T PASSES THE HOUSE.

PROHIBITION AMENDMENT AC-CEPTED BY A VOTE OF 132 TO 55.

...ster County's Six Representatives Vote ...ll, and Some of the Democrats Support the Proposed Amendment—The Inter-Municipal Bill Passes First Reading.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 22.—The prohibitory ...endment was passed finally in the House ...day by a vote of 132 to 55. All the Lan-...ster county members voted in the affirm-..., Most of the Democrats voted against ...nearly all the Republicans for it. ...The Democratic members of the House ...held a caucus this morning, and after full ...exchange of opinions adopted a resolu-...on, offered by Quigley, of Philadelphia, ...not binding any Democrat on his vote on ...the prohibitory amendment.

In the House petitions signed by thou-...sand of people were presented in favor of ...the prohibitory amendment, which was ...subsequently passed finally.

The bill for the government of cities of ...the third class, known as the inter-munici-...pal bill, covering eighty pages, was read ...the first time on special order, which also ...provides for passage on second reading to-...morrow and third reading and finally on ...Tuesday next.

Bills were introduced as follows in the ...House to-day:

Kaufman, Berks, regulating collection ...of taxes in boroughs and townships.

Marshall, Allegheny, authorizing county ...commissioners to levy an additional mill of ...tax for funds for indigent soldiers and ...sailors.

Robison, putting cities containing more ...than twenty-five thousand population in ...the second class.

Scott, Philadelphia, prohibiting collection ...of collateral inheritance tax after twenty ...years.

Potts, Schuylkill, requiring courts to ...distribute patronage equally among law-...yers.

Lafferty, Allegheny, allowing pool sell-...ing and betting on horse races within ...agricultural and horticultural grounds.

Shaffer, Clinton, appropriating a hundred ...thousand dollars to rebuild Central Normal ...school, destroyed by fire.

A CONDUCTOR FATALLY INJURED.

Trains Collide and John C. Ryan is Caught Between an Engine and Caboose. Both Legs are Broken.

COLUMBIA, Jan. 22.—A very serious accident occurred a short distance east of the passenger depot this forenoon. The train in charge of Conductor Ryan No. 9 was approaching the east end of the bridge when the train drawn by engine ...., with William Rogers engineer, ...into it. The first train had ...ped up somewhat, and the flag-...an went back to stop the other. ...e was too late, however. The rear engine ...crushed into the cabin of the forward train. John C. Ryan, conductor of the first train, and Patrick Welch, a brakeman, were in the cabin when the engine struck it. Both attempted to escape by the rear door, but were caught between the engine and the caboose. Ryan was crushed just below the hips and had both legs broken. He was also injured internally and will likely die. He was taken to the switch cabin of German Hind; afterwards to his home on South Fourth street. Mr. Ryan is about 42 years of age. He is a very active Democratic politician, being assessor of the Third ward and member of the county committee. He has a wife and five children. Although Welch was caught between the caboose and engine, he escaped with a few cuts and bruises.

The boiler over the heating furnace of the Columbia Iron company's rolling mill sprung a leak this morning about 3 o'clock. All the water in the boiler ran out in one-half hour. The men became frightened and a number left the mill. The furnace is not working on this account.

A hammer flew off the handle at the Columbia rolling mill this morning striking Will Gable on the foot and causing a bad bruise.

The pay car of the Reading & Columbia railroad company arrived in town this morning, when the employes received their wages for December.

Thirty-five yards of carpet were chanced off last night at a meeting of Riverside Home. The carpet was drawn on ticket No. 800, held by Mr. Hedrick.

John S. Musser has left on a Western trip, where he will visit a number of cities, with a view of permanent location.

The Keeley stove works will shut down on Wednesday night and will only run three days per week.

Wm. Smith, a young colored boy from Philadelphia, was in town this morning and received a permit from Jacob Strine, poor director, for the almshouse. The boy was at Harrisburg on Monday and had his right leg badly hurt on the railroad.

A meeting will be held this evening at the house of Miss Emma Sneath by a number of young ladies and gentlemen with a view of forming a social club.

Another Ship for Samoa.

From the New York Herald.

Orders have been sent to Rear Admiral Chandler, commanding the Asiatic station, to dispatch one of the vessels under his command direct to Samoa, to co-operate with the fleet already on the way. At the present time there are only two ships that can be sent, the Omaha and the Marion. It is believed by the navy department officials that the Omaha will be selected. She is at present the flagship of the Asiatic station, and is commanded by Captain Francis V. McNair.

The Omaha, a wooden cruiser, was rebuilt about four years ago at the Portsmouth (N. H.) yard. She is of 2 400 tons displacement and has a battery of ten 9 inch guns, one 8 inch pivot, one 60 pounder breech loading rifle in her main battery, with four Hotchkiss revolving cannon, two 60 pounds breech loading rifles and two Gatlings in her secondary battery.

Fire in Mount Joy.

A large tobacco shed belonging to Benjamin Eberly, in the town of Mt. Joy, was destroyed by fire this morning. The building was 100 by 30 feet in size and of frame. In it was six acres of leaf tobacco. The fire broke out about 6 o'clock, and, although the fire department of the place were promptly on hand, they could do nothing. The whole building was destroyed in a short time. The fire was caused in this manner. A colored man in the employ of Mr. Eberly went into the building at an early hour this morning, and made a strong fire in the stove. He then went away and the building took fire from the stove. The loss will be about $2 500.

Death of An Aged Citizen.

Samuel Flickinger, died yesterday morning at his home near Terre Hill, aged 80 years, after a lingering illness. In his younger days deceased was a drover and by his occupation became widely acquainted. He leaves a wife, two daughters and one son. The funeral will take place to-morrow at 10 o'clock, with interment at the Evangelical cemetery, Terre Hill.

Fell From a Bridge.

Jacob Glassbrenner, a carpenter in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company, while working on a bridge on Monday afternoon, made a misstep and fell to the ground, spraining his ankle. He was brought to the city and taken to his residence, No. 660 High street, where his injuries were attended to by Dr. H. F. Bowman.

The Bates Grocery Property Sold.

The three-story store and dwelling, Nos. 41 and 43 South Queen street, known as the Bates grocery, including stable and two ... were sold at private ... by W. ... & ... N. P. Brinton.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A Little Girl Killed By Being Caught in the Shafting of a Mill.

On Monday Mary Ann Stauffer, a nine-year-old daughter of Augustus Stauffer, residing near Terre Hill, met with an awful death. She and her little brother visited the mill of Isaac Kreider, a short distance from their home, and immediately went up stairs to the third floor. They were not seen for a time and finally Mr. Kreider heard a noise. He ran up stairs and found that the little girl had been caught in the shafting. She had her neck and one leg broken and her head was so badly crushed that the brains oozed from her ears. Dr. J. C. McConnell was sent for, but he was of no use as the child's injuries, the extent of which were not known at the time, were necessarily fatal.

Installation of Officers.

On Saturday evening last District Deputy Grand Chancellor M. R. Herr, accompanied by Past Chancellors Samuel Skeen, D. L. Rothermel and D. M. Good, visited White Horse and installed the officers of Pallas Lodge, No. 152, Knights of Pythias, as follows: Past chancellor, J. R. Hughes; C. C., J. N. Rowe; V. C., Glauner; P., Joseph Henry; M. at A., Samuel Hopper; I. G., H. H. Clemson; O. G., N. Hopper.

The visitors also conferred the third rank on Esquire W. H. Lynch.

This lodge is not so large in numbers, but in proportion to its size is one of the best financially in the county, being worth $999 43, with only 26 members.

The visitors returned home well pleased with their trip and treatment while there.

Married in Carlisle.

On Monday morning Edwin F. Adams, of Chicago, and Miss Edith R. Johnston were married at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Nellie Campbell, in Carlisle. Rev. W. B. Morrow performed the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents. The couple left on a tour to Washington, New York, Philadelphia, and other places, and will make their future home in Chicago. The pair are well known in Lancaster. The groom is a son of J. C. Adams, one of the founders of the watch factory. The bride is the youngest daughter of the late J. M. Johnston, of the INTELLIGENCER, and a very estimable young lady. Both have many friends here whose best wishes they have.

At the Opera House.

At the opera house a fair-sized audience gathered last evening to see a comedy entitled "Casey's Troubles" by Lillian Kennedy's company. Miss Kennedy is the star of the party. She is a rather pleasing soubrette and assumed no less than five characters. Alfred Kelcy is the leading man and he made considerable fun in an Irish character. E. P. Sullivan was very good as Jack Ashton, a villain. Mr. Sullivan is no stranger to Lancaster people. He formerly appeared here with Atkinson & Cook's companies and established himself as a favorite long ago. The remainder of the company are fair.

Before the Mayor.

Mayor Edgerley disposed of fourteen cases this morning. Five tramps were sent to jail for terms ranging from 10 to 20 days, and seven lodgers were discharged. Walter Hamp, arrested for raising a disturbance at Reiker's saloon, was discharged, the complainant not caring to press the case. Mike Fallaha, the rolling mill employe, arrested at his boarding house on East Chestnut street near Plum for disorderly conduct, and who failed to appear for a hearing yesterday, turned up this morning, pleaded guilty and was discharged upon payment of costs.

The State Board of Agriculture.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week the state board of agriculture and delegates from the several county agricultural societies will meet jointly in Harrisburg for the transaction of routine business and the discussion of various topics. In the hall of the House of Representatives on Wednesday evening, the subject of manufacturing sugar from sorghum in Pennsylvania will be informally discussed.

A Chicago Ghost.

Last week a couple of practical jokers in Chicago made a man of white paper and sticks and stood him firmly on a tin pan, then they arranged a wire clutch and at midnight fastened the scarecrow to a cable of Chicago's rapid street railway. The figure went sailing through the city at fifteen miles an hour, while the tin pan scraping over the cable slot made fearful noises. The ghost came into collision with a horse car on a cross line and stampeded horses and passengers. Several policemen fired at it.

The York & Peachbottom Railroad Sold.

From the York Daily.

The syndicate who purchased the Maryland Central railroad recently, and who, as it was stated in the Daily some time ago, held an option on the purchase of the York & Peachbottom railroad, have completed the purchase, making the first payment of $10,000 January 15, to secure the road. The two roads will be run under the same management, practically. There are rumors that the narrow gauge will soon be changed to the standard gauge.

The Maryland Central runs from Baltimore to Delta, where it meets the Peachbottom road.

Mechanics' Library Association.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Mechanics' Library association, held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, H. R. McConomy; vice-president, J. W. Byrne; secretary, R. K. Buehrle; treasurer, C. Gast; librarian, S. S. Rathvon; library committee, S. S. Rathvon, J. D. Pyott, Percy Carpenter, G. E. Hegener, J. W. Byrne.

CLEANING UP ODD LOTS.

J. B. MARTIN & CO.

"You must have a Corner in Plates," was the remark of a lady customer as she gazed on a counter loaded down with plates of all sizes and descriptions. This lot was gathered in from the warehouse, from under the counters, from off the shelves, in fact every other place a stray plate could possibly hide, and the collection represents patterns from almost every country. What kind of Plates? Almost every kind. Oyster, Tea, Breakfast and Dinner Plates in English Printed Ware. Breakfast and Soup Plates in English Decorated Porcelain. Tea, Dinner and Breakfast Plates in French China. Fruit Plates in German and French China, and an Odd Lot from the American patterns. The Price—Well, one lot, about 15 dozen, are 46c a dozen. They will go to the early buyers. The other lots are larger, but there is not one plate in the whole collection that is not marked at one-half the former price. A large number of Decorated Covered Dishes, Decorated Meat Platters, and everything belonging to a Dinner Set on the same counter, and a glance at the prices will tell you how anxious we are to get rid of the Odd Lots.
