less than in 1887.

The earthquake in Costa Rica on December 30, was briefly referred to in dispatches on the fourth, but more detailed accounts now published show it to have been much more severe than was at first supposed.

Wanamaker's

Has our Old Prob "lost his abilities?"

Yesterday we said "the weather to-day is likely to be fair," and in the afternoon it rained; day before we said it was "likely to be rainy," and it was clear all day.

But he is a good prophet, and when he says "rain" it is better to carry your umbrella along. You will know what he says to-day when you read this, but at the hour of writing it seems as though the rain would be "never weary."

Hey, there! shades of Mackintosh and Jonas Hanway, here's talk for ye!

Scotch Gingham. Time was when the dandy of the period was quite content with an Umbrella covered with Scotch Gingham.

Wouldn't it be a pretty conceit for Chumley to carry a Scotch Gingham Umbrella as he waits upon Miss Flora with her stunning Scotch Gingham Gown next Summer.

They are on the next counter to the Umbrellas of which we told you two days gone.

Do you want the "swell" thing in Umbrellas? It is here. A long silver handle, richly chased, $18.50.

From $1 up—every good thing.

A lot of Men's Gossamer Oversacks at $1.50. About eighty of them, all large sizes, that originally were $3 to $5.

Ladies' Circulars, black, $1.50 to $3.50; fancy striped and checked Raglans, $4.50 and $5.

Men's Mackintoshes, genuine, cloth finished, with shoulder ventilation, vulcanized, and will stand all climates, $8.50 to $25.00.

Spatterdashers. Leather-stockings never heard of Stimson's patent—bad for Leather-stockings.

For hunting, horseback, or walking, they protect the legs from knee downward.

Rubber Overshoes. Just remember that here the stock of every sort is ready and waiting.

It should be clear to-day you ought to cut this out and put it aside for "a rainy day."

PAIN'S OLEARY COMPOUND.

MY POOR BACK.

That's the common exclamation of those suffering with rheumatism or kidney troubles. In either disease Paine's Oleary Compound will surely effect a cure.

"Two weeks ago I could not sleep more than an hour at a time any night, was constipated and kidneys did not act, and had a good deal of pain in the back."
