The flower shines not for itself at all; Its joy is the joy it freely diffuses;
Of beauty and balm it is prodigal,
And it lives in the light it freely loses;
No choice for the rose but glory or doom,
To exhale or smother, to wither or bloom, To deny Is to die.

The seas lend silvery rain to the land, The land its sapphire streams to the ocean; The heart sends blood to the brain of command, The brain to the heart its lightning motion; And ever and ever we yield our breath, Till the mirror is dry and images death, Is to live.

H: is dead whose hand is not opened wide To help the need of a human brother; He doubles the length of his life-long ride Who gives his fortunate place to another; And a thousand million lives are his Who carries the world in his sympathics.

To deny is to die.

MORE OPINIONS. FAITHFUL TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

From the Columbia Herald. The Lancaster INTELLIGENCER has do ned a handsome new spring suit. The INTELLIGENCER serves its patrons with the results to the state of the keenest and most ably edited newspapers in the state. It deserves all the success which it has attained. One of the very best features of our esteemed contemporary is its vigorous and able support of the faith of the Democratic party. May it live long and pressure every. prosper ever. BRIGHT AND HANDSOME.

From the Carlisle American Volunteer.

The Lancaster Intelligencer has put on a dress of new type and looks bright and handsome. It is one of our most esteemed Democratic exchanges and as able as it is STIMULATED BY ADVERSITY.

From the Marietta Register.

The Lancaster INTELLIGENCER came out in a blooming Easter costume on Thursday, just a short time ahead of the day. The neatness of the typographical effect is only exceeded by the staunchness of its Democracy and its sporting reports. Is it a change of national administration which has wrought this transformation? has wrought this transformation? BLITTLE AS A BRIDE.

From the Philadelphia Record.

The ever-esteemed Laneaster INTELLI-GENCER has donned a spring suit of type, and looks as bright and as blithe as an Easter bride, PRESENTS AN ELEGANT APPEARANCE.

From the Altoona Tribune. The Laneaster Intelligencer, in some respects, the ablest Democratic daily in Pennsylvania, has acrayed itself in a handsome new spring dress and presents an elegant appearance.

That excellent newspaper, the Lancaster INTELLIGENCER, has improved its ward-robe by a suit of handsome new body and advertising type. It looks as next and nobby as a bride, and the Sun and Banner extends hearty congratulations. WELL DISPLAYED ADVERTISEMENTS.

From the Quarry ville Post. Types, like all things, are perishable. After four years' use the INTELLIGENCER discarded its old suit and now appears in the finest dress that money can buy. The INTELLIGENCER is progressive, and merits the success it has been enjoying. No paper in the country contains better displayed advertisements. advertisements.

DESERVED PROSPERITY. From the Philadelphia Herald,

Our friend, the Laneaster INTELLIGEN-CER, has put on a new dress of type, and looks very well in it, too. The INTELLI-GENCER is prosperous, as it deserves to be. From the Easton Argus.

The Lancaster INTELLIGENCER, one of our best exchanges, has treated itself to a new dress. It looks as bright and pretty as a new silver dollar.

WELL ESTABLISHED ABILITY. From the Harrisburg Independent,

The Lancaster INTELLIGENCER has put on a new dress, and looks exceedingly bright in appearance, while the old, weil established ability with which it has always been conducted, shows to additional adbeen conducted, shows to additional advantage in its now bright face. The INTELLIGENCER is among the ablest of the Democratic organs in the state, if not in the country. HONORABLE AND ENTERPRISING.

From the Gettysburg Compiler.

The Laneaster Intelligencer is out in a onew and tasteful dress. An honorable and enterprising journal, it well deserves the large measure of confidence and patronage accorded it. Long may it flourish. A STAUNCH ADVOCATE.

From the Steellon Advocate, The Laneaster Intelligencer, that staunch advocate of Democratic principles, came forth last week with a very pretty ALWAYS RELIABLE. From the Manheim Sun.

The Lancaster Intelligences has a new dress and tooks as fresh and lovely as the spring landscape. Its news is always reliable, too.

NEAT AND WELL EDITED. From the Lititz Record. Have you seen the Lancaster INTELLI-GENCIA since it appears in a new dress of type? It is not only neat, but is pretty, and this, added to its well edited columns and general good make-u , makes it a de-sirable paper to peruse at all times. May it continue to prosper in the future as it has done in the past. A PAPER WITH PRINCIPLES.

From the Litits Express. The Laneaster Intelligencer has come out in a new type dress and makes a bright appearance. By cutting loose from its past political principles the INTELLIGENCER could become one of the very best news-papers published in the state, but it is not likely to do so. A NEWSPAPER.

From the Mt. Joy Herald. The Lancaster Intelligences is out in a new dress, which greatly improves its appearance. Its merits as a newspaper are conceded on all sides,

He Wants Dama res.

Frederick Schultz has begon suit in St. Paul against August Michel for $2,500 damages, for covering him with a coat of red and black paint while he slept, and afterwards calling in fifty other boarders to laugh at the sight. Schultz was asdeep and was awakened by their shouts of laughter.

We have had ample opportunity to convince ourselves of the efficacy of Salvation Oil. We cheeffully submit our mines to the public as reference. Respectfully, Sisters of Notre Dame. About it & Enger Sis., Bultimore, Md. No wonder people have confidence when the best physicians are prescribing Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Man Wants a Tonic When there is a lack of elastic energy in the system, shown by a sensation of languor and unrest in the morning, frequent yawning dur-ing the day and disturbed sleep at night, Hostetter's Stemach Bitters infuses unwonted energy into the enfeebled and nervous, endowing them with muscular energy, an ability to repose healthfully, and digest without in-convenience. Nervousness headache, billoustiess, impaired appetite and a feeble, trouble s me stomach, are all and speedily set right by this matchless regulator and invigorant. The mineral poisons, among them strychnia and nux vomica, are never safe tonics, even in infinitesimal doses. The Bitters answers the purpose more effectually, and can be relied upon as perfectly safe by the most prudent. Fever and ague, kidney troubles and rheuma-tism yield to it.

LACK OF LIFE.

When the pulse beats feebly; when the energy is gone; when the appetite is weak and steep uncertain, then the body is in a condition of actual "low life." No matter what the causes may have been Nature has given way and unless her strength is restored disease is certain to take possession of the body. The first thing any doctor does in such a case is to assist Nature. Here are some instances:

Prof. Austin Flint, of Bellevue (New York) College, says: "The judicious use of alcohol e stimulants is one of the striking characteristics of progress in the practice of medicine during the last half century."

The celebrated Dr. J. M. Carnwall says: 'I am most I appy to say, after a very it o ough test, that for persons suffering with nervous and general debility or any wasting disease, or for delicate persons or invalids, Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey is the best tonic and purest stimulant with which I am acquainted."

There are no higher scientific authorities than those and they speak volumes. Beware of all bottled whiskies which may be offered you, eyest pure in the search of the search of the pure of the pure of the pure of the search of the pure o
