LANCASTER, FEBRUARY 22, 1890.

The Tobacco Tax. The Democratic members of Congress have been considering in caucus what they should do upon the proposition to repeal the tobacco tax.

The House ways and means committee has engaged in a controversy as to the right of the Senate to originate a new bill as a substitute for the House measure.

Mr. Crisp is not that kind of a statesman. He is a more practical man. Seeing that the Mills bill cannot pass, he proposes that the Democratic party shall pass the Cowles bill, which removes the tax from tobacco.

Mr. Randall reports this measure from the appropriations committee and finds himself again the leader of the party in his revenue policy.

The Times-Parnell Inquiry. It is well to favor the cause one espouses, but it is also well to be fair and truthful.

The fair conclusion about this Times-Parnell case probably is that the whole wretched business is the result of the crafty villainy of Richard Pigott.

A remarkable feature of the trial is the impression given of an uncontrollable congress on the part of the Times and the government to believe in the rascality of the Irish leaders.

The West Virginia Senator. The election of Senator Kenna in West Virginia is remarkable, after so stubborn a contest.

His action disposes of the gubernatorial contest as well, since Goff was only seeking the governorship as a stepping-stone to the Senate.

The will of Charles J. Hull, of Chicago, was probated a few days ago and the astonished heirs have taken an appeal and will plead undue influence on the part of Helen Guiver, Mr. Hull's housekeeper.

A notorious convict, named Ben Brill, has written a touching appeal to the board of pardons asking clemency for his friend, William Cook, who was with him convicted of robbery and sentenced to thirteen years imprisonment from 1853.

It is reported from Washington that the Taurine east steel gun has failed to stand the scrutiny of the ordnance officers and will probably be declared a failure because of the discovery of numerous flaws in the interior.

At the Paris exposition Thomas A. Edison's exhibit will be one of the most remarkable attractions. On the 8,000 square feet allotted to him in the main building he will have a huge dynamo and working models of all of his inventions.

There is work for an enterprising chemist in the roasting of fat or soap, for an incident in an Iowa school house hints the possible discovery of a very powerful gas.

The teacher seized the bucket and started for the door, but when half way across the room was overcome by the smoke and dropped into the nearest seat almost unconscious.

A Pittsburg paper says that there is $30,000 lying idle in that city. It is the money of estates or of individuals who have retired from business and there is an excess of caution about investing it which might seem to indicate a want of confidence by Pittsburg men in the future of that gas blown city if there were no signs in plenty of similar state of money all over the land.

FRANKS VICTORIA, sister of Emperor Wilhelm, who was betrothed to Prince Charles of Sweden, who will visit Berlin in March.

CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER, when a boy, belonged to a debating club in Oberlin, Ohio. An Oldtown man tells a new story about him. One evening capital punishment was debated. The motion was for hanging. Young Fuller was opposed.

It has been said that the logical deduction would come in. For example, one man kills another. How, do you continue the boy? What are you going to do with that man? The boy's logic called out rounds of applause and applauded the deacon.

Oh could there in this world be found the little spot of happy ground where village peace might go round without the village taunting? How doubly best that spot would be, were it all right in liberty, free from the bitter strife, Of gossip's endless prattling.

For 'tis a sad, degrading part, To make another's bosom smart, And when a dagger's point has pierced the heart, We ought to love and cherish.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. It is that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured thousands of people who suffered severely with rheumatism. It purifies the blood, and also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus preventing the recurrence of the disease.

THE PLAIN TRUTH. It is that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured thousands of people who suffered severely with rheumatism. It purifies the blood, and also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus preventing the recurrence of the disease.

Wanamaker's. The store is in White today, and will be for a few days to come. It is well occasionally to try effects of display, and interesting, as in this case, to note the cumulative power in a business like ours of a single color.

Run your eye down this list of things now forward in our display: White Dress Silks, White Table Linens, White Linen Towelings, White Linen Sheetings, White Linen Dress Goods, Bleached Muslins, White Cotton Dress Goods, Hamburg Embroideries, White Silk Ribbons, White Artificial Flowers, White Lace Curtains, White Kid Gloves, White Kid Slippers, Muslin Underwear, Dress Shirts, White Merino Wear.

But the list grows too long to print. Indeed, we don't care to print it all. The aim just now is to tell you that in the show windows, both on Chestnut and Market streets, in the centre aisle, in the Chestnut street entrance, on the counter ends, is an array of White Merchandise very beautiful to look at and well worth your coming to see.

There is a price-pull all through it; the same ideas of bargains that have ruled the Muslin Underwear since the opening of the year still rule; the Linens woo the housekeeper, not only with snowy whiteness, but marvelous cheapness; the Swiss work on the Hamburgs, delicate and beautiful, are in some form obtainable with a very slender purse—indeed, the Swiss say that the working people of America are the only ones in all the world that can buy their embroideries.

But the main interest of the day is not in White Stuffs. The Wool Dress Novelties, India Printed Silks, Gingham, Challis, Mohairs, Sateens, Crazy Crepes, Henrietta Cloths, Cashmeres, Worsteds, Tricots—all the long, long list of Dress Goods, are in majority of quality and interest.

It is with pleasure we ask you to think of a "Woman in White," of "A Snowy Image," of an Ice Palace of a Toboggan Slide, but it is with pride that we ask you to turn to the right and the left and look around counters and shelving, and see rolled in pieces, displayed on forms, ready for your interested inspection, the rarest and choicest stock of Dress Goods ever brought together in a single store from two continents; we seek to attract you with the one and interest you with the other.

A lot of Glycerine Soap at 10 cents a bar will be sold at 10 o'clock this morning. Schuykill mud again. Time o' year to expect it. No need to drink it if you don't care to. A good Filter will leave the muddiest water clear as crystal. Here are two sorts that we recommend: Gate City Filters pass the water through a sheet of porous stone. Not very fast, but sure. $4.75 to $20; with ice chamber, $8 and $13.50. Jewett Filters do quicker work; with cooler, $5 to $10. Kitchen Filters, $4 to $7.25. Any sort of filtering is better than to take the water full of dirt and sticks and living things.

There's no simpler way to take the measure of the doings in our Linen Store than to see how much of a housekeeping outfit $50 will buy there. Here's a little that tells the story: 8 yards Table Linen for 4 Breakfast Cloths, 4 yards Table Linen for 2 Dinner Cloths, 1 dozen Breakfast Napkins, 1 dozen Dinner Napkins, 1 dozen Tea Towelings, 8 yards Linen Toweling, 8 yards Kitchen Toweling, 3 Pot Covers, 1 dozen Turkish Bath Towels, 1 dozen Chamber Towels, 1 dozen Damask Towels, 1 dozen Damask Towels, 1 dozen Scarves, 3 Bureau Scarves, 3 Tray Covers, 1 Printed Blanket, 1 Comfortable Spread, 1 Comfortable Spread, 1 Bed Room No. 2, 1 Marble-top Spread, 1 Comfortable Spread.

Total, $50. You can go on a basis of $100 or $500 or $5,000 and the worth wonder will be just as great.
