Disarming an Unseen Foe.

"This was sometime a paradoz," as Hamlet says. Since, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to pit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters against that unseen foe, maiaria, it is no longer a paradox, but an easy possibility. Wherever maiaria evolves its misty venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation impregnates the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasma, is the auxiliary potent to disarm the foe and assure efficient protection. Fever and ague cake no matter how tenacionaly they have fastened their clutch on the system are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it altogether. But it is its preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons dwelling in maiariacursed localities, for it is a certain buckler of defence against which the enemy is powerless. Cures, likewise, dyspepsis, rheumatism, kidney and billous ailments. Disarming an Unseen Foe.

Ropture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer Sil Arch street, Philadelphia. Ease at once no operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail, advice e, send for etreular.
