

BALFOUR'S IRISH POLICY.

IT IS VIGOROUSLY DENOUNCED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The Tory Majority Maintained on the Vote on Mr. Balfour's Amendment, But Gladstone Freed from the Agency of the Irish Government.

In the House of Commons on Friday afternoon Home Secretary Matthews in reply to a question, said that Constable P. Fenton had twice visited a prisoner named Tracy, at the instance of Mr. Balfour, the solicitor of the Times.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt asked whether it was in accordance with the prison rules that Mr. Balfour should send an agent to a prisoner.

Sir Matthews replied that Tracy was confined in a cell in the prison, and that Sir William Vernon Harcourt and other friends' visits consisted of visits from a Irish constable acting under orders from the Times. [Opposition cheers.]

Mr. Matthews—an Irish constable has the right to visit any prisoner.

Mr. Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, said he feared the constable's visit to Tracy the gross impropriety that Sir William Harcourt alluded to.

Mr. Matthews asked whether the constable's visit was made at Tracy's request.

Mr. Matthews replied that he did not know.

Dr. Tanner here entered the House and was loudly cheered.

Mr. W. H. Smith denied that the government had placed the constables at the disposal of the Times.

Mr. H. P. Cobb (Radical) asked if Mr. Smith was not aware that the constable had placed the constables with Irish constables jailing about and smoking.

Mr. Smith replied that he was not aware that such was the case.

Mr. J. T. Brunner (Liberal) asked Mr. Smith whether the libelous publication entitled "Parliamentary Criticism" was not still exposed for sale on his (Mr. Smith's) bookstalls.

This question was followed by a great uproar. When the speaker, Mr. Brunner, said: "I appeal to you, Mr. Speaker; I appeal to the House; I appeal to the members, whatever their difference of opinion, whether their political difference be addressed to me." [Cheers.]

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

LAST HOURS OF CONGRESS.

THE DEFINITIVE APPROPRIATION BILL HELD BY THE HOUSE.

It is Passed by the Senate, But the Lower Branch Refuse to Concur—A Senate Committee Reports Irregularities Against Indian Agent Atkins.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The Senate passed the deficiency appropriation bill at an early hour this morning. The House non-concurred and ordered a conference.

Mr. Chandler to-day submitted to the Senate the report of the select committee on Indian affairs. The bill was discussed by the committee and the report was read.

(1) Inexplicable neglect of duty and serious administrative inactivity on the part of the late commissioner of Indian affairs, Mr. J. D. C. Atkins; and

(2) Willful and deliberate disobedience of laws and orders and gross abuse of office on the part of Atkins, as shown by the Indian agent, Mr. James T. Gregory; all resulting in the oppression and spoliation of hundreds of destitute, ignorant, and helpless Indians, who as wards of the nation had been for care and protection mistakenly confided to the two unfaithful officers.

(3) For the misconduct of Agent Gregory and for the wrongs done by him to the Indians since March, 1885, the secretary of the Interior, Hon. W. F. Vilas, is responsible.

Since 1885 the timber outfitting has been done mainly by white men, and the Indians have derived little if any benefit from the bounty. The cost of the outfitting, $1,327,552.53 reported as the cost of outfitting the Indians, while on the other hand they have been encouraged in habits of idleness and vice by the distribution among them of the proceeds of their lumber cut and carried away by other hands. The fact that the Indians should not sell stumps was ignored, for the three years subsequent to 1885 the principal basis for the censure of Commissioner Atkins and Agent Gregory.

Quoting the letter of the committee of March 12, 1885, Secretary Vilas reviewed Gregory's attitude, the committee says: Where, during all this period of maladministration were the secretary of the Interior, Mr. Lamar, and the commissioner of Indian affairs, Mr. Atkins? The answer must be, so far as the committee can ascertain, that they were both asleep.

Mr. Morley's amendment was rejected, 30 to 20.

Overriding the House of Commons Dr. Tanner was surrounded by a crowd of Radicals and Nationalists and escorted to the Hotel. The party was followed by a crowd of Radicals and Nationalists and escorted to the Hotel. The party was followed by a crowd of Radicals and Nationalists and escorted to the Hotel.

Mr. T. B. Turner (Liberal) asked Mr. Smith whether the libelous publication entitled "Parliamentary Criticism" was not still exposed for sale on his (Mr. Smith's) bookstalls.

This question was followed by a great uproar. When the speaker, Mr. Brunner, said: "I appeal to you, Mr. Speaker; I appeal to the House; I appeal to the members, whatever their difference of opinion, whether their political difference be addressed to me." [Cheers.]

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

Mr. Gladstone then resumed the debate on the address in reply to the queen's speech. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half. He had to speak for an hour and a half.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. Susan Rittenhouse Falls Down Stairs on the 14th North Mulberry Street, and a Narrow Escape from a Terrible Death on Friday Afternoon.

Mr. Susan Rittenhouse, residing at No. 14 North Mulberry street, had a narrow escape from a terrible death on Friday afternoon. She went to the garret for something and that room being dark she took with her a lighting lamp. While looking for the article she desired she mist a misstep and fell backwards down the stairs. The lamp was close to her, and it also went down with her. The lamp globe broke, the oil caught fire, and running on Mrs. Rittenhouse's dress, in a moment she was on fire. Fortunately for her, her daughter, Mrs. Stenderfer, heard the fall and ran to her mother's assistance. She quickly smothered the flames, saving her from a terrible death. Mrs. Rittenhouse was badly bruised by the fall, but will be able to about in a few days.

The annual convention of the Y. M. C. A., of Harrisburg district, was held at Millersburg, Pa., on Thursday. The Lancaster association was represented by four of its members. An interesting program of the members. An interesting program of the members. An interesting program of the members.

Dr. George S. Chambers, of the Pine street Presbyterian church, Harrisburg, made an admirable address on "The Helpfulness of an Association to a Community," which was well received.

Mr. Chas. E. Hurlburt, who is now assistant state secretary of Kansas, has been elected state secretary of Pennsylvania to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Rev. S. A. Taggart, who has been made editor of the Watchman, the association organ, published at Chicago.

Tobacco Receiving Day. This was another big day among the tobacco men. From early morning until late in the afternoon the streets were thronged at the warehouses in this city. Farmers are taking advantage of the good weather to deliver their tobacco so that they can receive their money and adjust their April settlements.

Death of Mrs. John Mylin. Mrs. Martha Mylin, wife of John Mylin, of Willow street, died this morning at 10 o'clock, after an illness of several months. She was about 70 years of age and was a life-long resident of this vicinity. She leaves a husband, three children and a large number of friends to mourn her loss. The children living are Miss Marjorie, Mrs. Martin Letover and Aldus Mylin.

The Obit. There was a meeting of the Glisophic society last evening, at the residence of the Misses Sigman. Dr. Stahr was chairman for the evening. Dr. Stahr was chairman for the evening. Dr. Stahr was chairman for the evening.

Heavy Horses Shipped. This morning Daniel Letover shipped a very heavy lot of horses from Blinners' horse yards to St. Morbach in New York. There were eighteen of the animals and nine of them that were put upon the scales weighed considerably over 1,700 pounds each.

Sheriff Burkholder Robbed. A new carry cork and brush was stolen from the stable of Sheriff Burkholder on Friday afternoon. The sheriff would give double the value of the articles stolen to get hold of the fellow who stole them.

VISITED THE WHITE HOUSE.

MR. HARRISON SECOND CALL UPON THE RETIRING PRESIDENT.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—General Harrison was besieged with callers and cabinet-making advisers at an early hour this morning. Many people called merely to pay their respects, but occasionally more important business was transacted.

Senator Woodbridge called early to present against the selection of Senator Palmer as secretary of agriculture; but it is generally believed that his visit was futile.

Mr. Cleveland to Meet the New Executive at the Arlington Hotel—General Tracy of Brooklyn, Said to Be Booked for the Navy Portfolio.

THE EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE.

Second Day's Session of the Association at Potomac.

The second day's session of the annual conference of the Evangelical association was opened on Friday morning with religious exercises led by Bishop Bowman. After reading and adoption of Thursday's minutes a number of ministers were granted leave of absence. The various sections which the speakers were authorized to lift were reported "all full," with few exceptions.

The afternoon session was held in a secret session. At 10:30 a. m., the conference again opened its doors. Rev. Jas. Navitz was located from the itinerary.

Mr. N. H. Hersey and one child was placed upon the list of conference claimants.

The following applied for license to preach: Rev. J. E. Egner, Jerome K. Smith, John Heiler, W. H. Hester, A. H. Switzer, James G. Buchter, Amos H. Martin, C. W. Hetter, Edwin Wolfe, George W. Hagen.

Following were licensed to preach: Benjamin F. Egner, Jerome K. Smith, John S. Heiler, Amos H. Martin, Edwin Wolfe, George W. Hagen, C. W. Hetter, W. H. Hester, A. H. Switzer, James G. Buchter.

George McLaughlin, secretary of the Southern Youth society, of Philadelphia, was presented to the conference and spoke upon the work of this society among seamen.

The afternoon session opened with scripture reading by Bishop Bowman. The conference on church affairs reported petitions from various churches for permission to contract financial obligations or collect on mortgages. A resolution to collect on mortgages was granted.

Trustees of three churches of the Evangelical association of Lancaster reported inability to collect on the mortgage of the church at Tipton, with members to the amount of $300 on the church building, which was recommended that the church build a new one.

Trustees of the church at Trexlerville, which the congregation is reported unable to collect on the mortgage of the church building, which was recommended that the church build a new one.

The conference then adjourned and the Ministerial Aid society went into session.

ACT OF GARRISON AND QUAY. The Pennsylvania Senators Vote to Consider the Nomination of President Cleveland.

Despite the Party Whip. "Political assassination" is the striking phrase which Senator Quay employed in the course of the Senate, on Thursday, to describe the conduct of the Republican majority in the Senate in another 300 or 400 nominations, just because they had not voted for Cleveland.

The only portfolio in the cabinet at present it is to either Rank or Furness, with all the chances in favor of Rank.

A MURDEROUS CASE. A Crime Without Motive by a Self-Accused Girl.

Miss Rosa E. Weaver, the sixteen-year-old girl of Carroll county, Maryland, who was said to have confessed to barn burning, has made a full confession and an interview with her is published in the Baltimore Herald.

On Friday afternoon a fire in the country, south of this city, could be plainly seen here. The smoke was very thick and black and the flames shot high in the air.

Change of Hotel Proprietors. From the Marietta Times.

Frank Kilday and company appeared for the second time in court on the charge of "New York." The house was of good size, but not so large as on the opening night. This afternoon a mattress was given.

Before the Mayor. The mayor disposed of four cases this morning. Noon one was John Ferry. He was found on the court house steps so drunk that he could not walk. He will be detained at the station house until he is sober. Three laborers, in search of work, were discharged.

There was a slight fire in the blacksmith shop of John H. Hollings on West Walnut street, last night. A man named Auzer was passing by when he discovered smoke issuing from the roof. He notified John Fitzgerald, an apprentice of Mr. Hollings, who lives near by and had a key to the shop. The fire was extinguished when the shop was discovered and extinguished. It was in a wooden box which stands alongside of the forge and in which tools are kept. The box was almost destroyed, a spark is supposed to have dropped into it from the forge.

The Election Cases Dismissed. The cases against John P. M. Raub, L. T. Hessel, George W. Hessel, Jr., Isaac Montgomery and E. M. Stauffer, of Quarryville, charged with interfering with the election last November, in which there were hearings yesterday, were dismissed this morning. Alderman Deen was unable to find any evidence on which to hold the accused and the general impression is that the suits were brought by E. Galen Bar, the Republican judge, now under indictment for violating the election laws, to force a settlement of his case.

A Surprise Party. Last evening a delightful surprise party was tendered Mr. Chas. Bickenderper at his residence, 125 North Water street. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games and in various other ways.

Going to Mexico. New York, March 2.—According to present arrangements Robert Garrett will leave Ringwood, N. J., on Wednesday next for Mexico, accompanied by his family and physician. His health is much improved.

SOLD BY THE SHERIFF. The Properties Disposed of at the Court House This Afternoon.

Sheriff Burkholder sold the following properties at the court house this afternoon: A lot of ground in Eden township, containing 1/2 acre, on which are erected a two-story frame dwelling house and other improvements, as the property of Henry E. Eckman, to Jacob M. Eckman for $1,000.

A tract of 100 acres of ground, in Fulton and Little Britain townships, with improvements, consisting of a two-story brick dwelling house, bank barn, tobacco shed and other outbuildings as the property of Philip A. Berger, defendant, and John M. Burger, terre tenant, to A. Herr Smith for $200, subject to $5,000 liens.

Four acres of land in Manor township with improvements, consisting of a frame dwelling house, stable and tobacco shed, as the property of Michael Yake, to Christian H. Moore for $200.

A lot of ground fronting 47 feet on Lafayette street, in Lancaster city, and extending in depth 112 feet, on which is erected a two-story frame house, No. 764, as the property of Sebastian Nestle, to Frank Pfeiffer & Co., trustees, for $750.

A lot of ground in North Mulberry street, and extending in depth 245 feet to Arch alley, with one-story brick house as the property of William Spirling, to Gottlieb Ketting for $300.

PIGOTT ENDS HIS CAREER.

MR. COBBETT SUICIDE IN A HOTEL IN MADRID ON FRIDAY.

The Fatal Bullet Fired While in the Company of Officers—The Body Fully Identified. A Telegram Sent by the Forger Leads to His Discovery.

LONDON, March 2.—The report of Pigott's suicide at Madrid causes profound astonishment here. Witnesses have been seen to forward a telegram to Pigott on Friday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday morning, only a few days before he was reported to have held Pigott's effects pending an order from London.

The arrest of the suicide was made in consequence of a telegram from the British foreign office. "Honorable consistory arrived from Paris on Thursday