He Beats His Wife and Daughter While

who lives on Plum street, and during the past year he has been treating his family very badly. Some time ago his wife, who had become very tired of his brutal conduct, had an alderman to draw up what are called "separation papers" between them. John then sgreed to stay away from her and in no way molest her. He did not keep his promise, however, but has been visiting the house quite frequently and especially when drunk. On Saturday be went to the house while under the inluence of liquor and began his abuse. He has a daughter 15 years old who works hard every day in a cotton mill. As soon as she same home he picked a quarrel with her, He struck her a savage blow in the face, knocking her down. When his wife inter-tered be struck her in the face. Covered with blood the poor woman went to the office of Alderman Deen. She made complaint against the brute and Constable Cicholiz soon had him in the station house. He has been committed to prison for a hear-

It is usually the case when a woman is induced to withdraw the suit she brings against him. This case is one of that kind. Since the above paragraph was written Mrs. Trainor went to Aiderman Deen's office, wearing a pair of black eyes that her husband had decorated her face with. She asked to withdraw the suit, as her husband had a job that he wished to work st. The alderman refused to allow the case to be settled unless all costs wer paid. Trainor is yet in jail, but his friends are out hustling for the money to pay the

Has Ail the Qualifications, From the New Era. We dropped into the "Fowler" photo-graph gallery, West King street, this week, and were surprised at the amount of work that was being done, Mr. W. W. Amos, by courteous manager, being literally "up to his ears" in work. Mr. Amos, by the way, is the nominee of the Democratic party for common councilman from the Second ward, and we regret that he is not on the Republi-oan side of the house, for he has all the qualifications necessary for the intelligent performance of a councilman's duties.

Convention of School Directors. The Lancaster (chool board has received an invitation signed by the presidents of the school boards of Harrisburg, York and Easton, to attend a convention to be held in Harrisburg on the 25th instant. The supreme court in referring to the act of May 24th, 1887, said, "The subject of public schools is not even hinted at in the title of the act. Moreover, school districts as quasi corporations belonging to the public school system have no necessary connection with nuntcipal government." For these and additional reasons the act was declared unconstitutional, and the circular says that if this if true then the act of May 234, 1874 is also unconstitutional, and much confusion may result.
