THE RELIEF OF THE POOR.

MONKARET'S MONEY TO BE HELD IN ESCROW FOR THAT PURPOSE.

Objects Provision in His Will for Columbia Council Meets and Receives the Report of the Police Committee Defining the Duties of Special Officers.

COLUMBIA, Feb. 12.—The regular monthly meeting of council was held last evening with the following members present: Messrs. Bennett, Ferry, Jackson, Mifflin, Stevenson, Wilson. Absent, Messrs. Cramer, Grove.

The finance committee reported as follows:

Balance on hand at last report	$4,309 77
Water rents	208 16
Rent of auditorium	376 79
Interest market rents	105 85
Licenses—Butchers'—1887	233 63
Sinking fund certificate	1,800 00
Sinking fund interest	11 25
Licenses	10 00
Market rents	24 00
Total	$6,717 11
Orders paid during the month	$6,217 74
Balance on hand	$ 499 45

The highway committee reported that the wharfing at foot of Union street had been extended on the north and south side and they recommended the extension of the terra cotta pipe sewer.

The market committee reported the treasurer's rents for the year amounted to $3,321.65.

The sanitary and police committee made the following recommendations in regard to the duties and appointment of special police: The officers appointed shall be men of regular and sober habits, and shall not be over 45 years or less than 5 feet 8 inches in height. The hours of duty shall be eleven, as follows: On alternate days No. 1 will go on duty at 7 a. m. and off at 1 p. m., and at 7 p. m. and off at 12 m. No. 2 on at 1 p. m. and off at 12. Said officers shall patrol such streets and districts as the chief burgess may direct, and shall report to the chief burgess of their doings at least once each 24 hours. It shall be the duty of said officers to arrest, prosecute and bring to justice all parties for any violation of said ordinance. Upon the proper complaint of any citizen for any violation of an ordinance it shall be the duty of said officers to investigate and if sufficient evidence can be found to convict, it shall be their duty to go before the chief burgess and sue out warrants for their arrest. Said officers shall be subject to instructions from the chief burgess at all times. They shall look after the general peace of the borough and arrest all offenders. The officers appointed shall wear a police regulation cap. The borough shall furnish them with badge and club. For such service they shall receive from the borough $1.50 per diem. Any complaint made before the chief burgess for acts unbecoming an officer or failing to perform their duty, he shall investigate the same and if there should be sufficient cause, the chief burgess shall have power to suspend or dismiss. The report was received and filed.

The fire committee reported the fire companies in good condition. They called the attention of council to the fire alarm, which as at present operated, is entirely worthless, the committee recommended that they be instructed to ascertain the cost of putting a telegraph alarm in the borough.

The fire committee was instructed to secure the services of Watchman Dysinger to strike the fire alarms at night, the compensation to be $10 per year.

Chief Burgess Sneath reported the riot on Monday night in which Charles Evans was assaulted while going home from work. The following resolution was presented: That a reward of $100 be hereby offered for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who instigated the riot at the Susquehanna rolling mill on Monday evening, February 11th, and the arrest and the conviction of any person or persons who took part in the assault committed on the person of Charles Evans. The motion was adopted by the vote:

Ayes—Messrs. Bennett, Mifflin, Stevenson and Ferry.

Nays—Messrs. Jackson and Wilson.

Solicitor Kauffman will give his opinion whether council can prohibit the selling of tickets beyond the capacity of the opera house.

Bills were ordered to be paid amounting to $1,047.39.

A communication was received from John B. Gest, vice president of the Fidelity Insurance and Safe Deposit company, of Philadelphia, stating that Wm. F. Lockard died on January 21st, leaving a will in which the borough of Columbia is interested, and it will be ultimately entitled to receive the bequea. A copy of the will was sent in which $500 was bequeathed to keep his mausoleum in repair. At the death of the widow, children, and the arrival at the majority of the heir's children, all of the estate will go to Columbia, to establish a trust fund similar to the Buchanan-McElroy-Reynolds fund of Lancaster.

Second Ward Republicans.

The Second ward Republicans held their primary meeting last night in the armory, which was largely attended. Emanuel Reecomer made a contest for the nomination of justice of the peace, but Samuel Evans carried off the nomination by over 200 majority. A fight was made against the nomination of Wm. Wittick for constable, but he easily beat his opponent, Christian H. Stoner, by a big majority. The complete ticket is:

Judge, Samuel S. Klair; inspector, Frank Sherizer; assessor, G. A. Grove; justice of the peace, Samuel Evans; constable, William Wittick; council, Chas. W. Minnich; school board, Theo. L. Urban; conferees, A. Bruner, J. W. Yocum, N. H. Hippey; auditor, H. H. Heise.

The Republican conferees of the three wards met last night and selected the following candidates for the borough tickets: Chief burgess, Jere Koch; high constable, Frank McFalls; tax collector, Sam'l H. Boyd.

An accident happened yesterday at the flour mill of Levi Mauilair & Co. The main rod of the engine broke at the crank, causing the piston rod to knock out the cylinder head. The head was blown with great force against the wall. The engine room was filled with steam, and it was some time before the engineer could stop the engine. The rod was broken, and the cross-head was entirely demolished. The accident will stop the mill for several days.

A german was given at the house of Mr. George Crane last night.

Miss Jessie Sooner entertained a large number of her friends last night. Miss Edith Patton also entertained some of her friends last night.

George Kepner arrived at his majority yesterday, and was given a party at his home last night.

The Sons of Veterans attended services in the Methodist church last night, when an eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. G. W. Ely.

Joseph Haley, better known by "Baltimore Joe," was arrested last night by Constable Wittick for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. 'Squire Evans gave him five days.

August Weis had a hearing before Squire Selby last night for assault and battery on Thomas Makin. The case was continued.

Funeral of Daniel E. Brown.

The funeral of Daniel E. Brown, registry clerk at the postoffice, took place this afternoon, from his residence, No. 531 North Queen street, and was attended by Lancaster Lodge No. 68, Knights of Pythias, Shawnee lodge of Odd Fellows, and postoffice officials. Services were held at the Lutheran church, and were conducted by Rev. C. Elvin Houpt. Interment in Woodward cemetery.

DAVID CONYNGHAM DIES.

An Aged and Well-Known Citizen of Paradise Passes Away.

David Conyngham, an old and well known resident of Paradise, died at his residence at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening.

Deceased came of good stock, both on the paternal and maternal side. His father, Redmond Conyngham, was a brother of the late Judge Conyngham, of Wilkesbarre, and a grandson of Sir Redmond Conyngham, of Ireland. His mother was the eldest daughter of Judge Jasper Yeates, who in his day stood at the head of the legal profession in the state of Pennsylvania. Mr. Conyngham was born July 31st, 1811. He was an honest, kind-hearted man, led a very quiet life and was celebrated for nothing more than for his piety and charity. He had not an enemy in the world: he was a friend to all. He was all his life a consistent member of All Saints Episcopal church, Paradise. He was a member of Pequea lodge, I. O. O. F, and F. & A. M. lodge, No. 43, of Lancaster, also, since 1860, of Lamberton Lodge, K. T.

He was an intimate friend of the late Col. Joel L. Lightner, and the news of his death no doubt brought on the fatal illness of Mr. Conyngham. He leaves a wife and seven children.

IN COMMON PLEAS COURT.

A Suit to Recover Damages on Account of the Opening of Clay Street.

The suit of Joseph Cosner vs W. W. Groff was attached for trial before Judge Livingston on Tuesday afternoon. This was a suit to recover a balance due from defendant for the services of plaintiff's minor children who were in Mr. Groff's employ. The defense was that plaintiff was paid in full. The jury found in favor of plaintiff for $44.18. Brown & Hensel for plaintiff; H. M. Houser for defendant.

The suit of L. W. Becker vs. the city and county of Lancaster for damages by the reason of the opening of Clay street through his premises, took all of Tuesday afternoon in the examination of witnesses as to the value of the property taken. Plaintiff's witnesses put it at about $3,000 and defendant's at about $2,300.

Millersville Council of United Friends.

Thos. Perrett, district deputy for Lancaster county of the order of United Friends, organized a new council of that order at Millersville on Tuesday evening. There are fifty applicants for membership as charter members, and as soon as the preliminary matters have been arranged the council will be formally instituted by Deputy Perrett.

Car Horse Runaway.

One of the horses of the city street railway frightened at an engine under the Duke street bridge this morning, and attempted to run off. The driver pulled the pin from the coupling and left him run. He was caught at East King street.

Foot Crushed.

Joseph Weaver, employed at the Peacock's furnace, had his left foot badly injured by having a heavy bar of iron fall on it. Less than an hour afterwards another employe of the furnace met with a similar accident.

In Town.

Mr. H. Lee Clark, sporting reporter of the Baltimore Sun, is in town attending the sessions, at the City hotel, of representatives of half-mile race tracks and agricultural fairs.

Police Officer Suspended.

Officer Dare reported at the station house for duty on Monday evening under the influence of liquor and Sergeant Hartley would not allow him to go on duty. The matter was reported to the chief the same night, and he at once put another man in Dare's place. The mayor will investigate the charge.

Took Possession.

William Snyder, the lessee of Hotel Lancaster, took possession this morning.

Large Sale of Farm Stock.

Auctioneer Sam Matt. Fridy, on Tuesday sold the stock and implements on the Park farm of the late Col. James Duffy. About $4,000 were realized.
