CURBENT BUSINESS. COMMENT BUSINESS. The Opinion of the Court Modified in the Bird-in-Hand Turnpike Case. Court met at 10 o'clock this morning for the appointment of auditors and the trans-action of currents business. J. H. Seling, Manheim borough, was ap-pointed guardian of the grandchild of Christian Singley, deceased. Wim. Rochow, Columbia, was appointed guardian of the minor child of Nicholas Beinhauer, deceased.

Beinhauer, deceased. J. C. Bitner, city, and J. C. Willower, who served terms of 00 days for inability to comply with the order of court made to pay a weekly sum for the maintenance of their wives, were discharged from prison in accordance with the provisions of the act of assembly of 1800. In the Bird-in-Hand turnpike case Judge

Patterson recalled the opinion filed a few weeks ago and changed the wording of the decree. Under the decree as now made the turnpike company is not allowed to erect gates or collect tolls.

In the suit of Maria Clark vs. the county of Lancaster the rule to show cause why an order on the county commissioner should not issue to plaintiff for amount due her, was discharged. The county commissioners and court today approved the report of viewers favorable to the crection of a bridge over Kelly's creek in Martic township, where the state road from Philadelphia to McCall's Ferry crosses mid creek. The bridge will be

Marriage of Miss Totten. On Tuesday afternoon Miss Carrie Totton, daughter of Mr. Robert C. Totten, of Allegheny, was married to Mr. George Shriver, of Baltimore. Miss Totten is well known in this city, having frequently visited her relatives, the Nevins. The maid of honor was Miss Annis Barnes, of Philadelphia, and the best man John T. Shriver, brother of the groom, a member of the editorial staff of the Baltimore Sun. The bride was dressed in white moire, basque cut V and finished in duchess lace. The skirt was court trained with an overdrapery of exquisite lace. She carried a bonget of La France roses. After the cere-mony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. After a tour of Eastern cities the young couple will reside in Baltimore

Mallelously Broke an Umbrella.

Harry Steiger has been arrested on a warant issued by Alderman Barr on complaint of Mrs. Jennie McDonald, charging him with malicious mischief. The allegation is that Steiger mallelously broke a silk umbrella belonging to prosecutrix. The umbrella is on exhibition at the alderman's office and is a total wreck. Steiger was un-able to give ball and was locked up for a hearing.

Before the Mayor.

The mayor had four cases to dispose of this morning. Mr. B. Hearst, who keeps a restaurant at Parkesburg, came to town vesterday to pay bills. He met too many friends and the result was that he becam "paralyzed." The mayor discharged him. Thomas Cassidy, an old offender, was sent to jail for ten days. He promised to leave town if his sentence was made light. Two lodgers were discharged.

Larceny as Balleo Case Dismissed. Joseph Aston was heard by Alderman Halbach last evening on a charge of larceny as ballee. The prosecutrix was Mrs. Susan Shenk, who figured prominently in the Dellinger murder trial, and the defendant is a brother of Mrs. Dellinger. Mrs. Shenk charged that Aston received from her an umbrella and silk handkerchief, which he appropriated to his own use. The alder-man decided that the case had not been made out and dismissed it.

G. A. R. Appointments.

Jacob A. Hollinger has been appointed inspector-at-large by the department commander of Pennsylvania G. A. R. for Lancaster county and parts of Berks. His as-sistants are Daniel H. Heitshu, 84; A. B. Benar, 524; Horace L. Haldeman, 226; John R. Bricker, 517; John Brubaker, pared for it. It may be a good situation to the young hady or gentleman property qualified to fill it. 502 , Wm. Might Have Sworn a Life Away Might Have sworn a Life Away. The governor of Iows pardoned John Deitch, who was sentenced to life impris-omment in 1884 for the murder of Joseph Thurm, in Cedar Rapids. At the time of the murder another man was suspected, arrested and tried, but was acquitted. A reward of $500 had been offered by Gov-ernor Sherman, and that was probably the incentive which led to the arrest, conviction and sentence of Deitch. The reward was never paid, the state regarding it as a clear case of swearing a man into prison for the sake of the reward. CHRISTIAN AND WOODWARD STREETS. THE REPUBLICAN BATTLE HAS BEEN
