...ERS STILL AT WORK.

...ATTEMPT TO BURN A BUSINESS ...LDING ON EAST KING STREET.

...Discovery Made By Private Watchman ... at Aldus C. Herr's Store at an Early Hour This Morning Prevents a Heavy Loss of Property.

At 1:55 o'clock this morning Private ...hman Cook notified Sergeant Hartley ...there was something wrong at Aldus ...Herr's store on East King street. ...hman Cook, Sergeant Hartley and ...ner Cramer went to the store, and upon ...mination a rear shutter in the base- ...nt was found open, and the gas was ...ning brightly in that room. The ...ers sent a message to Mr. Herr, but ...a lookout that no one could escape ...the building.

Upon Mr. Herr's arrival a thorough search ...inds of the building, but none of the ...ds seemed to be disturbed. Robbery did ...appear to be the motive of the villain ...he entered the building. It was to fire ...d wreck it. One gas jet was turned ...full force and lighted and the flames ...n it reached the joist. The timely ...discovery of Private Watchman Cook ...prevented a serious loss. Mr. Cook passed ...hrough the alleyway adjoining Mr. Herr's ...store less than half an hour before his discovery, and from that fact it is evident that the building was entered between 12:30 and 1 o'clock. Mr. Herr has no idea who the guilty party could be and if ever he does find out he will prosecute him to the full extent of the law.

Although it was at first supposed that nothing had been stolen from the building, a different state of affairs was learned about noon to-day. In the plumber shop of William A. Kiefler, which is in the building, was the tool box of Mr. Kiefler's son Harry, a plumber. The box was locked with a brass padlock which the thieves broke. From it they took a revolver and a pocketbook containing $3.18 in money. The thieves also broke open a number of boxes containing brass work, which was in the plumber shop.

He Wants to Be Right

From the Baltimore Sun.

Mr. Frank Mortimore, of Bloomfield, Pa., president of the National Half-mile Track and Agricultural Fair association, in a letter to the Sun makes an official denial of criticisms which have been made in some sporting papers regarding the rules and subjects which govern the new association. The difficulty appears to be that the papers got hold of the crude by-laws and rules which were submitted to the delegates to the association at its meeting at Lancaster, Pa., February 15, a lengthy account of which was published in the Sun the following morning. At the meeting in question these rules were considered seriatim, and each section was discussed, altered and amended, after which it was adopted. As adopted the rules differ materially from those originally submitted. Mr. Mortimer further says there has been no meeting of governors since the meeting at Lancaster, February 15. The date set for the meeting of the board of governors is May 14. The criticism appears to be directed against the rules as submitted, but not as they were adopted.

Levan & Sons' Best!

You'll never have heavy, dyspepsia-breeding bread if you use Levan's Goods.
And those believing in Free Trade are free to trade in this article all they are a mind to. It is "THE PEOPLE'S" FLOUR, regardless of race, color, politics or religion.
