- A LETTLE GIEL.

  Indy trips the stairs adown
  to greet the rays of morning,
  such gisten round her head, a crown,
  for matal day adoraing.
- What ago's my lady? Just thirteen, You'd think she was far older, Her wiching eyes have grown more in Her toose, too, make her colder. lins! how childhood, with a whirt, From yesterd y is fleeting! called her then "a little girl;" To-day she scorns this greeting.
- Fit on, my lady, through the years Which give to youts their plenty Of love and grief, of hopes and fears, Till age proclaims you twenty.
- Then, as each year time steals a ourl And dimple from you (doubting), Mothints I'll call you "little girl" Without disean 'al pouting. Walter C. Michole, in Besten Transcript.

Bleesing to humanity is what Dr. Sull's Cough syrup can well be termed, for it has done more good already than any other medicine. One trial will convince any one of its efficacy. Price is cents.

"There's no terror, headache, in your threats,"
You I am armed so strong with remedy That I pass pain by, as an idle word, Since the discovery of Salvation Oil.

A Life Made Miserable

By dyspeptia is scarcely worth the living. A capricious appetite, heartburn, puzzling nervous symptoms, increased action of the heart after eating, sinking in the abdomen between meals, and fiatulence after, are among the successive fudicits of this harrassing complaint.
Two things only are needful for its removal.
A resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and persistence in its uss. These remedial measares being adopted, a cure is certain. Taken immediately before or after meals, this great stomachie promotes secretion of the gastrio juice, the natural solvent of the food. The hervous and billious symptoms consequent upon chronic indigestion disappear, as the complaint gradually yields to the corrective and invigorating influence of the Bitters.
Appetite returns, alcep becomes more refreshing, and as a sequence, the body is efficiently mourfained, muscular power increases, and the mind grows sanguine. Use the Bitters for chills and fever, and rheumatism A Life Made Miserable

CREETING!

As we have just closed our second year in business, and are entering our third, we wish to return our thanks to our numerous friends and patrons for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon us, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. Daily are we having oustomers that say, "We have heard so much of your store. We thought we would have to come and see for ourselves." Why do they hear of us? Low Prices is the cause, as we told you several weeks ago in reference to the prices of our Carpets, that we have marked our profits small. Better to have them so out at small profits than keep them standing here with large profits, had the destred effect, and we have been outting them faster than we expected.
