false,
As I have stript my finger of my ring
That means no more now than a band of gold.
If I were strong, I'd never go at eve,
When all the fireflies, like sparks of light
Dropped from the unystic, burning stars, are out
And ditting low, and playing hide-and-seek
With pretty buds; and every breeze let loose
Is making havoc of the golden wheat—
I'd never go, with hurried, stealthy trend,
To where we stood together at the gate
One time, and not so very long ago—
To stand alone now. Ay, that's and; at least
It's sad to dream on the impossible.
To stand and think with mournful eyes and lips—

More des late sure, than wet and easeful test Upon the Past.

Upon the Past.

Why, sometimes, I confess
The life-blood rushes backward on my heart,
As if to bush its throbbing, just because
I think I hear a step that sounds like his.
Ah, yes! the best of us are only weak.

If I were strong, I'd brand his image false,
And stamp it into powder 'neath my feet.
Instead, I've got it still. I've laid it by Among his letters.
On drear winter nights,
When I am sitting by my lonely hearth,
I count them over, and I think how once
He sat so near me on that other chair—
(Which I have kept there still, because weak.)

weak.)
So near our hands met. Just to break the still,
That grows so mournful, I can hear my tears.
In low half whispers I repeat, sometimes,
The sweet, fond love names ever on our lips—
Elsewise I have forgotten how they sound.

If, peradventure, he should come (and I Were strong, you understand), I'd fling my scorn

Into his face, and bid him go, and cry:
"I have forgot you and those blissful days—
I've bound my heart up, far off from your reach,
And all your love could never touch it now!"
If I were strong!

I think if he should come,
And stand upon the threshold there some day,
And whisper once: "My Wife"—no other

Agony Is Courted

Agony is Courted

By persons who, attacked by a mild form of rheumatism, neglect to seek prompt relief.
Subsequent torture is prevented by an immediate resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
Slight exposure, an occasional draught, will beget this painful malady, where there is a pre-disposition to it in the blood. It is not difficult to arrest the trouble at the outset. difficult to arrest the trouble at the outset, but well nigh impossible to eradicate it when matured. Fo evidence in relation to this superb blood depurent is more positive than that which establishes its efficace as a preventive and remedy for rheumatism. Not only is it thorough, but safe, which the vegetable and mineral poisons, often taken as curatives of the disease, are not. Besides expelling the rheumatic virus from the system, it ies fever and ague, billousness, "Othelio's occupation's gone." He used to spend days and nights cursing the fates and the rheumatism. Now he only lies down and aughs to think how easily he was cured by Salvation Oil, at 25 cents.

Wm. H. Vanderford, esq., editor of the Democratic Advocate, Westminster, Md., writes, that he has used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and knows it to be a good medicine. Buy it. Try it. 25 cents.

Special Hotices.

"Grunt It Out."

The above is an old saw as savage as it is senseless. You can't "grunt out" dyspepsia, nor liver complaint, nor nervousness if they once get a good hold. They don't remove themselves in that way. The taking a few doses of Burdock Blood Bitters is better than "grunting it out." What we can cure let's not endure. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

You Can Depend On It.

For severe toothache and neuralgia of the I I used Thomas Eductric Oil. This is certily the best thing I ever knew for relief of of any knid. The house is never without Mrs. A. M. Frank, 177 W. Tupper street, hio, N. Y. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lanci

The Resurrection of Lazarus Was a mirraculous operation. No one thinks of raising the dead these times, though some desperately close to death's door have been completely restored by Burdock Blood Bitters to genuine and lasting health. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermind and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed increasantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she sleept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Euther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C., Get a free trial bottle at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 & 139 N. Queen St., Lancaster, Pa.

A Yelling Baby
Is something to be avoided. Bables with colds. bables with croup, bables with scalds, burns-bites, aches, sprain, or pains are bound to become noisy tenants of the household. Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil will cure all these complaints. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Pleasant Acknowledgment. Had sour stomach and miserable appetite for months, and grew thin every day. I used Bu-dock Blood Bitters with the most marvelous re-sults; feel splendid." Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Pittsburg, Pn. For sale by H. B. Cochran, drug-gist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Humbugs! Imposters! Thieves!

The above are terms applied to the unreliable and dishonest. Dr. Thomas Ectectric Oil for diphtheria, catarrh, asthma, rheumatism, and all aches, sprains, and pains is not a thing of deception but a pleasant and honest remedy. It is honestly put up, honestly sold, and does what is claimed for it. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies:
"I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and cured of Rheumatism of 10 years standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Beliville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at H. B.
