...ERAL OF CHAS. L. BROWN.

...AN KILLED BY THE CARS IN CHICAGO LAST WEEK.

...th of Mrs. David Weidler at Ironville. ...ss M. E. Layton to Take Charge of a School for Deaconesses in New York. A Horse and Cart Fall Twenty Feet.

COLUMBIA, Jan. 28—The remains of ...les L. Brown, who was killed in Chicago on Wednesday night, arrived in town on Sunday morning, and was taken to his home on Perry street above Front. Brown was employed as brakeman on the C. B. & ..., and was on a car that was wrecked. In ...endeavoring to escape he was instantly killed, being terribly cut about the head, and his left arm was severed. The funeral ...s held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the ...vices were conducted by Rev. W. S. ...man, of the Second street Lutheran ...urch.

Mrs. David Weidler died at her home in Ironville, near here, on Sunday night, in the 34th year of her age. Death resulted from consumption. Mrs. Weidler was a former resident of town and moved to Ironville about six week ago. A husband and three small children survive. The funeral will be held on Thursday morning and interment at Mountville.

Miss M. E. Layton has been appointed to establish and take charge of a training school for deaconesses in New York. This is an office created by the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to assist in pastoral work. Miss Layton will leave town on Tuesday.

Rev. Frederick Upham, D. D., president of the Drew theological college, has been engaged to deliver the annual missionary sermon in the Methodist church.

The first of a series of five cent entertainments was given on Saturday night in the Methodist church parlors by the Layton band. The programme consisted of tableau, singing, etc.

Miss M. E. Layton preached in the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

A meeting of the persons interested in the shirt factory will meet this evening at the office of Wm. B. Given, esq.

A horse and cart were backed into the lime kilns of Herr, Weitzel & Co., of Wrightsville, on Saturday. The horse fell about 20 feet, but was not hurt.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Two Men Arrested for Getting Away With Other People's Turkeys.

F. M. Baum was arrested near Georgetown Saturday night by Officer Wittick and John Sentman was captured near Leaman Place by Officer Barnhold. They have been committed to jail in default of bail to answer charges of larceny and receiving stolen goods before Squire Rohrer, of Leaman Place. For some time past Milton Urich, Jacob Raby and other people residing at Williamstown, and in that neighborhood have been missing turkeys which were carried off at night. Suspicion pointed to the men under arrest, who are said to have been selling turkeys this winter. Last Friday night or early Saturday morning a farmer residing near Strasburg was awakened by a noise among his poultry. He arose and found a man trying to get away with two turkeys. When the thief saw the farmer he ran, dropping one of the fowls. The other he placed in the buggy, which was standing near by, and drove off. It is said that the team was identified as one that Baum had hired from Sentman who keeps a livery at Sonderburg. It is claimed that Sentman and Baum were seen in this city together on Saturday. Sentman has served a term in prison for selling other people's turkeys and his reputation is not of the best.

THEY MADE A NARROW ESCAPE.

...other Ole Who ... Asphyxiated By Gas.

William B. Heisine and wife, who reside at No. 226 North Mulberry street, made a narrow escape from suffocation by coal gas this morning. They sleep immediately over the dining room in which there is a new heater. The fire was fixed as usual last evening, and Mrs. Heisine arose first this morning. She experienced a very queer feeling, but managed to prepare breakfast for a gentleman who boards with them. After that she became deadly sick and was unable to do anything. When Mr. Heisine awoke he felt so badly that he found it impossible to arise from bed. Word was sent to Mrs. Frank Taylor, a sister of Mr. Heisine, who resides at No. 34 North Mulberry street. That lady went to the house and found Mr. Heisine and wife in the condition described. She sent for Dr. Yeagley, who came at once. He attended to the couple and soon had them out of danger. They have been obliged to remain in bed all day, however, and their deaths might have been caused.

Meeting of Linnean Society.

The Linnean society met statedly on last Saturday afternoon, Dr. J. P. Wickersham, the president, occupying the chair. The donations to the library consisted of a number of volumes, pamphlets, etc.; there were no donations to the museum. Dr. S. S. Rathvon read an interesting paper on "The Lynx canadensis." John K. Small read a list of corrections and additions to the county flora and reported progress in the rearrangement of the society's herbarium of the county. S. M. Sener read an illustrated paper on "Indian Deeds." The curators, secretary, treasurer and librarian read their annual reports, which were approved and ordered to be filed. This being the annual meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. J. P. Wickersham; vice presidents, C. A. Heinitsh and Dr. J. S. Stahr; recording secretary, S. M. Sener; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. Ray; treasurer, Dr. S. S. Rathvon; librarian, Mrs. L. D. Zell; curators, Dr. S. S. Rathvon, S. M. Sener, Dr. J. S. Stahr and C. A. Heinitsh. On motion the society, after the transaction of some current business, adjourned to meet on Saturday, March 30, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

A Street Fight.

A fight on Church street near Rockland, early Sunday morning, was reported at the station house. When the police arrived there no one was about. A hat was found on the pavement, which was afterwards claimed by a man who said he had not been in the fight. It has since been learned that two young men named Drachbar and ... were attacked at the place by a party ... but ... [illegible]

Negligence of the Janitress.

The janitress of the Lemon street school building left the spigot turned on on Sunday, on the third floor of the building. The school was not visited by her until this morning when the building was found to be flooded with water. The ceilings are somewhat damaged. The water was principally in the halls, and school went on as usual to-day.

Breach of Promise Suit.

B. F. Eshleman, attorney for Catherine Elizabeth Stouter, of this city, to-day entered suit in the court of common pleas against Michael F. Bartley, jr., for breach of promise. She claims $5,000 damages for his failure to keep the promise he made to marry her.

THE GREATEST REDUCTION OF ALL AT

H. GERHART'S.

FINE TAILORING.

In order to reduce a heavy stock and give employment to my hands, I will make up to order for the remainder of the winter season, all Heavy-Weight Suiting, Overcoating and Trousering at cost price. Here is a chance to get a first-class article for a small amount of money. Special attention paid to Full Dress Suits.

SHOES! SHOES!

I would like to call the attention of the public to our Men's line of $3 shoes and our line of Ladies' $1.50 Shoes. No Men's $3 shoes we have in all styles and sizes. It's a shoe you can depend on for service, is nicely finished, and taken all in all, is the finest shoe for the money to be had anywhere. Call and see it and compare it with any $3 shoe in the city. It don't take an expert to see where this shoe excels. We formerly sold this shoe for $4.50, but marked it down to meet the demands for a $3 shoe. Our Ladies' $1.50 line we have in Kid, Kid Foxed, Glove Kid Top and Pebble. This makes a very nice Dress shoe, and it will surprise you to see how nice a shoe you can get for a small sum. We carry a full line of ready-made Boots and Shoes at all prices, made over the latest lasts. We do not misrepresent anything. This season we keep a line of cheap Rubbers. Call and compare our goods and prices.

MONEY FOR YOU.

This week we are taking account of our Hat stock, and we have given everything in this line the last cut. All Winter Goods are now Marked Down to such an extent that they will have to be sold at the present prices or packed up for another season. But that is something we don't care to do, and to avoid it we have marked everything as low as possible, and if prices will be any inducement to you we have them. Remember this is the last cut. You can buy any winter goods now as cheap as you can the first of April. This is your time to buy a Robe or Fur Cap. We have a few more choice Buffalo Robes left, lined and unlined.

MARTIN BRO'S.

We've Put a Taking Price on Them.

We've had to close our eyes sometimes to the cost. Never mind, it's the quick, good-bye of many lots of Suits, Overcoats, Underwear and Gloves we're after. If you're fortunate to see them you'll be the gainer and we'll have money turned. You can save a DOLLAR on a Suit of Underwear. TWO TO FOUR DOLLARS on a Suit or Overcoat, and so much on Gloves. When you see them you see them you'll be a ready buyer. Dress and Street Gloves, Cloth and Kid, 12c, 18c, 25c, 39c, 50c, 75c, 89c and $1.00. Working Gloves, Buckskin, Hogskin, and every kind that's strong and warm, 25c, 35c, 45c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. Underwear, 17c, 23c, (35, and so on, and so on for Shirts and Drawers. Men's, Boys' and Children's Extra Pantaloons. Don't be afraid the price won't be low enough. Children's and Boys' Pants, 25c to $1 50. Some long, some short. Men's All-Wool Pantaloons, $1 98 and $2 50. Very fine, $3 50 and $5 00. They have all found it out. The lawyers, physicians, professional men in general, the swell as well as the working and business men. Our big values in $5 00 and $7 50 Pantaloons to measure. Fit and workmanship the best.
