THE TENNIS TEA. Opening of the New Tennis Courts on North Lino Streets.

The opening of the new grounds of the Lancaster Tennis club, at the corner of North Lino and Clay streets, in this city, yesterday, was made the occasion of a very pleasant social gathering.

The new club house was crowded to overflowing by the members and their guests, and if a proportionate interest is kept up during the season, it will prove to be a great addition to the social life of Lancaster during the hot weather.

The club has made a very wise selection of a site, and at great expense have built four hard clay courts with a little care soon become as smooth as could be wished.

Rapidly growing shade trees have been planted on the south and west and the whole neatly fenced in.

The reception which greeted a visitor on Tuesday made him wish that tennis was widely become the rage for, thanks to the excellent condition of the grounds and the nearly all afternoon. At no time was the rain heavy, but it was sufficient to keep many people away from the grounds who otherwise would have gone.

The August Flowers had Hogarth and Cook for their pitcher and the latter caught a fine game, while his throwing was very good. His pitcher was not hit hard, except by two men of the other club, Carroll and Gibson were the Lancaster battery. The former was so effective that but two hits, one of which was a scratch, were made off him and sixteen Flowers struck out.

Gibson gave him good support, in fact the only errors outside of the battery were made by Long at third base, who is a catcher, and is filling the position until the arrival of Flood. The August Flowers had several damaging errors. Among the best features of the game was the catch of a very difficult fly by Leibfried, of the August Flowers, who captured the ball after a long run near the fence, and the hitting of Long and Clark. On the whole, the new club made a very favorable impression, and the following score will give some idea of their work:
