A Resolute Man. Mr. W. H. Andrews, member of the assembly and chairman of the Republican state committee, has had a committee of seven appointed to clear him from the reputation of some newspaper that he had...

Mr. Andrews will be vindicated. The committee will have no trouble in reaching a conclusion that he did not pocket $50,000 in this business.

Fall of the Times. The London Times falls very hard, in the failure of the attack upon the Irish leaders.

In an interview published in the New York Herald from its European edition, the Italian premier, Crispi, says that though his country is now traversing a crisis, he hopes to keep the peace by preparing for all emergencies.

The interview may help to silence the threatened wranglings of correspondents as to the danger between Italy and France and the aggressiveness of Crispi.

The unveiling of the monument of the late Thomas A. Hendricks will take place next October and Judge Thurman will deliver the oration.

A FEATURE of the New York centennial celebration of the inauguration of Washington will be a grand ball in the Metropolitan opera house to be opened by a quadrille.

The report of the state weather service for January is prepared under the direction of the committee on meteorology of the Franklin Institute and therefore thoroughly scientific in style and details.

PERSONAL. JOHN W. HAYNES, of Fayette county, Pa., a few days ago, in the presence of a large crowd of spectators, boarded and carried 20 yards a loghead of bass, which weighed 60 pounds.

How very prone to neglect the warning of the city feeling exhibited before the approach of a severe cold or fever? A dose of medicine is such a time-wasting, and in all probability, prevents the establishment of serious disease.

McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. THE GENUINE DRUG. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. FOR SICK HEADACHE.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, No. 279 Seventh St., N. Y. testify that they have both been suffering with liver complaint for about 8 years, during which time they have spent a large amount of money and tried every remedy...

Wanamaker's. Fourteen shades of finest Broadcloth just in sight. The new tints are among them—peaches and cream, old-rose, sage, chamois, and the like.

Lighter weight, but still of true Broadcloth finish, and a favorite dress stuff as well as a habit material.

Maybe a hundred 50 cent double-width All-wool Suitings. Stripes, plaids, and solid colors. Good looking stuffs—something for any right-minded taste.

Whatever dirt there is is likely to be aloft now. You needn't drink it if you don't care to.

The sort of floppy weather that makes you curious about temperature. As easy to know as to guess—and about as cheap.

An Oxidized Silver Crumb Tray and Scraper for 65 cents. The silver is pretty thin, to be sure, but the shape is neat, the finish good, and the things would be well worth $1.25.
