"WASHINGTON PARK."

OVER TWO ACRES ADJOINING THE RESERVOIRS TO BE BOUGHT.

City Councils Agree to Provide a Resort. Two Hundred Dollars Appropriated For Memorial Day Observance.

The May meeting of select and common councils was held on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

In select council there were present: Messrs. Erisman, Everts, Haines, Long, Schum, Stormfeltz and Evans, president.

The minutes of the April meeting were read and approved.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

By Mr. Erisman: For the macadamizing of Charlotte street between Chestnut and Walnut; for a sewer on Lancaster avenue between Chestnut and Walnut.

By Mr. Riddle: For the grading and guttering of 350 feet on College avenue; for the repair of North Duke street between James and Clay; for a crossing on Duke street between James and Frederick.

By Mr. Everts: For macadamizing one square of Middle street between East King and Shippen; for grading and guttering Chester street between Plum and Ann.

By Mr. Stormfeltz: For the macadamizing of North Prince street between Chestnut and Walnut; for a crossing at Arch and Walnut streets.

By Mr. Schum: For the macadamizing of West Vine street between Water and Prince streets; for two crossings at Prince and Vine streets; for the repair of Andrew street between South Queen and Beaver.

By Mr. Haines: For a two foot sewer on East Mifflin street between Christian and Duke streets, the owners of property agreeing to contribute $50 towards the construction of it. All the above were referred to the street committee.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Mr. Riddle presented the report of the street committee, showing the business transacted during the month of April.

Mr. Long presented the report of the lamp committee for April, showing the amount expended for lighting the city in that month.

Mr. Schum presented the report of the fire committee. May 13th is designated for the annual inspection of the fire department apparatus.

Messrs. Schum and Long, appointed on the committee on sewerage and drainage, asked to be relieved from serving. The work of this committee has been done and there does not appear to be anything for them to do. Their request was granted.

Mr. Riddle presented a message from the mayor appointing Daniel Glass, of the Sixth ward, on the police.

Mr. Haines said he had opposed Mr. Glass' confirmation in April because he did not know then whether or not he would take out his constable's commission. Since then another person has been appointed constable of the Sixth ward and he would now vote for his confirmation. Glass was confirmed by a vote of 5 to 3. Those voting aye were Erisman, Haines, Riddle, Schum and Stormfeltz, and those voting nay were Everts, Long and President Evans.

G. A. R. APPROPRIATION.

Mr. Everts raised the question whether the $200 petitioned for by the Grand Army posts for Decoration Day expenses could be taken from the treasury by resolution. He contended that the money would have to be voted away by ordinance. Select council finally concurred in the resolution of common council by a unanimous vote.

A NEW MARKET HOUSE.

Mr. Haines offered a resolution appropriating $20,000 from the contingent fund, to be expended in the erection of a new Central market house. The resolution was unanimously adopted. Common council concurred.

Mr. Haines also offered a resolution authorizing the market committee to advertise for proposals for the erection of a Central market house, in accordance with the plans of Architect Warner. The resolution was adopted; common council concurred.

REFORM IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

Mr. Evans offered the following:

WHEREAS, The municipal liens filed by the city of Lancaster have heretofore been renewed by the said city oftener than required by law to preserve its lien, and

WHEREAS, Said frequent renewals have entailed an undue amount of costs on the defendants in such liens, therefore be it

Resolved, By select and common councils of the city of Lancaster that hereafter the scire facias to revive any of such liens shall be issued thereon until within six months before the expiration of any such liens unless otherwise ordered by resolution of the finance committee specifically naming the liens to be revived, which action shall be reported to the next succeeding meeting of councils; that in case the city solicitor shall issue a scire facias on any of such liens contrary to this resolution, all the costs and expenses incurred by such action shall be deducted from his salary by the finance committee quarterly and no warrant for his salary shall be drawn by the mayor on the city treasurer until such costs and expenses are ascertained and deducted and then only for the balance.

In explanation of the resolutions Mr. Evans said that it was an outrage on the people that city solicitors issued scire facias and for the purpose of making a $3 fee they would pile up $15 or $20 costs on people who were unfortunately not able to pay their city tax. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. Common council concurred.

A PUBLIC PARK.

Mr. Erisman presented the report of the water committee. It contained this recommendation:

The water committee respectfully call the attention of councils to the propriety of establishing a suitable park for the public use of Lancaster city.

It seems that there is a public sentiment in favor of this measure to warrant action thereon. The reservoir and reservoir grounds are now the only places where our citizens can go for recreation, and, so far as it is possible for the ground connected with the reservoirs to furnish accommodations, it affords a very pleasant resort; but the grounds are too small to accommodate our growing population, and we need more room in order to furnish to our citizens what they ought to have for this purpose. The opening of Broad street and the extension of East Orange street, have cut off a piece of ground lying on the north side and contiguous to the reservoir grounds, containing 2¼ acres without buildings. If this was added to the present grounds, it would furnish a fine park, and for the present time at least of satisfactory extent. There is no locality anywhere within the bounds of the city where ground could be procured so advantageously for the purpose as this.

It is a fine location, a high elevation, securing the freshest and purest air that can be had here, and the surrounding view, covering a large portion of the county, is by far the most interesting and extensive that could possibly be had available to our citizens. We therefore recommend that we be authorized to procure this ground for the purposes mentioned.

Accompanying the report was the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, in which action common council concurred:

Resolved, by the select and common council of the city of Lancaster that the mayor and water committee be and are hereby authorized to purchase in behalf of the city of Lancaster all that triangular lot of ground bounded on the south by the reservoir, on the east by Broad street, on the north by Orange street and on the west by a point on old Orange street and known as the Clark and Shilling property, providing the same can be bought at a fair and marketable price. The said property if purchased to be annexed to the reservoir ground for the purpose of making a park for the use and benefit of the public.

Common council was called to order at 7:30 and the following members were present: Adams, Altick, Bartholomew, Baumgardner, Bertzfield, Bitner, Bradel, Brinton, Cummings, Cresbaugh, Dinan, Eager, Eberman, Frantz, Frech, Fritsch, Hoover, Kreider, Landis, Rill, Sing, Underwood, Long, Young, Zook, Beard—president.

SENATOR COLQUITT'S SPEECH.

Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, was introduced to the audience by Chairman Brosius and received with so great applause that he was unable to proceed for several minutes. He began his speech by referring to the great importance of the question to be decided at the election on June 18, said he had been ridiculed and scoffed at and called a crank and fanatic for the position he had taken on the temperance question, but he cared nothing for the ridicule heaped on him. He said in substance:

The liquor traffic is either a blessing or a curse. If it promotes the good order of society and makes good citizens, everybody ought to vote to retain this traffic. If it demoralizes and debauches the youth of the land every vote should be cast for the amendment. Pennsylvania is proud of being the keystone of the national arch, and he hoped that the vote would be so overwhelmingly in favor of the amendment that Pennsylvania would hereafter be known as the "Keystone of morals."

He appealed to the fathers in the audience to put to themselves this question, "Is my son to be ruined by rum?" Every father who thought so would of course vote for the amendment. He urged them to vote for the amendment to save some other person's son.

He next dwelt upon the personal liberty phase of the question as it was argued from the liquor dealers' standpoint. He referred to the mission of the Democratic party, which he said was to raise the poor laboring man to a higher and purer citizenship. It is the opinion of many that the words Democracy and rum selling are synonymous. He wanted it understood that the Democrats are not as a party committed to the side of the liquor sellers in this movement. He had met and spoken with many Democrats in this state, and there would be found in this battle Democrats shoulder to shoulder with their political enemies, battling for the cause of prohibition.

He next gave illustrations of the absurdity of the personal liberty phase of the question. Some people whom he met said they believed in temperance but did not want to be restrained and that prohibition would not prohibit. These people believe in high license to reduce the number of saloons, thus discriminating against the poor man who cannot pay high license, and gave the liquor privilege to the rich man with his marble bars, cut glasses and finery. If his son is ruined by rum it was immaterial whether the liquor was furnished to him standing on a marble floor and drinking over a marble bar, or whether he gets his liquor standing on a saw dust floor, over an ordinary wooden bar.

It is said that prohibition cannot be enforced and that the laws would be violated. There have been violations against the high license law. There are violations against every law on the statute books, but that is no reason why all laws should be repealed. For every violation of law there is a penalty attached. Enforce the law rigidly and there will be no more violations of the liquor than of any other law. If Pennsylvania can't execute the laws on her books let her cease to be the Keystone state of the Union.

Does prohibition increase taxes, was the last phase discussed. He asserted and said the proof of his assertion came from his own city and state. In Atlanta at the end of the year that prohibition was in force, the city tax rate was less and there was more money in the treasury than ever before. There was not one-tenth of the cases returned to court or heard by magistrates that there was when saloons were on every corner. He ridiculed the idea that business would suffer if prohibition was adopted and in closing asked the audience not to censure the committee for bringing a rebel to talk to them. While it is true that he was in the Confederate army during the year, there was now but one Union and one flag, and if occasion ever required, the men of the South would be found shoulder to shoulder with those of the North in driving out any foreign enemy.

Senator Colquitt spoke for two hours, and had the strictest attention of his large audience. His speech was interspersed with numerous stories and was well received. He retired amid thunders of applause.

MONEY RAISED.

J. W. Nichols, of Illinois, sent to this county to organize the prohibition amendment people in every district, made a brief address and appealed for funds. In a short time over $700 was raised. Eursk, Third ward, $25; H. C. Moore, Second ward, $25; J. M. Hershey, Gap, $50; Elias Hershey, Paradise, $50; J. M. Baughman, Strasburg; J. M. Draucher, Fifth ward, $25; E. W. SUPPORT FROM WOMEN.

The following resolution, adopted at a meeting of 60 ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, was read:

Resolved, That we lend our support to the Amendment association of Lancaster county.

Edward Carswell, of Toronto, Canada was introduced and made a half hour speech in favor of the amendment. He was followed by Rev. Dr. Alfred Nevin, who in a brief speech urged all to use their influence in behalf of the amendment, after which the meeting adjourned until 7:30 o'clock.

THE EVENING SESSION.

Many of the country delegates could not remain for the evening session of the prohibition convention, but the large court room was well filled when Chairman Brosius called the meeting to order. After several selections had been sung by the Lancaster quartette and prayer offered by Rev. J. B. Funk, speeches were made by J. W. Nichols, Senator Colquitt and Jacob Hofstettler. The meeting lasted until after 10 o'clock and was very enthusiastic.

NOTES OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Senator Colquitt left to-day for Harrisburg, where he will speak this evening. He has been engaged to deliver thirteen speeches in the principal cities of the state.

Edward Carswell, of Canada, will speak at Marietta every evening this week in the interest of the amendment.

A mass meeting will be held at Quarryville on Thursday evening, May 9.

Luther S. Kauffman will deliver ten speeches in Columbia county, beginning next week.

To Make the City Tax Duplicate.

The finance committee of councils met on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock with all the members present except Mr. Frantz. The deadlock on the election of a clerk to make out the city tax duplicate was broken by the election of James H. Marshall. He received the votes of Messrs Riddle and Baumgardner. Mr. Everts voted for George W. Eaby.

Charged With Malicious Mischief.

Eli Eshelman, jr., and Walter Eshelman, two young men who reside near Marticville, were arrested at an early hour this morning by Constable Senft. The charge against them is malicious mischief, and it is alleged that they shot and killed a horse of Peter Bruner. They will be heard on Saturday by Alderman Spurrier.

VICTORY FOR LANCASTER.

THE FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP GAME HERE WON BY THE HOME CLUB.

Half a Thousand Witnesses to the Defeat of the Cuban Giants—The Score 7 to 3. Features of the Contest.

The championship season of the Middle States League was opened in Lancaster on Wednesday afternoon under the most favorable auspices.

Although the weather was very unfavorable, a drizzling rain setting in at 3 o'clock and continuing for two hours, the crowd numbered about 500 people.

The opponents of Lancaster's green club were the Cuban Giants, the strong colored team whose fame has spread over the entire country. The club has been together for several years as an independent organization, but to-day it is stronger than ever before. The men have been together for two months this year downing almost everything with which they came in contact and playing close games with the strongest teams in the country. When the Middle States schedule was made up and it became known that the Giants were to open here, everybody thought it was a shame to put in such a strong team against the weakest. The way that the Lancaster club polished off the colored men showed that the former are allowing no flies to gather upon them.

The Giants were very anxious to win the opening game here. Wyte was on the score card to pitch, but the manager changed his mind, and Stovey, the left-handed man, formerly of Newark, took the box with C. Williams to catch him. The game was called at 3:45 by Umpire Deen, and the colored men were much the livelier club of the two. They seemed to think that they had a picnic, and began to coach very vigorously. They soon changed their tune, however, and the Lancaster men became the noisy people. Neither club scored in the first inning, but in the second the Giants succeeded in getting three men over the plate. Frye got to first on an error of Peak, and Boyd went there on balls, and two base hits of Malone and Frye secured the three runs. After that the Giants were not so free with the stick and Kilroy was too much for them. They scattered their hits all through the game, and owing to the sharp fielding could do nothing. Vogt caught well and his accurate throwing to second was a feature of the game. Towards the latter part of the game the Lancaster boys took a turn at the bat and gave their black brothers a little lesson in its use. Stovey was well touched up and he looked very sick as the kids rapped his left-hand delivery. In the seventh inning O'Donnell and Long took their bases on balls, and after stealing a base each Clark brought them in with a corking hit down past second. Three more runs were added by an error of Grant, two bagger of Collins and a single by Kilroy. In the last inning the Lancaster boys added two more runs to their score by hits of Collins, Kilroy and O'Donnell and an error of Malone. Among the best features of the game, besides the battery work of Kilroy and Vogt, was the timely hitting of Clark and Collins and two magnificent fly catches by the latter in centre field. He took them almost against the fence, and the applause he received was tremendous. At the close of the game the applause was tremendous, and the result was the talk of the town last evening. The score in full was:

Kurtz, who was transferred to the Lancaster club from the Reading, was released yesterday afternoon and sent to his home in Baltimore.

Carl, of the York club of 1884, is back with the team.

Some people of this city seem to think that base ball is played merely for fun and that a club can be maintained on wind. They resort to all kinds of mean methods to see games free, and several wagons of well known business firms are kept on the New Holland pike every afternoon for several hours for the purpose of affording a place for dead heads to stand. Men with plenty of money occupy prominent places.

G. Williams, second baseman of the Giants, hurt his ankle in the first inning of the game yesterday afternoon. Grant took his place and Wyte went to right field.

Charlie Mason's club, the Philadelphia Giants, a team that is composed entirely of men of six feet in height, will open in Lancaster to-morrow afternoon. They will be a curiosity and as they have improved since the season began good work may be looked for.

Manheim has organized a ball club and they will play on the driving park grounds. H. B. Summy will be the manager and the club starts under favorable auspices.

The Philadelphia Press of this morning says: "The victory of the Lancaster club yesterday over the Cuban Giants was as much of a surprise as it was deserved. The players, as a team, had only worked together in two or three games and it was not expected that they could exhibit that confidence and smoothness which are necessary in the combat with such an old and experienced club as the Cuban Giants. It is evident that Ted Connell's boys are in the race from the very start."

Other Games.

The games of ball yesterday were: Philadelphia 19, Boston 8; New York 16, Washington 3; Pittsburg 3, Cleveland 2; Chicago 5, Indianapolis 2; Brooklyn 6 Baltimore 2; St. Louis 9, Louisville 1; Cincinnati 14, Kansas City 3; Reading 19, Philadelphia Giants 2; Harrisburg 2, York 3.

A Missing Mt. Joy Couple.

Minnie Peffer, a sixteen-year-old daughter of a respectable citizen of Mt. Joy, and Abraham Trout, a married man, of the same town, have disappeared. The belief is that the pair have eloped. They were traced to this city, and a man answering Trout's description purchased tickets here for Springfield, Illinois. Trout has a wife and three children.

A Lancaster Graduate.

Among the graduates at the Pennsylvania University yesterday, was Moses D. Lederman, son of David Lederman, of Lime street, this city. He studied medicine with Dr. M. L. Herr.

Went to Canada.

Ex-Sheriff John H. High, wife and daughter left this morning for Waterloo, Canada, where he will spend four or five weeks.

AGAIN AMENDED.

The Soldiers' Orphan School Bill Changed By the Senate.

HARRISBURG, May 2.—In the Senate to-day Brown, of York, moved to discharge the committee on finance from consideration of the grangers' equalization tax bill, with a view of getting it before the Senate. The motion was lost, lacking but one vote to give the necessary 26 votes. Delamater and Cooper were among those opposing it.

The soldiers' orphans commission bill was amended on third reading by Bates, of Union, abolishing the contract system and authorizing the commission to rent the necessary buildings for the accommodation of soldiers' children, and employ the necessary officers to control the schools, [As amended on second reading the provision against contracting with the syndicate was stricken out, and authority given to confine the contracts to a person who had an interest in only one school.]

House bills were passed finally as follows: Fixing compensation of county commissioners at $3.50 a day for actual service in counties in which the commissioners receive a smaller amount per day; to authorize a veteran soldier or sailor to bring suit against any county for bounty money; for the construction of new buildings for the House of Refuge for the Eastern district.

The anthracite coal dockage bill in interest of anthracite miners was defeated.

In the House to-day the Senate bill requiring the appointment of female physicians in state lunatic hospitals was defeated, as was the Senate bill to prevent the sale of intoxicating drinks on Decoration Day.

The following Senate bills passed finally: Providing for per diem pay and expenses for cavalry; requiring payment or bonus on authorized increase of capital stock; for identification of habitual criminals.

The Senate bill to provide for the erection of morgues in several counties was defeated.

MURRAY WHIPS LYMAN.

The Lightweights Fight 80 Rounds in a Dining Room.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Billy Murray, of this city, and Jack Lyman, of Boston, who were matched some six weeks ago to fight for a stake of $500 and the championship of America at 110 pounds, and the purse of $200, met in the dining room of a hotel in East New York early this morning and fought 39 rounds. The fight lasted 2½ hours and resulted in Murray winning by knocking the Boston boy out. The latter became stone blind in the 37th round from the punishment received. Both men were terribly punished, and are now in a pitiable condition.

A Life Lost At a Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—The four-story stone building attached to the Catholic college at Germantown, was burned at an early hour this morning. The building was used for storage and cooking purposes and it is supposed that the fire originated from the cook range on the first floor. The wildest excitement prevailed among the students in the college adjoining, for it was known that Ignatius and Michael Hillian were in the third story of the burning building. Presently the two men appeared at a window and Michael jumped to the ground. His brother was about to follow him when the flooring gave way and he sank into the burning mass of debris. Michael was badly injured by his jump, and it is thought he will die.

Parnell's Cross-Examination.

LONDON, May 2.—The cross-examination of Mr. Parnell was continued to-day. Mr. Parnell admitted that Condon was connected with the Manchester murders. He was chairman of the reception committee at Washington. Mr. Parnell was not aware that the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette reported verbatim the speech he made at Cincinnati, in which he is said to have referred to the severance of the last link between Great Britain and Ireland, or that its report was like that in the Irish World.

Mr. Parnell admitted that he had not found fault with the past action of the Invincibles. He quoted from his speeches and his manifesto of 1881, denouncing outrages and unconstitutional action by Irishmen.
