MANY YEARS AGO THERE WOULD appear in the newspapers, with great regularity, at this season of the year, an advertisement like this:

" As Spring approaches ants and reaches
From their holes come out,
While mice and rats, in spite of cate,
Gally skip about." Then it went on to say—" Huy Smith's Rat Exterminator," etc : but a better application of these lines would be something like this:

"As Spring approaches carts and coaches, Running by the hour, Can't had enough of the precious stuff That's known as Loyan's Flour!"

But this is just as true of any other sesson, so far as the riour is concerned. Send in your orders.

As we have just closed our second year in business, and are entering our third, we wish to return our thanks to our numeious friends and patrons for the very liberal patronsgs bestowed upon us, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. Daily are we having customers that say, "We have heard so much of your store. We thought we would have to come and see for ourselves." Why do they hear of us? Low Prices is the cause, as we told you several weeks ago in reference to the prices of our Carpets, that we have marked our profits small. Better to have them so out at small profits than keep them standing here with large profits, had the desired effect, and we have been cutting them faster than we expected. TOILE DU RORD AND DRESS GINGHAMS—We c'aim we have the choicest siyles in Toile du Rord and Dress Ginghams in the city of Lancaster. We selected our stries in December, when the choice of the manufactures line was shown, and we nave heard it said by agents more than once, who have been to our store and seen them, that they have nowhere seen as choice a line of styles and blending of shades as we are showing. We have cut a great many styles already, although a great many wait until the weather gots warmer. To those we would say, when you are ready, come and see the best line in the city at 5%, 8—10 and 12% cits it does not cost any more to have a choice style of us than the same quality with a less desirable style classwhere. It does not cost any more to have a choice style of us than the same quality with a less desirable style elsewhere.

We can't make you buy, but we can tempt you with low prices, and if you want the best value for the inney we are ready to give it to you. Low prices have made our business a success thus far, and low prices is our watchword for the future. Respectfully,
