RETURNED TO COURT.

[illegible] ROGERS AND HIS FIREMAN GIVEN PRELIMINARY HEARING.

[illegible] Furnished for Their Appearance at the [illegible] Quarter Court—William Parker, a Well Known Locomotive Driver, Dies in Wrightsville—A Club Banquet.

COLUMBIA, Feb. 5.—The hearing in the case of Rogers and McNally, engineer and fireman of Pennsylvania railroad, charged with involuntary manslaughter in being instrumental in the death of John C. Ryan, was given this morning. The crew of Conductor Ryan's train testified substantially to what was given at the coroner's inquest. McNally was held in $500 bail, Wm. Armstrong being the bondsman. Rogers was taken to Lancaster by Officer Barnhold where he appeared before the judge, Martin being his bondsman.

William Parker, aged 53, a well-known engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad, died on Monday afternoon at his home in Wrightsville. For some time he was suffering with kidney troubles, and about a month ago was compelled to quit work. He was born in Chester county. He was in the employ of the railroad at the age of 17 years and has been an engineer for 30 years. He came to town when a boy and lived here until 6 years ago when he moved to York county. A wife and two children survive. He was a member of Osceola Tribe, No. 11, of Red Men; Pennsylvania Castle, No. 76, Mystic Chain; Chippeta Castle, No. 58, K. of G. E., and Columbia Division, No. 104, Locomotive Engineers. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services in the M. E. church, of Columbia, and interment at Mount Bethel cemetery.

The annual banquet of the Rod and Gun club was held last night at Warren's restaurant. Every member of the club was present. The guests were Superintendent Thomas Gocker, Train Master Sam'l J. Pote, Harry Williams and Superintendent Westhall, of Williamsport, all of the P. R. R.

The opera house was packed last night, when Hardie and Von Leer presented "On the Frontier."

Jennie Winston and the Lyceum opera company will be in the opera house on Thursday night with "Boccaccio."

A slight fire occurred yesterday afternoon at the boarding house of George Sheets. The bed clothing caught fire from some unknown cause.

THE LANCASTER MÄNNERCHOR.

Their Concert and Sociable Last Night—The Attendance Large.

The vocal and instrumental concert of the Lancaster Mannerchor was held at the society's hall on Monday night. The crowd in attendance was very large, as is the case in nearly all entertainments given by this society. In the early part of the evening the concert took place and it was a delightful affair, under the leadership of Prof. Carl Matz, the hard-working and painstaking conductor of the society. The programme was as follows:

Orchestra—"Orlando Overture".....Boettger.
Chorus—"Weinlied".....A. Dregert.
Solo—"Merbatgefaahl".....O. Weiss.
C. Vatter.
Quartet—"Nur im Herzen wohnt die Liebe," Witt.
J. Siebert, J. Otthofer, V. Seibert, F. Weber.
Orchestra—"Transformation Medleys," Schleppegrell.
Solo—"Abends in Dunkeln." F. Meyer Helmund.
H. Fehmitt.
Chorus—"Fruehlingstrost".....C. Fittig.
Orchestra—"Dispositionen Walzer"..Franke.
Quartet—"Haiden Roslain".....Werner.
M. Schmitt, W. Bair, W. Wohlsen, C. Vatter.
Solo—"Rheinlied".....Peters.
J. Siebert.
Chorus—"Gebetmuies".....C. Isenmann.
Orchestra—"Banquet Overture," Schleppegrell.

The concert was followed by dancing, which was continued until an early hour this morning.

Vogansville and Vicinity.

The Dunkard denomination, under the auspices of Revs. Jos. Martin and Heidler, from Bothesville, are holding a series of revival meetings in the Union church. The meetings are well attended.

Rev. J. Stewart Hartman will preach in the English language in the Union church on Sunday evening.

Rev. J. Woehrle preached his valedictory sermon in the Evangelical church on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Chas. E. Pilgrim, the evangelist, will preach in the U. B. church at Hinkletown in the latter part of next month.

Daniel Strauck, an aged man, and the child of Daniel Snader were buried on Sunday. John Good's child was buried on Saturday.

The Hinkletown Literary society discussed the "secret society" question on Friday evening. The house and judge decided that secret societies were not beneficial to the United States.

The lyceum in this town will discuss the sensational topic, "White Caps," on Tuesday evening.

Held For Larceny.

Jacob Stoey and John Wagner have been arrested by Constable Barnhold and held in bail for a hearing before Alderman Spurrier on the charge of larceny. Some days ago a half barrel copper kettle was stolen from the premises of Jonas Kauffman, of Lemville. It was believed that the kettle was brought to this city and Mr. Kauffman and the constable found it at the junk shop of Herman Ehrhart, on North Christian street, where it had been sold by Wagner and Stoey.

Broke His Ankle.

Peter Hughes, an employe of the Cornwall ore banks, was brought to this city on the 2 o'clock train, from Lebanon, this afternoon. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital. While prying a heavy stone the bar which he was using slipped and he fell, breaking his ankle.

Mrs. Stoner Sues J. R. Hoffer for $2,000.

Mrs. Laura K. Stoner, who figured as the prosecutor of J. E. Hoffer, the associate editor of the Mt. Joy Herald, and who succeeded in putting him to jail, is now after J. R. Hoffer, the publisher of that paper, for damages. She entered a suit against him in the court of common pleas to-day, through her counsel, B. F. Davis, for $2,000 damages, for publishing the libel, in reference to her elopement, written by a son and for which he is paying the penalty in jail.

Funeral of Mrs Herr

The funeral of Mrs. Rose E. Herr, which took place this afternoon from her late home on North Duke street, was largely attended. Services were held in St. James' church and the interment was made at Woodward Hill. The pall bearers were: Thomas B. Cochran, Charles F. Rengier, George N. Reynolds, A. F. Reinoehl, Dr. J. Ang. Ehler, Dr. S. T. Davis, Dr. C. E. Hotscher, and Dr. H. E. Muhlenberg.

A New Style Postal Card.

The new style postal card will be ready for the public in a few days. Its advantage over the old one is the fact that it can be folded, thus shielding written contents from publicity. The price will remain the same as that paid for the one now in use.

Patent Granted.

Among the patents granted during the past week was one to S. B. Cox, of this city, for fifth wheel.

Had a Finger Mashed.

John Stewart, who is employed as a rubber at the South Queen street marble works, had one of his fingers badly mashed this forenoon by having a stone fall on it.

Hotel Opening.

The opening of the American hotel, on South Queen street, which has just been remodeled, will take place on Thursday evening.

$3,500,000 FOR THE STATE.

The State's Right to Tax Corporation Loans at Par Affirmed.

The supreme court on Monday reversed the following five loan tax cases appealed from the Dauphin county common pleas and entered judgment in favor of the commonwealth for the amounts given: City of Chester, $1,341 45; the Delaware Division Canal company, $946.50; the Bell's Gap Railroad company, $665.60; the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad company, $5,220.60, and the Bellefonte, Nittany & Lamont Railroad company, $328.70. Each judgment carries with it about one year's interest at double the legal rate.

The question at issue was the constitutionality of the act of June 30, 1885, imposing a 3 mill tax on the par value of all corporate loans, whether interest bearing or not. The decision will bring in nearly $3,000,000 to the state treasury, as no settlements have been made for three years. The attorney for the corporations will now argue the case on several points that were reserved, and, if unsuccessful, will take the case to the United States supreme court.

In Favor of Plaintiff.

From the Reading Eagle.

Judge Ermentrout read a lengthy and very exhaustive opinion in the case of Rev. Emanuel V. Gerhart, president of the Reformed theological seminary, Lancaster, vs. Leonora C. Leaf, Mary E. Pusey, Kate S. Muhlenberg, executrix of H. H. Muhlenberg, deceased, Mary A. and James A. Millholland, administrators for James Millholland, deceased, Henry S. and Geo. B. Eckert and Rebecca E. Stetson, executors of Isaac Eckert, deceased. Judgment was entered in favor of plaintiff for $3 576.17, the court being of opinion that Rev. Gerhart in April, 1885, was a partner in the Leesport Iron company, holding a one-third of one-fifth interest in the property then held by the firm acquired subsequently to August 20, 1863. The case has been in the courts for years, and will likely be taken to the supreme court. Much of the real estate owned by the firm was purchased while Frederick S. Hunter was a partner, but portions were added after his death, and also after the death of his wife. Mr. Hunter died in August, 1863, and his widow was married to Rev. Gerhart in August 1865, and she died in July 1866, bequeathing to Rev. Gerhart her share in the Leesport Furnace company, being one-th ird of one fifth thereof.

Regimental Reunion.

The Fifth Pennsylvania Cavalry Regiment association, known as the Cameron Dragoons, of which there are members in this city and county, will hold a reunion on the afternoon of Washington's birthday at the hall of Cavalry Post No. 35, G. A. R. at Broad and Wood streets, Philadelphia. The committee is arranging to make the affair a great success, and Charles Steiger, secretary, of 1,028 Leithgow street, Philadelphia, is anxious to hear from all who desire to participate.

Reunion of Sixteeners.

The Mount Joy Sixteeners association will hold their annual reunion at Mount Joy on Friday, February 22d. The first reunion was held last year and it was so successful that the members were greatly encouraged. A group photograph of all present is to be taken at the next meeting.

The New Orchestra in Trinity Chapel.

At 8 o'clock this evening, Prof. Thorbahn's new orchestra of twenty-six instruments, assisted by some excellent talent from Millersville, will give a superb concert in Trinity chapel, under the auspices of the Junior Missionary society.

COMPETITION A GOOD THING. YOU get a good deal of gratuitous advertising through it. The attendance at the LANCASTER BUSINESS COLLEGE, 103½ East King street, has never been so greatly augmented during any preceding January since its organization. Columbia, Mount Joy, Manheim, Mountville, Refton and Leacock have contributed their quota. "Square dealing" in all that the name implies is our motto. If on a preliminary examination we find your son or daughter incompetent to pursue the prescribed course satisfactorily, we can afford to be honest enough to tell you. STRUCK OIL.
Struck Oil.
One of the latest discoveries is the finding of an oil well in this city.
Which every person will rush to see.
The excitement will run high to-morrow, as all who wish to get the good pure oil at less price than they can buy an inferior article will no doubt take the advantage of it.
Now of course you want to know where this oil well is to be found.
Well, its an Old Road, and no doubt has been trod by you before. The place is

THINK OF IT!
Out of the 1,500 people who sampled S. S. Marvin & Co.'s Eagle Butter Crackers (Old Abe.) We have only had one single complaint so far. And I think this person thought they were too good. They did not last long enough.
Order a pound and tell your friends how good a cracker they are.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. B. MARTIN & CO.
We have been telling you of odd lots that have come to the surface during stock taking in China Department and here are more. One lot of gas globes, 62 in all, whose former prices were 50c, 75c and $1.00, are now 25c each. Table tumblers, thin glass, that we only have one-half dozen up to two dozen in each lot, have been placed on sample stand, and those that sold at $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00 a dozen are now 90c. Heavy tumblers, pressed to imitate the cut, and whose former prices were 75c and $1.00, are now 50c a dozen. About 25 dozen Japanese butters go down to 35c a dozen, and a lot of Japanese pepper boxes to 5c each. The odd plate counter has been refilled and presents some remarkable bargains in French, English and Carlsbad China. Last week for the odd plates. Some of the greatest bargains in Stand and Hanging Lamps are now on display.
