An Accomplished English Girl Bound for the Loper Islands.

Rev. Father Wendolin Moellers of Belgium, is on his way to Molokai, the Loper Island, where Father Contrardy has assumed the burden to which Father Damien for years past, had been tied. Contrardy is a Belgian, about thirty-five years of age. He was ordained for the mission of Oregon, and in that erchdlocese labored for several years until the sacrifices of his countryman inspired his emulation. Miss Nellic Flavin, a Liverpool girl, however, is the only woman who volunteered to labor in the dreaded spot at Kahawa consecrated by the work of "the aposile of the lepers," She passed through New York several weeks ago, and her presence became known through the action of the custom house authorities, who seized the vestments she had brought for the use of Father Damien. She refused to speak about herself, and many were of the opinion that her story was a subterfage to obtain free admission of the vestments. The Liverpool Cutholic Times, tells who sahe is: "Nellie Flavin is highly accomplished, well educated, and very well known in many well-informed Catholic circles in Liverpool. She became a daily governess, some time after leaving school, until 1886, when she left London to undergo a course of hospital training. Miss Nellie Flavin is a brilliant pianiste, and is of an amiable, energetic, and resolute disposition. She has broken many strong ties to devote her life to the service of God's most afflicted creatures, and has left behind her a mother, sister, and brother, as well as many friends, holding her in their heart of hearts."

Don't mind the heat, for our store is the coolest place in Lancaster.

Last week we advertised "Sunshine for Little Children" given away with every sale of $5; the Examiner had it 50c by mistake. It caused us a great deal of annoyance, as we certainly cannot give away $1.25 worth with a 50c sale.

Sunshine for Little Children, edited by the Rev. J. Henry Smythe, D. D., a large folio magazine of 48 pages, crowded with charming illustrations and exquisits stories for the little sale.

its stories for the little ones, accompanied by two beautiful lithographs, water color engravings. These engravings are by Ida Waugh, the greatest of American artists, whose radiant pictures of child life are known in every quarter of the globe. They represent lovely in-fants, with faces as beaming as the morning, and are pronounced by artists to be works of unusual merit. We offer the whole, worth $1.25, with every pur-chase of $5 or over, from now until Saturday next.

We do this to introduce this elegant work in every household, and expect to find ready sale for it after that We have removed our Muslin Department to Second Floor, in order to give it the proper display.
