CHANGES IN THE LOWER END.

NEW LOCATIONS OF BARRACKS AND OTHERS. LITTLE BRITAIN, March 25.—A. C. Riley, who carried on a wholesale grocery business for some time, had public sale of second-hand wares on Saturday and realized his property. He moved to Chester County, where he purchased a small property and will carry on the same business.

THE LARGE MILL OF ADAM G. GROFF, on the Willow Street turnpike at Mill creek, three miles south of the city, was entirely destroyed by fire shortly before midnight on Monday. The flames from the mill consumed the bridge over Mill creek, and all the woodwork of this structure was also consumed.

THE FIRE WAS FIRST SEEN ON THE THIRD FLOOR, showing up the cupola in the center of the building towards the street. Those who were early on the ground saved some flour stored on lower floor, but a very small portion of stock was gotten out of the mill on account of the rapid spread of the flames.

BEFORE THE FIRE RAGED HALF AN HOUR it looked as if the dwelling house of Mr. Groff would be destroyed, and a large portion of the furniture was recovered to a place of safety. The flames did communicate from the mill to an outbuilding, but the fire was prevented from going further by pulling it from its foundation with hooks.

THE STRUCTURE WAS A FOUR STORY FRAME BUILDING ON STONE FOUNDATIONS. Three years ago Mr. Groff remodelled his mill and put in the present mill machinery at a cost of $10,000. It was practically raised by last night's fire.

THE LIGHT FROM THE BURNING BUILDING WAS plainly seen in this city, and caused an alarm to be struck from box 61, which brought out a great many people, who ran to the southern end of the city. When it was seen that the fire was in the country, nearly all returned home, but a few went to scenes of the fire.

HIS NAME IS GOBENOUR.

THE MAN WHO HOBBERED STEWART'S STORE BROUGHT FROM BALTIMORE.—The stolen goods recovered. Chief Smith arrived in this city at 4:45 o'clock on Monday afternoon having in company the man who robbed the store of H. C. Kitchin. He also brought back the stolen goods. The name of the thief is R. L. Gobencour.

THE ROBBERY WAS COMMITTED LAST ON Tuesday night, March 21, and on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock Gobencour was under arrest in Baltimore. He was taken to the city jail, where the identification of Gobencour as the Kitchin robber was a turtle shell knife of handsome pattern. Mr. Kitchin, who was so notified the author of the robbery, is now in the city jail, and is awaiting trial for the same offense.

GOBENOUR WAS GIVEN A HEARING AT BALTIMORE Monday morning and remanded to the custody of Chief Smith. He was handcuffed, taken to the station, put on the cars and arrived here safely at 4:45. He was disposed for a time to recommitting with Chief Smith because that officer did not have time to perform his requisition, but he finally agreed to go along with the officers.

GOBENOUR HAS A RECORD. He was at one time in the House of Refuge, served a term in the York jail, escaped from that institution and was afterwards arrested in this county for robbing Pennsylvania railroad cars. For that offense he served two years and nine months.

A BIG BLEND IN CHESTNUT. A HISTORY BUILDING AND ITS CONTENTS VALUED AT $1,500,000, DESTROYED BY THIS MORNING. CHESTNUT, Ill., March 25.—The United Storage company's huge six story and basement structure on the north bank of the river at Rush street, was discovered to be on fire about four o'clock this morning. The flames originated in the engine room, and spread rapidly by the time the first engine had arrived, had obtained such a hold that a second alarm was turned in. In a very brief space the fire had burned through the building and took to the water's edge, the blaze finding ready fuel in the piles of furniture and other inflammable material which were stored in the engine room. The great building was soon gutted. There was stored in it a million and a half dollars worth of tea and coffee. The principal owners were Eppin, Smith & Wyman, of New York; W. P. Room & Co., of New York; George W. Love & Co., of New York; Hyde & Southworth, Boston; H. S. Owsen & Co., Boston; H. H. Howard, Chicago; C. D. Lathrop & Co., Chicago; Robert Jeffrey & Co., Chicago; William F. Piel & Co., Indianapolis; the Union and First National banks, Chicago. The building, worth $600,000, was owned by the Arthur Bronson estate, of New York, and was insured for $400,000.

AT ABOUT 4:30 THE FLAMES FLEW ACROSS the street and set fire to buildings a block away. These small side blazes were stopped with difficulty, as a stiff breeze had sprung up. Several firemen were overcome by the fierce heat on Rush street, and were carried away back on the bridge, while their places were filled by others. Towering flames were flying down and later the building was seen gutted. There was stored in it a million and a half dollars worth of tea and coffee. The principal owners were Eppin, Smith & Wyman, of New York; W. P. Room & Co., of New York; George W. Love & Co., of New York; Hyde & Southworth, Boston; H. S. Owsen & Co., Boston; H. H.
