"KREP IT DARK."

W. T. Bryant, Lissie Richa ad and Others in

Last evening there was a very large su-dience in Fulton opera house to see the play "Keep it Dark," notwithstanding the fact that the weather was anything but pleasant. The piece is a three-iet musical drama, which was written by George Heey. drame, which was written by George Hoey. It has everything but a plot and seems to have been written to create laughter. Much good musicis also introduced. The principal people in the company are William T. Bryant and Lizzie Richmond, formerly a very popular electoh team on the variety stags. Mr. Bryant is exceedingly funny as Jacper Vascline, the liver ped inventor, and he kept them all rearing last evening. Miss Richmond is excellent as Clementing Deleney, a character that affords her an opportunity to show fine contumes. Among the other people in the company is little Julis Wilson, the young lady who be same so popular years ago as Tot with Dea Thompson's "Joshus Whitcomb." Mits has the part of Bundles and is very clever. There is much good singing and clever. There is much good singing and fampy business in the pisy, and Miss Bianche Boyer does fine dancing. The whole company is strong, and they give a good show.

A PLEASANT HOP.

The Lancabler Bicycle Qiub Has a Fine Th at Echleman Hall, at Beblaman Hall. Last night the Lancaster Bicycle club held its third annual hop in Eshleman hall, on North Duke streat. This organi-sation is composed of well known young men of this city and their entertainments have always been very successful. That of last night was the best by far that they have yet given. The crowd present was large and fashionable. The committee of arrange-ments consisted of D. F. Grove, chairman, Wm. A. Riest, Monroe Hirsh and Harvey Griel. They appeared in dress suits, wearing the club's colors. The floor manager was H. B. Ammon. The grand manager was H. B. Ammon. The grand by Charles W. Heitshue, accompanied by Mim Jennie Harrison. They were followed by Charles W. Heitsbue, accompanied by Miss Jennie Harrison. They were followed by the committee. To the music of Wash Taylor's orchestra the dancing was kept up until an early hour this morning. During the night a supper was partaken of by the participants in the ball, which had been propared by John Copland, the popular estortz. The whole affair pessed off very pieseanity and the club is entitled to praise for their good management of it. Among the people in attendance at the hop from a distance was the following: Miss Grace Kieffer, Chambersburg: Miss Mase Zook, Columbis; Miss Mabel Fargo, Brie; J. S. Eberbach, Philadelphis; C. F. He Ghose the Township. In 1578 the Legislature passed an act giving to owners of property, where the mansion house is partly in a borough and partly in a township, to elect in which district his property shall be assessed. The first application under that law was made to the commissioners this morning. The applicant was John Evans, whose house is partly in East Donegal township and partly in ML Joy borough. Mr. Evans elected to be assessed in the township. He thus escapes the borough tax. From the Litits Record.
