Bul I know another little maiden, Whom I've seen arrayed in Bilks and ribbons, but not always; she's a prodent little oif;
And she always helps her mother, and her sister and her brother.
And lives for all around her, quite regardless of herself.

So she langhs and she sings,
And the hours on happy wings thower gladness round her pathway as Now need I tell you privately, my darling little She's as happy as a little maid can be?
This surely is the little maid for ma.

From the Manheim Sun.

It looks like a political satire on the policy of the old management of the Lancaster Examiner to see headlines on Republican primary election returns like these: "The People Triumph—Traders in Government. Office Rebuked—Personal Ambition Snubbed." This policy of the Cochran Brothers, if communed, will take considerable wind out of the New Era sails, and the tide is neginning to rise.

When it takes the form of disease of the kidbeys or bladder, is a task well nigh impossible of accomplishment. Renal and vesical mainiles are more obstinate than any others.

Counteract, therefore, the earliest indications of inactivity of the many organs with Hossetter's Stomach Bitters, which peacesses, among other excellent qualities, those of an afficient diuretie. The degree of stimulation apparent from its use reaches, but never goes beyond, the bounds of safety. It invigorates always, never irritates. Bright's disease diabetes, catarrh of the bladder, are diseases
successfully combatted in their incipiency
with this benign medical stimulant and tonic.

and bladder, the fifters is a specific for fever
and ague, constipation and dyspepsis.

The Spring Medicine

"My little boy was so badly afflicted with acrofula that the whole top of his head was one complete mass of matter. For two years I found no relief. Then I gave him one bottle of Hood's Barsaparilla, and there was a wonderful improvement. I then got one bottle more and that cured him completely. I give it to my children for a spring medicine." Mms. H. D. LEROY, 1841 Hogan Street, St. Louis, Mo.
