THE AUDIENCE SUFFERED

The sings of Falton Open House Occupied by "The Galoy Company."

Edwin Maye was to have appeared in Fulton open house for the first three nights of this week, but for some unexplained reason he cancelled. The management was then compelled to hustle for another altraction. They succeeded in securing a variety combination which is called "The Galety Company." The show was not billed until Saturday, when the boards were covered with a lot of stock boards were covered with a lot of stock paper. Yesterday the town was filled with handbills announcing the appearance of the attraction. Among the people advertised was Mim Carrie Tutien, the southette, This lady did not appear, and she is said to have quit the company a few days ago. She is a well known actrees, and if she was a were a member of this anany she She is a well known actress, and if she was ever a member of this snap she did a wise act is leaving it. To make a long story abort, the show is a very queer one. They had a fair audience last evening, but there were many more people in than the entertainment deserved. The actors were all billed as "star artists," but the most of them in all propability gained the title in barns. They do not seem familiar with the stage and thair manners were very new. They gave their manners were very new. They gave quite a number of specialty acts last even-ing and the best of these was the contortion business of Mr. Ferry, who is really an artist in his line and able to bend himself in almost any shape. Had and Ada Taggart played fairly on banjos and the latter, who is a little girl but Il years of age, did well as a masher in male attira. The show opened with Castle and Cremer in what they called a sketch. Their horribly bad acting was really painful and they were about as funny as a heares.

The Paleo brothers soled like a pair of country school boys in an acrobatic turn. Miss Grace Elkton, who was billed as "The American Song Bird," and Miss dizzy pair, whose makeups were wonderful and singing terrible. The girls had nerve however, and, although they were badly guyed they instated upon returning to the footlights time and again. The last act was called "How I Do Suffer." By the time it was reached the audience had suf-fered a great deal. Many folks went home before the end, while others remained for the sole purpose of seeing how real bad sahow can be made.

When home talent gave a variety enter tainment here last week great care was taken to let the public know that the opera house management had nothing whatever to do with the show, which was not a bit worse than that of last evening. The menager of the house this morning concluded that he would sever his connection with the "Galety" party and he informed the people that they could not appear again in the house. The party is under the management of a young man named Foster, who also claims to have been taken in by the slieged actors who were much worse than he supposed. Mr. Foster paid the hotel bills this morning and some of the company left the city at once for Philadelphia. The chilly reception they had here rather startled them and they are not likely to get far from home again.

SCHOOL BOARD CONVENTION. All the Lancaster Committee's Proposition

The Languager committee who attended the convention of school directors on Monday afternoon at Harrisburg, with a view of drafting a bill for the government of school districts in cities of the third class, have returned home. They were unable to socomplish but very little in having their views incorporated into the proboards non partisan, to retain the present number and to have an optional clause inserted in the act were unsuccessful. All these propositions were voted down. The only feature offered by the Lancaster committee that was accepted was making it optional for cities to have their own tressurer, instead of the city treasurer, being the custodian of the

The cities represented at this convention were Altoons, Bradford, Easton, Lancaste ebanon, New Castle, Wilkesbarre, York and Harrisburg. The main features of the bill agreed upon were those published in last Friday's INTELLIGENCER. The auggestions adopted were referred to a committee of five, of which Mr. Brosius, of this city, is a member, to prepare a bill to be presented to the Legislature. In the opinion of the Lancaster and other reprecontatives who attended the convention, bill containing the auggestions agreed upon

The proposed bill is subject to amendment in its passage through the Legislature and the Laucaster school board, through its committee, will make another effort to have a clause inserted, making it optional for any school board in cities of the third class to accept its provisions, or be governed by the present law. The decision by the supreme court that optional clauses are omaticutional, it is believed, is a strong point in favor of the position taken by the Lancaster school board.

Change of Musicians. Archie Jaibert has been in Prof. Burger's opera house orchestra, in which he played the trombone since the opening of the sesson. He severed his connection with the house on Saturday evening, and has gone to Providence, Rhode Island, where his father resides. In April he will accompany Buffalo Bill's show to Parla. He was formerly connected with the Wild West, and was in England with it. He is a good musician, and made many friends in Lancaster during his stay. Mr. Jalbert's piace in the crehestra has been taken by Louis Alard, late of Reeves' band of Providence In the Warfel Sale When Robbed.

The will of Emanuel Hoffman, of Manor township, admitted to probate to-day, has an interesting history. It was in the safe of Jacob Warfel, Millersville, when it was robbed some weeks ago. The will was carried away by the thieves and dropped in a plowed field. It was found a few days after the robbery and returned to Mr. Hoffman, who died a lew weeks ago. The will has on it the mud marks of the field in which it lay for several days.

Turnouts For West End Company. The only business transacted at the meet-ing of the street committee, on Monday evening, was action on the petition of the West End street rallway company, for permission to build two turnouts. committee decided to report favorably the petition, to council, and fixed the location of the turnouts on West Orange strest, between Marietta avenue and Nevin street, and at Centre Square, providing they are made of flat rails.

Alderman Deen, Officer Weaver, Lewis S. Hartman and several other gentlemen left this morning for Harrisburg to get a look at President-elect Harrison.

Mr. Schoodler's Plano Recital Mr. Schoedier's Piano Recital.

The plane recital of Mr. Frank A. Schoedier at the court house on Tuesday evening, March 12th, 1889, promises to be the greatest musical event of the season. Airs. A. L. Wagner the great soprano soloist, of Yew York city, formely of Milton, Pa., will assist. Mrs. Wagner is well known to this community as a brilliant soprano singer. It will be remembered that she appeared here at St. Joseph's hospital concert last year. The programme will be of a high and artistic order.
