It will be remembered by the readers of the INTELLIGENCEN that on the night of February 21 or early in the morning of the 224 the house of Jacob Habecker, who lives with his two sisters in Manor town ship, was entered by burglars. The men pointed pistole at the heads of the people in house and threatened to kill them it they did not give them money. They are deveral shots, but got nothing. George Wetson and Hornee Dorsey, two colored men of Columbia, were arrested on the charge by Officers Wittick and Barnhold and their case is down on the trial list for and their case is down on the trial list for this week. This morning Dorsey made a confession in the county prison and said he would turn state's evidence. He says that he, Watson, Isaac Craig, and Wash Coir, all of whom are colored, were together at Habecker's house that night. They placed blacking on their faces before leaving Columbia and drove to Habecker's house Dorsey and Craig waited outside of the house with the team and Cole and Watson went inside. Dorsey says that he did not know that the men had pistols until they heard their firing the shots inside.

After Wittick had heard the statement o Dorsey he and Constable Barnhold started in search of Cole and Craig, who they short time both were captured and placed in jail. Although they were getting ready to leave town, having heard of Dorsey's confession. They will be heard by Squire Evans, of Columbia.
