

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.

THE BUSINESS PLACE OF PETER W. WIKEL AND S. Z. BREINER BURN.

The contents of the store... The fire was in the rear of the building and the flames...

This morning at an early hour there was a rather serious fire in the building at No. 36 North Queen street, which is owned by Mr. Mary Shreiner. It is a two-story brick with an attic and has two stories on the north side...

On Saturday evening George Dunaway visited James Dunaway's house, as supposed with the family, and after the meal with the family, returned to his room...

George then turned his attention to Mrs. Dunaway. The fourth shot fired entered her mouth, creating through the bone of the lower jaw, passing into the right shoulder and coming out beneath the shoulder blade. Three more shots were fired, only one, however, taking effect, and that only could be seen by the light of the fire...

The origin of the fire is a mystery, which no one seems able to explain. It seems to have started in the garret of the building, on the south side. Mr. Wisel's loss will rather heavy. The verdict of the jury was that the fire was caused by the negligence of the building...

A DWELLING BADLY DAMAGED.

The fire apparatus had just been housed at 6 o'clock this morning when an alarm of fire was struck from box 72, at the almshouse. Engines Nos. 3 and 4 and the Hayes truck responded to this alarm.

The fire was discovered a few minutes before 6 o'clock by Mrs. Froelich, who lives next door. She saw smoke coming from the upper part of the house and ran to Mr. Imman's to notify him.

A large quantity of bedding on the third floor was burnt. There is an insurance of $1,500 on the building in a company represented by Jeremiah Rife, and that amount will cover his loss.

On Saturday evening there was a slight fire at the residence of Richard J. McGrann. No. 110 North Prince street. About 7 o'clock it was found that the jets, which run into the blue, were on fire.

The fire was extinguished by the fire department. The fire was caused by the negligence of the building...

Michael Keener, residing at No. 28 South Mary street, was called upon by a large number of his friends yesterday and his birthday was celebrated with a good dinner and a splendid time.

The first of the appeal from the assessments made for the nine wards of the city will be heard to-morrow by the county commissioners. The first and third wards are on to-morrow's list.

TERRIBLE LUNACY TRAGEDY.

A Girl Who Slipped From a Boat and Drowned.

The shooting of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dunaway, the wounding of their son, George Dunaway, and the death of their daughter, Miss Helen Dunaway, at the family home on the corner of Centre square and North Queen street, on Saturday night...
