NOTES ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

Some Matters of Interest to the Taxpayers of the County.

Up to Wednesday there were but few appeals from the taxation as fixed by the assessors. To-day Fulton township sent a number of dissatisfied persons to the commissioners office.

Robert Coleman, the Cornwall millionaire, was paid $50 a few days ago for damage to his property in Eden township by a road being opened through it.

The county pays the expense incurred in the condemnation of turnpikes. The Conestoga & Big Spring turnpike was not condemned, but the expense of the same was $200.

The commissioners have not yet rendered their decision on the question raised by City Solicitor Brown, that the water works is not liable to county tax. Under the same decision of the supreme court that the city is not liable, the city will lose the water rent charged against the county institutions.

The assessor of Sadsbury township returns a man in his district who has $20 at interest.

Last week's petit jurors cost the county for their services $599.69. The grand jurors pay amounted to $806.18, and the constables for making their quarterly returns $208.74.

The only assessment books not returned to the county commissioners' office are those of West Hempfield and Manor townships. The decrease in valuation of real estate since the last triennial assessment is about $1,000,000.

THE WATER COMMITTEE.

Its Hope the Old Pump From Forcing Filthy Water Into the Reservoir.

The water committee of councils held a meeting last evening. On motion of Mr. McLaughlin it was ordered that the pump at the old water works be stopped at once. The committee seems to have forgotten until the present time that this pump was forcing water into the reservoir, which was polluted by the filth from the sewer in the northern part of town, which now been finished for six months or more.

A report was made to the committee in regard to the capacity of the 5,000,000 gallon pump, which was recently converted into a 5,000,000 gallon pump. The start was made on Sunday evening, after the western reservoir had been measured by City Engineer Haymaker. Water was pumped into this basin for five hours, and none was used. The first calculation of the quantity contained made it 1,003,024 feet, and another test made it 1,031,724. This would make a total of 4,818,690 gallons in 24 hours. A calculation made by Engineer Fellenbaum, according to the displacement of the pumps, shows that 1,071,000 gallons were pumped in five hours, making a total of 5,140,800 in twenty-four.

THE BOYS HEARD FROM.

They Make Friends in Pittsburg and Are Kindly Treated.

The chief of police this morning received a well written letter from Paul and Lloyd Rogers, the two waifs, who were picked up in this city on Saturday night, and after being well taken care of were sent to Pittsburg. The letter states that the boys, who left here on Fast Line Tuesday afternoon, made plenty of friends on the cars, by whom they were kindly treated. When the letter was written the boys were in the Pittsburg station awaiting the time for the chief of police to be at his office. The little fellows were very thankful to Chief Smeltz and others for their kindness, and they thought it very fortunate for them that Officer Boas took them into custody on Saturday night, as they came in contact with very kind people.

A dispatch in the morning papers from Pittsburg states that the boys were given passes to Chicago and were likely to reach their destination safely. The chief of police has received a letter from Mrs. Quig, of Philadelphia, with whom the boys stopped for a time, thanking him and the people of Lancaster for their kindness to the little fellows.

One Play Will Not Draw For Three Nights.

It has been pretty well settled in this city that a company with but one play cannot draw large audiences for three straight nights in this city. The company producing "Fate" had a large audience the first night, a medium sized one the second, and a poor one last night. At yesterday's matinee the piece was given to a small audience, which included nearly all the members of the Lillian Kennedy company now in Columbia.

Surprise Party at Grant Hall.

Last evening a large surprise party was given at Grant hall, to Miss Lillie Palmer, of No. 522 North Queen street. There were fifty couples in the promenade, which was led by J. Villee, who had for his partner Miss Emily Hartly. The success of the affair was due to the work of L. Villee, H. Brandt, C. Danner and J. Villee.

City Property Withdrawn.

The two-story brick dwelling house No. 242 East Walnut street belonging to the estate of Rev. Geo. W. Giessner, offered at public sale on Wednesday evening by Joel L. Haines, auctioneer, was withdrawn at $1,250.

State and County Tax.

Benjamin F. Hastings, collector of state and county tax for the Eastern wards of the city, has settled with the county treasurer [illegible] amounting to $1,340.

THE LANCASTER TRUST COMPANY.

The Charter For the State Issued To-day by the State Department at Harrisburg.

A charter was issued by the state department at Harrisburg to-day, and letters patent were signed by the governor, incorporating the Lancaster Trust company, the advertisement of whose application has been published for some time. The incorporators named are John D. Skiles, John L. Hartman, Samuel M. Myers, J. Gust Zook, J. Hay Brown and W. U. Hensel. The first named is named as treasurer, and the other five directors. The capital of the concern is fixed at $250,000, divided into 2,500 shares of $100 each. It is expected by those interested that the new institution will begin business at an early day, whether in temporary or permanent quarters, or how soon a new building will be erected has not yet been determined. The scope of the trust company's objects is very comprehensive; it embraces title and mortgage insurance, purchase and sale of notes, bonds and securities of all kinds, safe deposit of money, plate, jewelry, bonds and valuables of every description, and in general the business of every kind which has made similar trust companies so successful and popular in the various cities of the common wealth.

The suit of M. H. Townsend vs. William Proud and Robert Merrick was attached this morning. This was a suit to recover $153 for commissions for the purchase by plaintiff for defendants of cattle and expense incurred in the same.

BEFORE JUDGE PATTERSON.

The suit of Charles E. Ward and Lizzie A. Ward, to the use of Aaron Hertman, vs. Isaac Montgomery was attached this morning in the lower court room. This is an action to recover $80 from defendant, who was surety of James Rogers for rent.

The jury in the replevin suit of Joseph D. C. Pownall vs. Alfred D. Conard this afternoon rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $100. J. Hay Brown and James M. Walker for plaintiff; M. Brosius for defendant.

A Birthday Party.

J. A. Sprenger, the well known brewer, was sixty years of age yesterday. In the evening he gave a set-out to a large number of friends, including the members of the Modoc Ring, at his saloon, on Prince street, next to Fulton opera house. Everybody present had an excellent time and although they are not anxious to see Mr. Sprenger grow old, they would be glad to see his birthday come often.

Mrs. H. H. Monroe's Lecture.

The second of the illustrated lectures last evening at the court house by Mrs. H. H. Monroe was well attended. The subject of the lecture was Washington. Among the stereopticon views exhibited were portraits of the leading members of Congress, public buildings and homes of prominent men.

This evening the civil war will be the subject of Mrs. Monroe's lecture, and a large number of views will be exhibited.

Charged With Striking a Woman.

Jacob Shopp, who resides near Mountville, was arrested to-day by Constable Yeisley on a charge of assault and battery. The prosecutrix is Annie Westhaefer, who alleges that Shopp struck her with a club in a quarrel about some chickens. Alderman Deen held the accused for a hearing.

Benny is All Right.

Benjamin Gettler, the Middle street boy, who stole his father's watch and then ran away, is free. The father, Frederick Gettler, took pity upon him yesterday and withdrew the complaint at Alderman Deen's. Benny had a nice little trip to Hanover, and a good time at the expense of the man to whom he pawned the watch and the county.

The Bicycle Club Ball.

The third annual hop of the Lancaster Bicycle club comes off to-night at Eshleman hall and a fine time is expected, as the club's friends always turn out very largely.
