ANDY FOLEY'S LUCK.

ie is Elected A Member of the Aldermani At the election in Kansas City, several days ago, Andrew P. Foley, formerly of this city, was elected a member of the board of aldermen on the Democratic ticket. After he had been nominated the Republicans concluded that he was too strong to oppose, and they refused to put up a candidate against him. There are few people in this city who did not know Andy Foley when he was a resident of Lancaster. He was born in Scranton 32 years ago, and when a young man came to Lancaster. He worked in rolling mills in Lancaster and Scranton and for several years was in R. E. Fahnestock's dry goods store on East King street. After leaving here he went to Danville, where he kept a salcon. Five years ago he went to Kansas City, where he is the owner of a arge saloon. He had accumulated a little sey before going West. He invested it tably and is now the owner of considable real estate. He will be remembered re as a very clever amateur actor. He s good Irish comedian and dancer and was a member of one of Lan er's first song and dance teams-Foley ind Mack, who appeared at many home material ments. Andy was always a big-beared fellow with hosts of friends here who will be glad to hear of his luck. A lopy of the Kansas City Times, with pictures of the aldermen, has been received at the invallmences office. Few of Mr. Foley's aid friends would be able to recognize him,

Mrs. Frank Miller, who lives about a mile northeast from Washington borough, attempted suicide yesterday. She is a daughter of Christian Stamme, a well known Manor township farmer. She went to her father's house to work and her mother said something to her that greatly displeased her. She went up stairs and procured a pistol owned by her brother. Placing the barrel of the weapon to her left side, she drew the trigger, the ball pessed through her body and lodged in the wall. After doing the shooting the woman ran across the field to the house of a neighbor, followed by her mother who had heard the followed by her mother who had heard the abot. Battimore Joe on Bis Eus Baltimore Joe was released from jali this morning, where he had served a term for drunken and disorderly conduct. He begged a little money during the forencon and by 12 o'clock was very drunk on West King street. Officer Lahr was cent for to arrest him and Joe, who had no cost on, but wore a flaming red shirt, which made him look fleros, went quietly along until he reached the ent in Centre Square. There he started to resist; he struck at the officer, who knocked him down. He laid on the beigian blocks kicking and swearing, and soon drew a crowd. Officer Crawford came to Lehr's assistance and the two put nippers on the man, who then acted like wild. They dragged him some distance up East King street when he concluded to walk. He resisted the whole way to the station house, how ever, and was only looked up with great trouble. After being pisced in a cell he made a great noise for a long time.
