WHEN THE PRESIDENT...

Arrangements made for installation of Rev. A. T. Stewart at Marietta, on March 1st.

A special meeting of the Westminster Presbyterian church...

Rev. E. A. Snook presented his request for the dissolving of the pastoral relation with the Mt. Joy church.

Rev. J. A. Patterson, the committee of Mt. Joy church...

Rev. E. A. Snook was appointed to declare the pulp of the Mt. Joy church vacant on the last Sabbath of February...

The committee on supplies was directed to supply pulp at Mt. Joy and Mt. Joy until the next meeting of the presbytery.

Rev. A. T. Stewart, of Lehigh presbytery, presented a letter of dismission from that presbytery and after the usual examination...

A call from the church at Marietta for the pastoral service of Rev. Stewart was read, found in order, placed in his hands and accepted by him.

The pastor-elect, Rev. T. M. Crawford and Elder R. P. Stewart were appointed to arrange for his installation at Marietta.

The committee on supplies reported first Sabbath in March, E. A. Lowrey, Mt. Joy, Dr. Nevin, third Sunday, Rev. Crawford; fourth Sunday, Rev. A. T. Fox; fifth Sunday, Rev. M. L. Rose; first Sunday in April, Dr. McDougall, Mt. Joy and Donegal.

On motion the committee on home missions was directed to apply to the board of church erection for aid in the sum of $300 for the Delta chapel.

The committee on the installation of Rev. Stewart, as pastor of the Marietta church, made a report recommending that the installation take place on Wednesday evening, March 6th, and it was approved.

Rev. G. W. Ely will preside and propose the constitutional questions. Rev. C. S. Cross will preach the sermon. Rev. J. McDougall will deliver the charge to the pastor and Rev. G. W. Ely to the people.

Rev. Dr. Mitchell was made alternate for Rev. Dr. McDougall, and Rev. Dr. Niles for Rev. G. W. Ely.

Adjourned with prayer by Rev. Dr. Alfred Nevin.

Nevin's Castle Entertainment.

The entertainment of Nevin's Castle Knights at the Myrtle Grove, held in the hall of the order, in Kepler's building, last evening, was a success.

Nearly half of those who were to have taken part were prevented by sickness or other unavoidable causes. The credit was therefore much greater for those who carried out the programme. It was impossible to carry out the printed programme, but Vice-Commander Hamilton gave several readings and recitations in capital style. Addresses were made by Sir Knights Shulmyer, McElroy and Nolan. District Deputy Rottew was to have spoken on the "Objects and Aim of the Order," but was unable to be present.

Ned Fraley entertained the audience for a time with jokes and a drill with words was well given. Rev. Mr. Burke assisted at the organ. The room was filled to its utmost capacity, many persons being obliged to stand. About half the audience were ladies.

He Did Not Take Poison.

Yesterday afternoon a boy ran to the office of Dr. Walter Boardman, on South Queen street, to inform him that James Ritchie, who resides on South Beaver street, had taken a dose of poison.

The doctor hastened to the house and met by Mrs. Ritchie. She said that her husband had come home about 11 o'clock and acted in a manner that led her to believe he had taken poison. The doctor examined the man and found that he was suffering from heart trouble, and he prescribed for him.

A Masquerade Surprise Party.

A masquerade party numbering 60 couples met at the residence of Charles Rice, No. 210 North Queen street, and proceeded to Prof. Edw. Hall's dancing academy.

Mr. Hall was greatly surprised at the visit of so many of his friends, but he made them feel at home. A pleasant evening was spent in dancing. The committee who arranged the surprise were William Michael, John Anno and Albert Deichler.

Good Skating on the Ironclad Grounds.

Last night over one hundred persons enjoyed the skating in Ironclad park. The ice is quite thick and the skating excellent.

Another Pleasant Party.

A large number of his acquaintances gathered at the hotel of Isaac Heiney, at Green's Landing, on Wednesday evening and gave the party a very big lot of fun. There were 25 couples in the party and Abe Miller's orchestra furnished the music. George Hartman, of Philadelphia, and Johnny Berger were among the principal fun makers, and they made it pleasant for everybody.

Surprised on His Birthday.

Louis Gansman, of Gansman Brothers, clothing, was 37 years old yesterday. In the evening he was surprised by eight or ten families of his friends, who called upon him very suddenly. For several hours everybody had a splendid time playing games and amusing themselves in other ways, and at 12 o'clock all sat down to a splendid supper.

Heavy Local Mail.

As this is a routine day, the clerks in the postoffice have been very busy and the letter-carriers almost bent double under heavy loads they are carrying. The business done at the postoffice will be about the same this year as last. On the 13th and 14th of February of last year 3,500 pieces of local mail were carried, very little less than 3 o'clock this afternoon the number for the two days was 3,200. Large crowds were going to and from the postoffice, and by evening the business for the two years will likely be pretty evenly balanced.

Le Caron Branded "Coward."

"Coward and traitor" are the words written on the records of the war department before the name of Henry Le Caron, the British spy, who, in his testimony before the Parnell commission in London, has endeavored to connect Parnell and other Irish Parliamentary leaders with the dynamite and assassination. He is officially set down as one of the millionaires of the Fourteenth Pennsylvania regiment of cavalry, who refused to go into the battle at Gettysburg, Tenn., and as such he was confined in the military prison at Nashville.

The Eighth Ward Judge.

There was a mistake in our report of the Eighth ward nomination published in Monday's paper. Samuel Huber was nominated, and not John Myers, as stated.

Paid a Monthly Visit.

The pay car of the Pennsylvania railroad arrived in Lancaster this morning and the employees were paid off for the month.

Republican Conventions.
