TWO BOILERS EXPLODE.

PART OF HOLLINGER'S TANNERY AT COLUMBIA IS DEMOLISHED.

One of the Boilers, Weighing Two Tons, is Blown Two Hundred Feet. Loss, $1,200.

COLUMBIA, April 18.—The people living in the vicinity of Hollinger's tannery, on Lancaster avenue, were awakened this morning about 2:15 o'clock by a heavy rumbling sound ending in a sudden crash. Investigation was at once made and it was found that the two boilers at the tannery of Henry Hollinger had exploded, doing considerable damage. The explosion shattered the boiler house and there is not one brick left standing on another. One boiler was blown about three feet out of its position; the other boiler was blown on the Lancaster turnpike, a distance of about 200 feet from the boiler house. The boiler took a straight course, knocking down a pump, ploughing up the ground and tearing away a portion of a rail fence. When it reached about eight feet from a dwelling occupied by Isaac Getz, shoemaker, it took a sudden turn and ran into a fence, which was broken down. The boiler is thirty feet long, thirty inches in diameter and weighs about 4,500 pounds. On the top of the stack can be seen a large plank thrown there by the water in the boilers, the water marks being seen along the sides of the stack.

John Keech, engineer, and Henry Hollinger, proprietor, left the boilers all right at 6 o'clock last evening. The cause of the explosion is not known.

The loss is about $1,200, with no insurance. Work was started this morning to put in new boilers.

FIRE AT TERRE HILL.

The Furniture Store of Jacob Eshleman & Co. Badly Damaged.

On Wednesday about noon a fire occurred at the furniture warerooms of Jacob Eshleman & Co., in the village of Terre Hill. Some cigarmakers who were on their way to work discovered the fire. They saw smoke issuing from the window and they were compelled to force open the door, as the proprietors of the store were away from home. They found that the fire was in the furnishing rooms on the second floor, and it seemed to be ablaze from one end to the other. An alarm was sounded in the town, and soon all of the residents were on the ground. Men, women and children worked together in carrying water from the pumps and the fire was finally extinguished. The furniture in the warerooms was all carefully removed and was damaged but very little. The building is covered with a tin roof, and that prevented the fire from getting out to a considerable extent. Had it gained much headway a number of other houses would have been in danger, as there was a stiff wind blowing at the time. The loss will amount to about $200, and there is an insurance in the Penn Township company. The fire so frightened the people of the town that they are now talking about getting a fire engine.

Two Railroad Wrecks.

A wreck occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad near Witmer Station about three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Eleven empty cars attached to engine 584, going west, jumped the tracks. Many of them had the trucks torn from the bodies, which were lying across the tracks. The accident caused Chicago Limited Express, east, to be late for three hours. Harrisburg Accommodation, west, and Day Express, east, were delayed for an hour each.

At 7 o'clock this morning three cars of engine 1,183 were thrown from the tracks near Rohrerstown. The accident was caused by the falling down of a dead wood. The north track was blocked for three hours, but no trains were delayed in consequence.

The Kangaroo in the Water.

The well known sail boat Kangaroo, which has been lying on the banks of the Conestoga at Graeff's Landing for some time past, was launched yesterday. There was quite a large crowd present, including many old salts. When the boat was first put in the water the wind was good, but it fell off later in the afternoon and the water became very calm. This did not prevent a sail, however, and Benjamin Simmons took several large parties out. The boat is a very good one and the water in the stream at this point is in good condition for sailing. This kind of boating is likely to become more popular the coming summer than ever before.

Will Build a New Hall.

The joint committee from the lodges of the I. O. O. F., of this city, met last evening at Odd Fellows' hall, to receive the report of the committee having the subscription books in charge.

The amount of subscriptions was large, as over half of the stock has already been taken, with the greater number of the members yet to be seen.

The committee were very much gratified at the results, and will hold a meeting on May 1st, (by which time they think the balance of the stock will be taken) to make the necessary arrangements for calling a meeting of the stockholders and forming the association.

In the Catholic Churches.

Special services were held in all the Catholic churches of the city to-day, Maunday or Holy Thursday. After mass this morning there was a procession of the sodalities and school children. To-morrow there will be special services at 8 o'clock and Saturday at 7 o'clock.

He Says He Attacked Him.

Charlie Davis has brought suits before Alderman Pinkerton against John, better known as "Blood" Keener, charging him with drunken and disorderly conduct and assault and battery. He says that Keener, without any provocation whatever, made an attack on him yesterday. Keener has been held for a hearing.

Arrested for Peddling.

E. R. Morgan, A. V. Taylor, B. E. Corey, J. W. Winters, J. T. Quinn, and I. C. Comerford were arrested to-day by Constable Eicholtz for peddling without license. These men have been selling empire to dealers and private parties and the allegation is that they are violating the peddlers' act. Alderman Spurrier will dispose of the cases to-night.

Drove Into a Street Car.

Some of the men who come to town from the country have an idea that street cars should turn out for them. One of these kind drove into a car on the East King street line this morning and had the tongue of his wagon broken off.

Commissions Received.

The commissions of the aldermen and justices of the peace elected in February, have been received at the recorder's office and will be ready for those entitled to them next week.

The Funeral of John Rose.

The funeral of John Rose took place this afternoon and was largely attended. There were present representatives of St. Bernard's Catholic Beneficial society and old Lancaster Fencibles, of which he was a member. The interment was made at St. Mary's cemetery, with services conducted by Rev. Dr. McCullagh.

A Druggist Fails.

Executions were issued to-day by D. C. Tobias and E. H. Burkholder for $1,100, against J. K. Tobias, who keeps a drug store at Ephrata, and the sheriff has levied upon his stock.

To Help a Good Cause.

"The poor ye have always with ye." None of these are poorer than the patients of St. Joseph's Hospital, bereft as they are not only of the means of subsistence, but of ability to earn means. An opportunity to add something to their comforts and to lighten in some measure the unceasing labors of their custodians, will be afforded the community on Easter Monday, when a "pound party" will be held at the hospital for their benefit. Contributions of all kinds and of all sizes will be in order. The sisters are gratefully mindful of the friends who so nobly stood by them on the occasion of the party given on last Thanksgiving Day, and hope that those and others will add their encouragement and add to the number and weight of the pounds. Though the work of the hospital is broad its means are narrow. a18-3td

New York's Centennial Celebration. Low Fares via Reading Railroad.

The most magnificent exhibition celebration ever witnessed in this country will take place in New York city April 29th, 30th and May 1st, the one hundredth anniversary of President Washington's inauguration.

The Passenger Department of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad announces that special excursion tickets for this occasion will be sold at the extraordinary low rate of one and one-half cents per mile traveled. The round trip fare from Lancaster to New York and return will be $4.77 and the reduction from other points is correspondingly great. These tickets will be good going on April 27, 28, 29 and 30, and on trains arriving at New York before noon of May 1st, and will be accepted for return passage from April 27th until the last train leaving New York on the night of May 6th. The superiority of the Reading route to New York is unquestioned. a17&24

GREETING.

As we have just closed our second year in business, and are entering our third, we wish to return our thanks to our numerous friends and patrons for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon us, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. Daily are we having customers that say, "We have heard so much of your store. We thought we would have to come and see for ourselves." Why do they hear of us? Low Prices is the cause, as we told you several weeks ago in reference to the prices of our Carpets, that we have marked our profits small. Better to have them go out at small profits than keep them standing here with large profits, had the desired effect, and we have been cutting them faster than we expected. Home-made Rag at 25, 30, 35, 37½, 40, 45, 50, 55 and 60 cents; Rag Carpet, 1¼ yards wide, in cotton or wool stripe; Rag Stair Carpet in cotton or wool stripe; Ingrain Carpet at 20, 25, 30, 35, 37½, 40, 45 and 50 cents; Hall Carpet from 20c. up; Stair Carpet at 10, 15, 20, 25 and 35 cents. Floor, Table, Stair and Shelf Oil Cloth, the best assortment in the city. Feathers, we are headquarters. Window shades, best goods, full size, spring fixtures, only 20c. each. A cheaper grade, same size, spring fixtures, only 15c.

TOILE DU NORD AND DRESS GOODS.—We claim we have the choicest styles in Toile du Nord and Dress Ginghams in the city of Lancaster. We selected our styles in December, when the choice of the manufacturers' line was shown, and we have heard it said by agents more than once, who have been to our store and seen them, that they have nowhere seen as choice a line of styles and blending of shades as we are showing. We have cut a great many styles already, although a great many wait until the weather gets warmer. To those we would say, when you are ready, come and see the best line in the city at 5½, 8, 10 and 12½ cents. It does not cost any more to have a choice style of us than the same quality with a less desirable style elsewhere.

FLOUNCING—Dress Flouncing, 45 inches wide, at 50c. per yard. Space will not allow to say more than we have the best goods at the price ever shown.

BLACK SILK—A Black Silk, 24 inches wide, actual measure, at $1.50 per yard, is one of our special drives. We ask you to call and see it and judge for yourself, and if it don't beat anything you have ever seen at the price, don't buy it. We cant make you buy, but we can tempt you with low prices, and if you want the best for the money we are ready to give it to you. Low prices have made our business a success thus far, and low prices is our watchword for the future.

Respectfully,

BARD & McELROY,

NOS. 33 AND 35 SOUTH QUEEN STREET, Opposite Fountain Inn.
