Edward Jones is a prisoner in the county jail awaiting trial on the charge of highway robbery, alleged to have been committed over two years ago by breaking into a farm house along the river about three miles above the city. After this robbery Jones escaped, and a short time afterward turned up in the Lancaster prison, where he served two years for robbing the residence of Colonel Duffy at Marietta. At the expiration of his sentence Sergeant McCann went to Lancaster and brought Jones to this city. Yesterday afternoon he was brought into court for trial on the highway rebery charge, but a delay in the proceed-ings was the cause for not reaching that case. Just before the court adjourned the sheriff transferred Jones from the court room to the prison. On the way up Court avenue Jones evinced a refractory feeling and several times became loud-mouthed.

The sheriff was quick to perceive that Jones idea was to cause a scoille and attempt to escape, and promptly subdued him. He led him into the hall of the prison and the door was opened to rective them. Jones stepped up into the slightly elevated The pre-Si and prison, and before the sherid turned away from the door he turned and made a vicious kick at him, striking him on the leg below the hip. The injury was painful and caused a large brulsed mark, it, Jones will be told in court why his sentence is made one year longer.

BOBBERY FROM THE PERSON Miles Palater Required to Give Ball to An swer This Charge,

Brice Painter and Henry Hildsbrand were heard by Alderman Halbach last evening on the charge of robbery from the person. Painter was held for court and Hildebrand discharged. Casper Lagenau was the prosecutor, and the testimony was that Painter and Hildebrand went along with Lagenau when he went to draw his money at the cotton mill, where he was employed. He handed $12 to his mother and retained between 16 and $7. Whisky was bought with a part of this and the three were soon under its influence. Lagenau was taken home by Painter and the next morning he discovered that his money was gone. Later in the day Painter sent to Lagenau his empty pocketbook. Several parties saw Painter spending money taken from this pecketbook, and in addition he oknowledged that he had robbed Lagenau. Painter gave ball for trial, his brother becoming his surety.

Two Men Sued. Constable Dorwart went out to Landisville, Wednesday forenoon, to arrest John Rule, an old peddler, who was prosecuted sefore Alderman Hershey by John H. Capp for malicious mischief. Dorwart cored the asstatance of a countryman but the two were unable to take the accused who kicked the officer in the stomach, Dorwart then returned to town empty handed, and he and Constable Kline went out for the prisoner to the afternoon. When sched the bouse they found he was not at home, and another effort will be made to capture him in the future. Copp has also brought a suit egainst C. Weldman, charging him with matietons mischler, as be nilegen that he drove into his wagon. Weldman gave ball for a hear-Escentions Against John B. Givier. Twelve executions were benefit against John S. Givier, drygoods merchant, Non. 6 & 8 North Queen street, late it it afternood. The aggregate amount of the execution is $16,705. The largest creditors are Strawbridge & Clothier, of Philedelphia, whose original claim was $12,000, but which has 5 been reduced to $8,000. The other Palladelphia conditions are Wood, Brown & Cd.; Hood, Boabright & Oo.; Young, Smith & Field, and Boyd, White & Co. The above executions cover only the amount for which judgments are confessed.

There are other, creditors who are not

Sheriff Burkholder levied upon the stock of Mr. Givier. A representative of Straw-bridge & Clothier is of opinion that the exects will pay the amount of the above executions if the stock is judiciously men

Rev. C. Elvin Houpt was a busy man last evening, when he married two couples.
The first was Joseph R. Smith, of this city, and Miss Mary Hesa, who were united at the personage. The groom is a well known and popular young man. He comes originally from Ephrata, but for fitteen years past has resided in Lancaster. He has been bartender and clerk at different hotels and is now a salesman at A. B. Shaeffer's liquor store. He has a large dirale of friends, who wish him the greatest happiness. Joe had no foolishness about his wodding, which was very quiet. He and his wife have taken up their residence at the Lancaster County house and Joe is at his post of duty to-day.

Lest evening James Lane and Miss Margaret Brock, daughter of John Brock, were married at the home of the bride No. 132 East Lemon street, by Rev. Houpt. The groom is superintendent of the gas works at Jackson, Michigan, and a son of the superintendent of the Lancaster gas works. The couple will go to Jackson to reside.

He Is Not Solld For Reincohl. The Ephrata News editor does not think that the Examiner and New Erz bave any right to say that Major Reincehl should be the next district attorney. He says:

"Those politicians who assume to speak for the voters in general are occasionally mistaken in their conclusion. Among the thousands of voters in our county there are a great many who have not expressed themselves at all yet, and who in lact do not know to day how they will vote with reference to the district attorneyship. They have not yet had time to think about the matter, much less express themselves upon it. There are also other candidates for the office, who are well knows, and who may have influential friends to work for them, and push their candidacy aggressively before the voters. Certainly these have not expressed themselves in favor of their opponents. How can any political leaders guarantee the nomination of an individual weeks before the primary election is beld be the next district attorney. He says : weeks before the primary election is held without running into cliques and combine

Using "Burky's" Trademark Mej. Rein whi has a large card in the cour house announcing his candidacy for distric attorney. It gives the major's military record, and bears his army corps badge These same cards were used in the cam paign of 1886 when Reincoll was after thi name office. They bear the date of that year across which a red rose has been posted Persons who have seen the cards think th major is trying to steal some of Clem Ken nedy's thunder. The red rose is the trade mark of Sheriff Burkholder, and he is fo Kennedy first, last; and all the time. E will probably have a lawauit against Reit cehl for infringement

Candidate Kennedy thinks it a little rough that both the Examiner and Er should come out in favor of Reinobl, an he is busy stirring around in search of a organ.

The Icemen Agree on Prices. About one dozen teemen, representing the different firms of this city, gathered in one place on the pavement on North Queen who passed supposed they were holding an indignation meeting to pass resolution denouncing the goose bone. They were there for altogether a differen purpose, however, as they were holding a purely business meeting. After considerable discussion they agreed on a scale of prices that they will charge for ice during the coming summer. The prices will be published in the daily papers shortly and they will be adhered to strictly.

The Cars Idle Because the Horses are Bick. The cars of the East End passenger railway have not been funning to-day, and people residing in that part of the city have been obliged to plod down town and back to their homes through the slush and rain. The reason given for this is that the horses owned by the line are sick. The company loes not think it sufficiently important to hire here a to run their cars in order that people who patronize them in good weather may be accommodated in bad. There has been much complaint from the Esst End people to-day.

From the Oxford Press.

The New York party who has had the Black Barren Spring property in view for some time, visited the place a few weeks ago, and rumor has it that Mr. Black has sold it to them for $30,000.

A party of surveyors recently spent some days at Conowingo leveling about the bridge and hills. It is supposed they were a part of the civil engineer corps of the Reading railroad. Rumor says that the Conowingo Bridge has been sold to the Reading railroad company and that the extension of the Susquehanna & Deer Creek railroad from Conowingo to Quarry-villo will be built by next August. ville will be built by next August.

Belore the Mayor.

Michael Sullivan was found drunk in the yard of an East King street residence last evening, was arrested and spent the night in the station house. The mayor sent him to all for ten days this morning. Sullivan is a cripple and when not in jall le a presisten eggar. When refused money he becomes very abusive and when he gets money he spends it for rum.

Frank Saydam, a rested for drunkenness, will be detained at the station house until he gets sober.

Moves to Lebanon

From the Lebanon Times. Rev. F. Smith, the new minister of the street Evangelical mission, will move to Lebsuch to day with his family from Lancaster. They will occupy the parsonage on Scull street.

Death of an Aged Lidy

From the Littiz Record. An aged lady, by the name of Rudy, of Chio, was visiting relatives and friends at Schoeneck and also in this vicinity. While bere she was staying with Henry Horning, where she took sick, and stier a scort li-ness, died on Tuesday shortly after dinner. She was 75 years old. Her funeral was held to day. Sunday School Baraer.

An apron bezar, for the benefit of a new branch Lutheran Sunday school for the northwestern section of the city, is to be held this and to-morrow evenings at Mettfett's building, on North Queen stree's

Found Dead In Bed.

Adam Diehi, a German, who had been working at Lincoln for a number of years, was found dead in bed on Sunday morning. He was buried on Monday afternoon at the Middle Creek burial grounds. Bought 80,000 Pounds of Leaf.

From the York Gazette. Mr. R. D. Zech, of Lancaster, was in the city yesterday receiving the tobacco which he purchased last week. He secured so, 000 pounds.

Barger & Srinkman.

The above-named gentlemen have opened a wholesale and retail musical establishment, known as the New Central Mosic Store, So. 112 Sorth Queen street. They have the Enest assortment of planes, organs, musical their ments, sheet music, site, ever brought to this city, and are offering them as prices lower than any other foone. Their storm and show window are filled with the choicest instruments presenting a fine appearance. The gentlemen composing the firm are energetic and reliable. Mr. Occar F. Brinkman was for two years composing the firm are energetic and reliable. Mr. Occar F. Brinkman was for two years in the employ of Kirk Johnson & Co., and Mr. John A. Burger is the proprietor of the Lancaster planting mills. It is slways a pleasure to meet people who have lots of gone-acadityoness about them, and w., io not know of any two men in this city, who, as a firm, possess more of this quality than the enterprising and popular music firm of Mrssrs. Burger & Brinkman of Morth Queen street. About March 1, these young men started a music store and from the day they started to the present time they have known no idle music store and from the day they started to the present time they have known no idle moments. It is really surprising how, in these days of competition, a firm could so quickly and so substantially establish themselves as have Messrs. Burger & Brinkman, and it would pay any one, whether destring to purchase goods of this kind or mot, to pay this, the handsomest establishment in the city, a visit while it is arrayed in all litte unty, we wish it am success. Wo wish ti om success.
