Narrow Recape of Two Men. This atternoon two countrymen made a nerrow escape from being killed at the Penneylvania railroad station. They were standing on the south track, when a freight train was passing west. The 12:58 train came in from the west, and the two men were standing on the same track, unconscious of its spproach. Frank H. Rudy, who was near, saw their danger, and quickly running to them caught each by the collar, pulling them back and off the track. The train was then within a short distance of them, and they would likely bave been killed. Knights of Labor Bauquet. Hamilton Assembly No. 6,484, Knights of Labor, held a banquet in Odd Fellows hall last evening. Between 800 and 400 members were present and they had a fine time. L. F Cast, of Harriaburg, master workman, of District 165, and J. H. Butler, of the same place, were present and made speeches The following of Hamilton Assembly also spoke : T. Parke Guthrie, John F. A Pleasant Reception The building of the Young Men's Christian association presented a pleasing sight last night. It was the occasion of the re-ception tendered the ladies of the suziliary by the young men. The reading room was converted into a banquetting buil, and was very tastefully arranged with tables hand-somely decorated. Many of the ladies of the suziliary were present and the young men were on hand to receive them. After an informal programmie the ladies were escoried to the banquet by H. R. Ful-tor, the president of the sexision, Hon, D. W Patterson, Rev. Thes Ferniy, D.S. Bursk and S. D. Baus nan. Here s committee of young men were waiting to serve them. Many words of commendation and praise were uttered, and all ronounced it a very delightful occasion. In the course of the evening, it was announced that H. W.
