Hogh R. Fulton, esq., of Lancaster, is a condidate for the effice of district atterney of Lancaster county. Mr. Futton is a native of this vicinity and spent his youth here. We have known him and watched his course and development for many years. He was an industrious boy and young man, such as is bound to rise; a good student, a patriot who shouldered his gun and went forth when patriotism was needed; is now a lawyer of ability and his character and integrity are shows reprosed. He is well fitted to fill the office of district attorney of a great county and Lancaster would advance her interests by calling him to the place. The matter will be settled by the Republican primary election, April 27.

Filing as Office-Seeker's Smile. An oddity in the line of applications for office has been received at the postoffice department. It is a photograph of the applicant and was accompanied by the request that the picture be filled with the papers in the case. What is intended to be a genial smile has evidently been too much for the skill of the country photographer, and the result is an expression of mingled astonishment and dismay which is no astonishment and dismay which is no doubt much more amusing than the origi-

Hinkle has preferred a charge of drunksupess and disorderly conduct against Painter before Alderman A. F. Donnelly.

Three Discharged,

The mayor had three customers this morning. J. Farrel, with a pea jacket and a tough air, John Ensight, an Englishman, who says he is a sailor and named a large number of ships on which he has salled, and

Edward Corrigan were discharged. Executions Issued. The following executions have been issued in the court house: Lewis Brubaker, for the use of M. N. Brubaker vs. Amos E Lehman, of East Donegal, for $1,000, and Issac Groff against Simon R. Snyder, of Stranburg, for $1,000. Daniel D. Hees, through his attorney, J. W. F. Swift, issued execution against Henry H. Lefever for $2,178.79.

The Board of Trade, at a meeting last evening, discussed the matter of establishing a park along the banks of the Concetoga and the following were appointed a committee to push the scheme : W. Z Seners B. J. McGrann, W. U. Hensel, W. D. sprecher and S. H. Reynolds.

Is one of the pillers which upholds our establishment, makes it the centre of attraction, and leaves our competitors far behind in the line of advancement. We now show the choicest styles of Piain and Fancy Dress Silks, Heariettas, Side Bands, Platds, Stripes and Dress Goods in general.

STYLE. Dress Goods without style are like food with-out seasoning. Style is one of the necessary elements of Good Dress Goods. Without style there is always something lacking. All our Dress Goods are selected from the latest new York, Boston and Loadon styles.

QUALITY. What must be looked at when buying Drees Goods is quality. Let a Dress or part of a Dress be cut, trimmed or made, so matter how good, without quality it is worthless. The best quality of socds is what we put in our Dress Goods Department. PRICES.

MANY YEARS AGO THERE WOULD appear in the newspapers, with great regularity, at this season of the year, an ad-vertisement like this:

"As Spring approaches ants and reaches
From their holes come out,
While mice and rate, in spite of cate, oally saip about." Then it went on to say—" Hav Smith's Rat Fxterminator," etc. turns better application of these lines would be something like this:

"As Spring approaches carts and coaches, Running by the hour, Can't bent eneugh of the precious stoff That's known as Leyan's Figur!" But this is just as true of any other season, to far as the stoor is concerned. Send in your orders.
