STANLEY'S LONG MARCH.

THE EXCLOSER DISCHING IN ADVEN TURN IN THE MEANT OF AFRICA.

the Story of 215 Bot tok For St a Baffers from Boknom, Panthe Sative Rebels Banged.

Heury M. Bianlay's letter to a friend describes the journey between Yambuugh and Albert Ryanse. It goes much into detail and is very interesting: The expedition, which consisted of 350 officers and mer, started from Yambuuga a June 23, 1867. On the first day the expedition marched tweive miles along the triver bask to Yankarde. On the sporosch of the column the batives set fire to their rilleges and ander over of the smoke stacked the pioneers. A skirmish fallowed, a ting fitteen minutes. During the next it days the expedition marched island in a casterly direction through a density populated district. The natives and swery its known to then to molest and impede wereal conflicts took place, Stanley did not heart and suffered greatly, but he re-covered. On August 31 the expedition met a party of Manyemas, and their misfortunes began on this date. Stanley writes that he had taken the Congo route to evoid Arabs, who would tempt his men. Within three days of this unfortunate meeting twenty six men deserted. What Stanley describes as an awfal month begins on September 18, Leaving the station of the Arab Chief Ugarrava, when the expedition numbered 283 mes, having lost sury-six by describe and death, and having left fity six sick with Ugarrava, the march led to the Arab settlement Kalings Longs. The men lived on wid fruits, fungt and nuta Before reaching Falings Longs, Stanley lost fifty five men through starvation and descriton. A slave owner si Kalings Longa, named Abedealice, did his utmost to ruin the expedition short of open hostilities. He insisted upon purobasing rifles, ammunition and clothing, so that the men were at solutely naked, and were so weak that they were unable to carry the boat. Stanley was therefore obliged to leave the boat, together with seventy loads of goods, at Kelings Longs, under the care of Surgeon Parke and Capiain Nelson, the latter of whom was unable to march. After a tweive days jurney the party on Novem-ber 12 resched Ibwirf. The Arab devestatwelve days journey the party on Novem ar 12 reached Ibwirl. The Arab devastaa, which has reached within a few miles Ibwiri, was so thorough that not a ive hut was left standing between arrays and Ibwiri. He reports Vineland as a repidly growing city, full of business enter-prise, and mys no men need be idle, for there is work for everybody. The town has no licensed hotels, but rum is sold at barber shops, cyster salcons, and even at bardware stores. The sentiment of the people of that city is obsorging on the liquor question, and when an opportunity is apha given to vote license or no licenses the hinkn license will carry the day, because the people are dimentified with the under-hand way in which liquor is procured.
