Sweet the sorg of thrush at dawning,
When the grass lies wet with spangled daw,
Sweet the sound of the brook's low whisper
'Mid reeds and rushes wandering through;
Clear and pure is the west wind's murmar
That crooms in the branches all day long;
But the songs unsung are the swestest music
And the dreams that die are the sout of song.

The fairest tope is the one which faded,
The brightest leaf is the leaf that fell;
The sing that leaped from the lips of strens
Dies away in an old reachell.
Far to the heights of viewless fancy
The soul's swift flight like a swallow goes, For the note unheard is the bird's great carel and the bud unblown is the reddest ross. Drepest thoughts are the ones unspoken

Drepost thoughts are the ones unspoken,
That only the heart sense, listening hear
Bost great Joys bring a touch of allence.
Greatest grief is in unshed tears.
What we hear is the fleetest eche,
A song dies out, but a Gream lives on;
The rese-red lists of the rarest morning
Are lingering yet in a distant dawn.

Samewhere, dim in the days to follow. And far away in the life to be, assing sweet, is a song of gladness, The spirit chant of the soul set free. Chords untouched are the ones we wait for. That never rise from the harp unstrung; We turn our steps to the years beyond us, And listen still for the songs unsung. — Ernest McGaffey in the Nebraska State Jour-

Disarming an Unseen Foe.

"This was sometime a paradox," as Hamlet says. Since, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to pit and other lands have been enabled to pit Hostetier's Stomach Bitters against that unseen foe, malaria, it is no longer a paradox, but an easy possibility. Wherever malaria evolves its misty venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation impregnates the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasms, is the auxiliary potent to disarm the fee and assure efficient protection. Fever and ague, billious remittent, dumb ague and ague cafe, no matter how tenacionaly they have fasteined their clutch on the system, are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it sitogether. But it is its preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons dwelling in malaria-cursed localities, for it is a certain buckler of defence against which the enemy is powerless. Curses, likewise, dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney and billous asiments.

Rupture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer. 831 Arch street, Philadelphia. Ease at once, no operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail, advice free, send for eireniar.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, forty years ago. I was formany years a sufferer from quinsy. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me. I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured the. My wife and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them, and it taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold, or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and haif fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon into the head, by snifting as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice it twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarra. For deafness and earache, it has doned wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell yea that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am how suffering with a pain like rheunatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil." Dr. E. F. Crane, Corry, Pa.

We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be lives in an aggravated form, became larger in blonches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rob him with sods in water, strong lintures s, etc. Floatly, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all slike falling, and the child standily getting worse and worse, until about the 10th of last July, when we began to give him turicula Ensouvast internally, and the Curicura, and Curicura foar externally; and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Ensouvers about every second day for about ten days long it and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Curicura, and only one cake of Curicura, and sworn to before me this sith day of January, 1881.

Choking Catarrh.

Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with the horrible sensations of an assa-sin clutching your throat and pressing the lifebreath from your tightened cheet? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this caterhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, clouding the memory and filling the head with paise and strange noises! How difficult it is to rid the nasal passages, throat and lungs of this poisonous mucus all can testify who are afflicted with caturh. How difficult to protect the system sg airst its further progress towards the lungs, liver and kidneys, all physicians will admit. It is a terrible disease, and cries out for relief and cure.

The romarkable curative powers, when all other remedies utterly fail, of Sasponn's Eadmit. A curs, are attested by thousands who gratefully recommend it to fellow-auferers. No statement is made regarding it that cannot be sustantiated by the most respectable and reliable references.
