MANAGROR OF BARAGES AGAINST BR PERSTLYARIA BAILGOAD.

S. Sutor Sjosted From a Passon in the Reducing to Pay What Se-lected on Dejust Demond-The Jury Assess Demonges at $92.00.

Manday afternoon. This is a suit to sever deceases and was entered in the suit of seminous pieces in September, 1870, and a minetoem years ago. The tasts of the see as proved by plaintiff were these: On the might of March 31, 1870 Mr. Reider, the was them a resident of Middletown, but to Elimbothtown on business. In against of the ticket agent when a could return to Middletown and the tick to see the seminous of the ticket agent when a could return to Middletown and the tick to could go back the same night. It is the manded his business, went to the that office of the company and purchased that for Middletown. In a short time a min came along, stopped at the station and he ticket agent toid Mr. Reider that was in train. He got on the train and in a few minutes the conductor called for his ticket. Its handed out the ticket he had purchased at the conductor told him it was not good at that train, as it did not stop at Middletown. The conductor wanted it cents, the more from Middletown to Harrisburg, and the from Middletown to Harrisburg, and the from Middletown to Harrisburg, and the had bought a ticket for Middletown and on it he was entitled to travel to that the pay the SI cents or get off the train. Mr. The conductor and the would have to pay the SI cents or get off the train. Mr. to pay the SI cents or get off the train. Mr.
Reider again refused to pay, the conductor Stooped the train, and Mr. Reider was Great. The place he was put off was about a mile and a half from Elizabethtown. In welking back to that place, on the relired,
Mr. Reider fell in a cow hole. His head was cut and his limbs bruised so bedly that he was under the dector's care for several was out and his limbs bruised so bedly that he was under the doctor's care for several days, and it is for the injuries custained and outrage committed that this suit was brought to recover damages.

The defense was that no force was used in ejecting him from the cars, that his sicket was not good on the train he boarded at Elizabethtown, that the request of the conductor to pay $1 cents extra fare to Harrisburg was not an unrescenable one, and in conclusion that Mr. Bedder was not seriously injured by his leider was not seriously injured by his

The jury after a deliberation of seventeen hours reached the conclusion that plaintiff had suffered $92.00 damages, and awarded hir. Reider that sum. Some of the jurcra were in invor of allowing as high as $250 famages, and others none at a'l. They finally struck an average at the above figures. D. McMullen for plaintiff; H. M. Forth for defendant. EFORE JUDGE PATTERSIN.

The suit of Abraham F.Shelly for the use Ostherine Drace vs. Jacob Swade, administrator of Barbara Drace, deceased, was sched for trial in the lower court room Monday afternoon. This was an issue recover $600 with interest on a promissory to dated April 17, 1876, signed by Barbara see, in favor of Elisabeth Drace, but becquently transferred to Catherine sees. The signature to the note was rood, there was no defense offered and proved, there was no defense offered and the jury rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $1,023, the full amount of the siaim with interest to date. Brown & Hencel for plaintiff; S. P. Eby for defendant. The suit of A. Gerber vs. Mrs. Sallie A. Webb was attached for trial this morning.

This is an appeal from the judgment of J.

L. Hippis. The facts of the case are these:

Is 1883 defendant, who was then a widow, yed plaintiff to assist her in the set tisment of her husband's "", which amounted to $42,000. " sevisted her to make collections and investments, and when the entate was finally settled she sized to pay plaintiff for the services that Mr. Gerber volum teered to sesiat her in the settlement of her husband's estate without charge.

JOHN HORTING'S BIRTHDAY

His Priends Procest Him With a Beautifu

John Horting, the well known liquer desier, of North Queen aireet, was 49 years of age yesterday. In the evening the event was celebrated by a surprise party at his house. About twenty-five gentlemen friends of the gental John were present. During the evening he was presented with me. The speech was made by Dr. R. M. snine, who gave a sketch of Mr. Horting's life, from the day of his birth, in a very ing style. The recipient of the gift of setonished that he was unable to oply for a time, but when he collected timeelf he returned his heartlest thanks to the donors. The cane, which is very beau-tiful, is of abony, and has a gold head, on which is the inscription, "Presented to John Horting by his irlends, 1849—1889."

Later the party set down to an elegant exper, which had been prepared by Mra. Horsing, and included almost everything that could be wished for. The gentiemen d at the table for some time, during aseh they had speeches, songs, stories, It was a late hour before the party sup, and they united in wishing Mr. ng many more as pleasant birthdays.

BARRERY CAMPBELL'S "PATE"

Presented to a Large Audience at the Opera House by Cardiner's Company.

At Falton opera house last evening C. B. Gardiner's dramatic company appeared in the compdy-drama "Fate," written by the late Bartley Campball. Although selther the company mor the play was well known in Lancacter a very large audience was drawn. The piece tenot of the kind that esters to the gallery, yet that part of the house was crowded last night, while the ausjority of the cents down stairs were compied. The play was very well produced, and critics who may it were pieced. The company is not large, but it includes clever artists. The star is Miss Lee Lamar, who is a remarkably handsome woman and a good actrees. In the part of Helen Faraday, the injured wife, she was excellent, although suffering from a severe coid. Miss Bessie Taylor did well as Miss Juno Temple, the unscrupulous adventures and faithless wife. The other people were capable and the characters were distributed as follows: Miss Parthenia Dyce, Miss Annie MoGregor; Sallie Ann Waddles, Miss Lois Berielle; Frank Faraday, Charles Mortimer; Blace, George W. Larsen; Richard Paulding, James A. Mahomy; Uncle Dervent, Frederick Vernon; Lawyer Burdette, W. A. Adams. Mr. Larsen as Blass made the fun of the evening, and succeeded in working in several taking songs. What somery the company had of their own was good.

The directors of the Concetogs bank held a meeting to day to elect officers, select a site and transact other business. The forencon and the greater part of this afternoon was spent in talking over the site. There are some in the board who want the bank in Centra Romana or East King street. bank in Centre Square or East King street, while others want it on South Queen. Nothing had been done in the matter, up to the time of our going to press.

Pater Roden, an eight-year-old son of Charles Roden, of 634 South Beaver street, fell from a hay mow on which he was playing on Saturday evening, breaking one of his legs near the hip.

Arrest of Two Horse Thieves. Frank Laurell and Benjamin Green, two colored men, were arrested in Cornartwo colored men, were arrested in Certar-von township, on Saturday for steal-ing a horse, harness and wagon from Martin DeHaven. Constable ferael Ulark made the arrest. Lau-rell has a bad reputation and it is said that there is a charge against hin in Lebanon county for shooting a man, after which he skipped to Laucaster county.

Married on Sunday Evening. George B. Robinson, a well known young man of this city, and Mrs. Mary Vogelands, were married on Sunday evening. The ceremony was performed by 'Rev. A. F. Kaul, of St. Anthony's church. Afterwards a reception was held at the residence of Adam Guiffelsch, No. 551 West King street, where the happy couple received the congratulations of their many friends.

The Case Was Not Pressed John Novelis was heard by Alderman Halbach last evening for apprepriating to his own use a value, the property of Max Fromane, for a debt. The testimony showed that the defendant kept the value because he believed he had a right to it. He said he was willing to return it, the proseeution was not pressed, the prosecutor secured his valies and that ended the case.

The Pennsylvania railroad company bas made a change in their daily excursion tickets which will be highly satisfactory to persons who travel by rail.
