An intelligent person when burt will at once procure a bottle of Salvation Oil. It is the beat thing to cure swellings, burns, or wounds. All druggists sell it at twenty five cents a bottle Dr. Bull's Cough eyrup should be kept in every family. A slight cough, it unchecked, is effent the forerunber of consumption. One dose of this wonderful medicine has rescued many from the grave.

"The Best Laid Flans of Mice and Men Gang aft aglee." Not so Hestetter's Stomach Bitters. It goes right to the spot it is designed to beneficially affect, and there is no tardiness in its action. But while it relieves constipation in common with dyspepsia and liver complaint associate cylis the griptog and abdominal disturbance prodited by drastic purgatives never precede its operation. Its theroughness is unmarred by violence, the chief characteristic of most faxatives, and one that is highly prejudicial to both bowels and stomach. It is only by invigorating the intestinal canal, and thus fitting it to perform its office as a natural since for the effect matter of the system, that its regularity can be perpetuated. To weaken by drengthing is to insure its relapse into disorder. This the Bitters never does. Chilia and fever, nervousness, kidney complaints yield to the Bitters, and appetite and sleep are improved by it,
