A OHICKEN AND WAFFLE SUPPER

Great Growd Less Evening.

Lest evening a chicken and we file supper se given at No. 120 North Duke street, by spel Sunday school of St James al church. There was a very large wowd of people present, including a num-ner of parties of ladies and gentlemen, the of which was brought by Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Franklin. All who attended were given an excellent supper of chicken and waffles at a very low rate, and the affeir was a big success, financially sed in every other way. The house the supper was given was leaned by Mrs. Van Nostran, who is about moving in. Mrs. C. F. Knight and Mrs. S. H. Reynolds had barge of the dining rooms. The cooks bete Mrs. Henry Lively, Mrs. David Mc-Mullen and Miss Brinton. They were sentented by Misses Griffiths, Elimaker and Mrs. J. B. Kaufman. The ice cream table res in charge of Mrs. and Miss Van Gisen, Miss Lane and Mrs. Davidson had the mice, Misses Brubaker, Herr and McCar-key the candy, and Misses Calder, Knight, hisser, Losher and — the flowers. ohn D. Rupley acted as cashier, and was hept quite busy. The supper will be conlined this evening. The money made will be used for procuring furniture and king some necessary improvements to

There is now talk of another walking saich. George Carr was in York on Tues-trying to arrange to have it there, but sot certain that he can get the builda be wants. The match is likely to come Tin this city. All the best prestrains of ble city will in all probability start with coveral from York. The sports of York have a poor opinion of Lancester walkers and they laugh at the records made by lasen. The match may lead to some fun.

The morning a horse hitched to the wagon of the Laneauter Curemei factory was left standing united on North Quern street, near the Schiller house. He frightened at something and started up the street. Near the Northern bank a wheel was twisted off, and the horse continued his flight. The milk wagon of Levi Howard, of Miliport, was atanding along the curb in front of Miss Gets's store, and the hind wheel was struck by the carmel wagon. The horse of the latter team was cought and stopped after he had run upon the pavement. Mr. Howard was in his wagon at the time, and although he received a lively shaking up he was not hurt in the least. Two springs of his wagon in the least. Two springs of his wagon were broken. A Surprise Farty.

The family of Oliver Kendig, who resides at No. 427 West Lemon street, were surprised last evening. Yesterday was the birthday of Mr. Kendig and his son Augustus. Miss Mame Sherizer, who lives at 408 West Lemon street, got up a party of twenty-five coupies, and marched to the house of Mr. Kendig. There was vocal and instrumental music during the evening, and at the close all sat down to an elegant suppar.

On Tuesday evening the Lillian Kennedy company again appeared in the opera house. The play was "Tracked Down" and was of little account. The audience was small. Altred Dacey played the part of Teddy McGuire, a young Irishman, Miss Kennedy that of Mabel Stanley and Mr. Sullivan was Harry Northcott.
