

STORM WARRIORS.

DETAILS OF THE LONG STRUGGLE WITH THE SAMOAN BOATS.

The Trenton, the Olga and the Vandalia... The Olga was bearing down on the Vandalia...

The following account of the Samoa disaster is taken from an Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco, per steamer Alameda.

The Trenton and Vandalia, being further out from shore than the other ships, were almost obscured by the blinding mist.

As soon as the steam gave out the mizen storm sail was set with the greatest difficulty.

The Olga was bearing down on the Vandalia, and the latter vessel was trying to avoid collision with her.
