

RELICS OF WARS.

INTERESTING ARTICLES ON KILBURN AT GEORGE H. THOMAS POST FAIR.

A Large Crowd at the Opening in Artich's East King Street Building on Saturday Evening.

A fair for the benefit of the relief fund of George H. Thomas Post, No. 84, G. A. R., was opened in the large store room lately occupied by Artich's brother, the room tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and the tables are filled with articles, useful and ornamental, which are offered for sale at reasonable prices.

One of the great features of the fair is the museum, on the second floor, in which are exhibited hundreds of relics of the war and other articles of interest, which will be referred to at length elsewhere in this article.

The fair is under direction of a committee of members of the post, of which Wm. D. Stauffer is chairman, Hiram L. McElroy secretary, and Daniel H. Hestabach treasurer. The officers of the Ladies' association of the fair are: President, Mrs. James A. Nimlow; secretary, Mrs. Kate Killian; treasurer, Mrs. Hiram L. McElroy.

On the left as you enter the room is the Ladies' Aid society table, which is presided over by Miss Jennie Yogan, with Miss Jennie Yogan, the Misses Albin, Miss Munson and Miss Kautz as assistants.

Next comes the G. A. R. table, in charge of Mrs. James A. Nimlow. Her assistants are Mrs. Hiram McElroy, Mrs. Christian Pickett, Miss Nellie Martin, Miss Daisy McElroy, Miss Votie Fasnacht, Miss Clara McElroy.

Adjoining this table is the cigar table, in charge of Miss Mamie Killian and Sue Miller.

On the opposite side of the room as you enter the door is the Women's Relief corps table, in charge of Mrs. Kate Killian, with Mrs. M. V. B. Keller, Mrs. Sobilla Arnold and Mrs. Mary Fisher as assistants.

Adjoining this table is the fancy and flower table, with Mrs. Maggie B. Bantz presiding and Mrs. Henry Herzog and Mrs. Henry Short as assistants.

The confectionery table is in charge of Mrs. Kate Aument. Her assistants are Sadie Hagen, Bertie Pontz and Mamie McAleer.

The emerald fountain is in charge of Miss Emma Landis and Miss Lillian Keller. Mrs. C. R. Swander is in charge of the cream table. Her assistants are Mrs. Huber and Miss Esther Rentz.

Edwin Bookmyer is in charge of the wheel of fortune.

EXHIBIT OF RELICS. All the exhibits of relics of the late war in charge of Dr. S. T. Davis. All the articles are in cases, and every article in the room is labeled, and at a glance one can see the name of the exhibitor and the history of the article on exhibition.

A complete register is kept of everything on exhibition with its history, and this book is accessible to all who desire to see it.

Dr. Davis is the largest exhibitor, and he has 57 articles registered, many of them being very valuable.

Among the articles exhibited by Dr. Davis are: a sword, belt, spurs, revolver and saddle used by him all through the war; cushions on which he rested in hospital after he was wounded; hat worn by Dr. E. De W. Brennan, son of A. N. Brennan, who was on Gen. Grant's staff; purse in pocket of Dr. Davis when wounded; the blood stains on yet to be seen, fan from Isle of Samos, presented to the doctor by Dr. B. F. Rogers, of the U. S. navy; this fan was the gift of the king of Corea to Dr. Rogers; mandarin's sword from Japan; Corean pipe; a Kayak or Esquimaux boat; a skull, with a serpent, two frogs and a tooth cut from solid ivory, from Japan; a sickle such as used a century ago; an ornamental chair made from a reindeer; the legs of the chair are the legs of that animal and the back of the chair is made from his hide; bear skin and skull of bear killed by Dr. M. L. Davis and B. Frank Saylor; uniform of J. F. Dunn, a private of Company A, 29th Mississippi regiment, killed at Gettysburg; a red uniform taken from a dummy, when the rebels evacuated Corinth, Miss.; twelve Union force; a large lot of dummies were fixed up and before the deception was discovered the rebels got away a good distance.

COL. H. A. HAMBRIGHT'S EXHIBIT. Col. Hambright exhibits a large number of articles; among them are: Artillery sword captured at Chapultepec, Mexico, 1847; sword presented by citizens of Lancaster to Major General Fred. Hambright, October 3, 1842, and which was presented to the then Lieutenant H. A. Hambright by his father for gallant services in Mexico; sword presented to Col. H. A. Hambright by the non-commissioned officers and privates of the 7th regiment as a testimonial of their esteem for gallant conduct at the battles of Chaplain Hills, October, 1862, and Stone River, January, 1863. This sword is a fine one and has on it twelve large rubies, and the case in which it is kept is inlaid with pearl; Indian riding whip, captured from Little Raven, Indian territory; scaling knife captured from Scouring Eagle, tomahawk and pipe taken from Powder Fall chief; Indian pouch with secret pocket; a boy's bugle, picked up at battle of Shelbyville, where the boy was killed; Indian leggings; Indian bows and arrows; quivers made from skin of mountain lion; uniform of regular army officer; epaulettes of old Jackson Rifles.

OTHER ARTICLES OF INTEREST. Among the other exhibits are the following: A large collection of birds and animals by George Fick, taxidermist. Piano, by Miss C. C. Musser, brought from England before the Revolutionary war. D. M. Keppeler, a large lot of relics picked up on battle-grounds. Jacob C. Kappier, Mexican and South American shells and money. C. H. Fasnacht, medal awarded to him by Congress for gallant conduct, and other war relics. Horse equipments used by one of Sheridan's cavalry in his famous ride through the Shenandoah valley. Fred Shroad, kettle from Germany over 20 years old; also the 7th regiment as a war; gun brought from Germany 125 years ago; a rifle of the same age and a bugle 100 years old. Charles A. Heintzsch, a large lot of war relics picked up by him on the Gettysburg battle-field. Abraham J. K. Barr, a uniform worn by him in the army in 1861; a copy of the Gazette of Chattanooga, Tennessee, announcing the death of President Lincoln; a piece of the dead line brought from Andersonville; a number of pieces of shells picked up on various battle-fields. Dr. J. Aug. Ehler, silk flag presented by ladies of Lancaster to the Fenicibles in 1841, and silk flag presented to the Fenicibles by citizens of Baltimore, 1842. Capt. Haub, rebel carbine captured at Victoria, Texas. Mrs. Beitzel, Declaration of Independence, written in German. J. N. Sloan, copy of Emancipation pro-

RELICS OF WARS.

INTERESTING ARTICLES ON KILBURN AT GEORGE H. THOMAS POST FAIR.

A Large Crowd at the Opening in Artich's East King Street Building on Saturday Evening.

A fair for the benefit of the relief fund of George H. Thomas Post, No. 84, G. A. R., was opened in the large store room lately occupied by Artich's brother, the room tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and the tables are filled with articles, useful and ornamental, which are offered for sale at reasonable prices.

One of the great features of the fair is the museum, on the second floor, in which are exhibited hundreds of relics of the war and other articles of interest, which will be referred to at length elsewhere in this article.

The fair is under direction of a committee of members of the post, of which Wm. D. Stauffer is chairman, Hiram L. McElroy secretary, and Daniel H. Hestabach treasurer. The officers of the Ladies' association of the fair are: President, Mrs. James A. Nimlow; secretary, Mrs. Kate Killian; treasurer, Mrs. Hiram L. McElroy.

On the left as you enter the room is the Ladies' Aid society table, which is presided over by Miss Jennie Yogan, with Miss Jennie Yogan, the Misses Albin, Miss Munson and Miss Kautz as assistants.

Next comes the G. A. R. table, in charge of Mrs. James A. Nimlow. Her assistants are Mrs. Hiram McElroy, Mrs. Christian Pickett, Miss Nellie Martin, Miss Daisy McElroy, Miss Votie Fasnacht, Miss Clara McElroy.

Adjoining this table is the cigar table, in charge of Miss Mamie Killian and Sue Miller.

On the opposite side of the room as you enter the door is the Women's Relief corps table, in charge of Mrs. Kate Killian, with Mrs. M. V. B. Keller, Mrs. Sobilla Arnold and Mrs. Mary Fisher as assistants.

Adjoining this table is the fancy and flower table, with Mrs. Maggie B. Bantz presiding and Mrs. Henry Herzog and Mrs. Henry Short as assistants.

The confectionery table is in charge of Mrs. Kate Aument. Her assistants are Sadie Hagen, Bertie Pontz and Mamie McAleer.

The emerald fountain is in charge of Miss Emma Landis and Miss Lillian Keller. Mrs. C. R. Swander is in charge of the cream table. Her assistants are Mrs. Huber and Miss Esther Rentz.

Edwin Bookmyer is in charge of the wheel of fortune.

EXHIBIT OF RELICS. All the exhibits of relics of the late war in charge of Dr. S. T. Davis. All the articles are in cases, and every article in the room is labeled, and at a glance one can see the name of the exhibitor and the history of the article on exhibition.

A complete register is kept of everything on exhibition with its history, and this book is accessible to all who desire to see it.

Dr. Davis is the largest exhibitor, and he has 57 articles registered, many of them being very valuable.

Among the articles exhibited by Dr. Davis are: a sword, belt, spurs, revolver and saddle used by him all through the war; cushions on which he rested in hospital after he was wounded; hat worn by Dr. E. De W. Brennan, son of A. N. Brennan, who was on Gen. Grant's staff; purse in pocket of Dr. Davis when wounded; the blood stains on yet to be seen, fan from Isle of Samos, presented to the doctor by Dr. B. F. Rogers, of the U. S. navy; this fan was the gift of the king of Corea to Dr. Rogers; mandarin's sword from Japan; Corean pipe; a Kayak or Esquimaux boat; a skull, with a serpent, two frogs and a tooth cut from solid ivory, from Japan; a sickle such as used a century ago; an ornamental chair made from a reindeer; the legs of the chair are the legs of that animal and the back of the chair is made from his hide; bear skin and skull of bear killed by Dr. M. L. Davis and B. Frank Saylor; uniform of J. F. Dunn, a private of Company A, 29th Mississippi regiment, killed at Gettysburg; a red uniform taken from a dummy, when the rebels evacuated Corinth, Miss.; twelve Union force; a large lot of dummies were fixed up and before the deception was discovered the rebels got away a good distance.

COL. H. A. HAMBRIGHT'S EXHIBIT. Col. Hambright exhibits a large number of articles; among them are: Artillery sword captured at Chapultepec, Mexico, 1847; sword presented by citizens of Lancaster to Major General Fred. Hambright, October 3, 1842, and which was presented to the then Lieutenant H. A. Hambright by his father for gallant services in Mexico; sword presented to Col. H. A. Hambright by the non-commissioned officers and privates of the 7th regiment as a testimonial of their esteem for gallant conduct at the battles of Chaplain Hills, October, 1862, and Stone River, January, 1863. This sword is a fine one and has on it twelve large rubies, and the case in which it is kept is inlaid with pearl; Indian riding whip, captured from Little Raven, Indian territory; scaling knife captured from Scouring Eagle, tomahawk and pipe taken from Powder Fall chief; Indian pouch with secret pocket; a boy's bugle, picked up at battle of Shelbyville, where the boy was killed; Indian leggings; Indian bows and arrows; quivers made from skin of mountain lion; uniform of regular army officer; epaulettes of old Jackson Rifles.

OTHER ARTICLES OF INTEREST. Among the other exhibits are the following: A large collection of birds and animals by George Fick, taxidermist. Piano, by Miss C. C. Musser, brought from England before the Revolutionary war. D. M. Keppeler, a large lot of relics picked up on battle-grounds. Jacob C. Kappier, Mexican and South American shells and money. C. H. Fasnacht, medal awarded to him by Congress for gallant conduct, and other war relics. Horse equipments used by one of Sheridan's cavalry in his famous ride through the Shenandoah valley. Fred Shroad, kettle from Germany over 20 years old; also the 7th regiment as a war; gun brought from Germany 125 years ago; a rifle of the same age and a bugle 100 years old. Charles A. Heintzsch, a large lot of war relics picked up by him on the Gettysburg battle-field. Abraham J. K. Barr, a uniform worn by him in the army in 1861; a copy of the Gazette of Chattanooga, Tennessee, announcing the death of President Lincoln; a piece of the dead line brought from Andersonville; a number of pieces of shells picked up on various battle-fields. Dr. J. Aug. Ehler, silk flag presented by ladies of Lancaster to the Fenicibles in 1841, and silk flag presented to the Fenicibles by citizens of Baltimore, 1842. Capt. Haub, rebel carbine captured at Victoria, Texas. Mrs. Beitzel, Declaration of Independence, written in German. J. N. Sloan, copy of Emancipation pro-

DEATH OF HERMAN HIRSH

TERRIBLE FALL.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

THE STRIKES IN GERMANY APPEARING SERIOUS RESULTS ANTICIPATED.

THE MEN AT DORTMUND ASSEMBLING PARADING IN THE STREETS - TROUBLES AFTER THE BELLIGERENTS.

A body of infantry arrived at Schellberg at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, when the rioters, who had formed into two battalions took refuge behind a railway embankment and jeered at the troops. Three times the troops were called upon to disperse, but they refused to obey. The soldiers then fired into the crowd, killing six persons one of them a year-old child. A woman was also wounded. After the firing the mob dispersed. The district trustee was troops.

BRUNNEN, May 13.—Emperor William will receive a deputation of three of the striking miners from Westphalia to-morrow night. A number of strikers at Castrop attempted to make a riotous demonstration, but were charged upon and dispersed by dragoons and lancers. There was random firing between the strikers and military at that place last night. At Lamsen the taverns have been closed. The strike committee of the Dortmund miners have issued a manifesto in which they declare that the strikers will not resume work until their demands are conceded by the mine owners. The miners in the Essen district have struck. This accession to the number of strikers has raised the total of the men who have now quit work to 80,000. The strike at Dortmund is spreading. The strikers are assembling at the place and parading the streets and menacing employees at the water works which supply the district. The pit workers at Margrath have expressed willingness to resume work on the condition that they be protected from strikers.

They Gave Ball for Trial. LONDON, May 13.—The persons arrested yesterday morning in raids on the Field and Ashby clubs, the city, were arraigned this morning. The Earl of Dudley and Lord Lurgan were among the prisoners arraigned. The Earl of Dudley appeared ashamed of the position in which he found himself, but Lord Lurgan assumed a defiant air. The police who made the arrests admitted that the persons taken into custody were not members of the Field club, but stated that they resorted there for the purpose of gambling. The prisoners were admitted to bail to appear for examination next week. The court room was crowded.

Decamped With a Jeweler's Stock. ST. LOUIS, May 13.—A dispatch from Pueblo, Colorado, says that L. Corvauld, a Jeweler of Pueblo, visited the adjoining town of Montarch one day last week, leaving his store and business in charge of his clerk, a young Jew named Strauss. During Corvauld's absence Strauss picked up 50,000 of jewelry and shipped it to St. Louis, taking the plunder with him. He has been tracked by officers to Pueblo, and is trying to escape in an easterly direction. The officers are after him. He came from St. Louis and has worked in most of the Western cities.

They Confessed. CANTON, Ohio, May 13.—Frank Ryan and Harry Sadler, the young men arrested yesterday upon the charge of attempting to wreck a New York and Chicago limited vestibule train, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago road, recently, broke down this morning and signed a confession of guilt, giving the details of their crime. Detectives will arrest three other young men to-day. The Fort Wayne company is determined to send the men to the penitentiary.

A Socialist Elected. PARIS, May 13.—A municipal election was held at St. Perreux, which resulted in a victory for the Socialists. During the progress of the election a fight occurred in the hall where the voting was being carried on. A party of socialists, headed by M. Ferroni, member of the Chamber of Deputies, paraded the streets singing the Marseillaise hymn.

A Terrible Mistake. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 13.—James Beebe Smith, local editor of the Republican, was shot and instantly killed at 3 o'clock this morning by his brother-in-law, Royal B. Sturtevant, at the home of his father-in-law, W. F. Sturtevant. He was mistaken for a burglar.

Conspirators Arrested. LONDON, May 13.—A conspiracy has been discovered among the military officers stationed at St. Perreux. A large number of its conspirators have been arrested. In their possession were found papers which proved that they intended to make an attempt to assassinate the czar. A number of bombs were also found.

Appointed Commissioner. HARRISBURG, May 13.—William B. Gill, superintendent of the 6th district of the Western Union company, with headquarters at Philadelphia, has been appointed by Governor Beaver one of the Pennsylvania commissioners to the Paris exposition.

Sadly Bereaved. John B. Reilly, infant son of Richard M. Reilly, of Reilly Brothers & Raub, died on Sunday of convulsions, with which he was seized on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Reilly have the sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement at the loss of their first born.

TELEGRAPHIC TALKS. The next regular meeting of the state board of pardons will be held on Tuesday, May 28. The wall of an old house in New York fell to-day at noon, and buried seven men who were at work near it. Two were killed and two dangerously injured. In Philadelphia to-day the license court announced decisions in cases of appeal in thirteen out of thirty-three wards, 517 licenses being granted out of 1,183 applicants. Messrs. Cooley, Morrison and Bragg, of the inter-state commerce commission, went to-day from Washington to Titusville, Pa., where several cases await them. All efforts to verify the Toronto stories about Cronin have failed. It is suspected that he is at St. Catharines. Supreme court to-day affirmed the validity of the Scott Chinese exclusion act. The United States supreme court is in opinion by Justice Bradley awarded the election of the will of Myra Clark Gaines 576,000 against New Orleans tax of property sold by the city but recovered by Mrs. Gaines after long litigation. This case has been the hardest and longest fought case in the judicial history of the country. Mrs. Gaines' litigation commenced in 1854. Mrs. Gaines died fighting for her rights and also all her immediate relatives, excepting her daughter-in-law, Mattie E. Whitney.

DEATH OF HERMAN HIRSH

TERRIBLE FALL.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

THE STRIKES IN GERMANY APPEARING SERIOUS RESULTS ANTICIPATED.

THE MEN AT DORTMUND ASSEMBLING PARADING IN THE STREETS - TROUBLES AFTER THE BELLIGERENTS.

A body of infantry arrived at Schellberg at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, when the rioters, who had formed into two battalions took refuge behind a railway embankment and jeered at the troops. Three times the troops were called upon to disperse, but they refused to obey. The soldiers then fired into the crowd, killing six persons one of them a year-old child. A woman was also wounded. After the firing the mob dispersed. The district trustee was troops.

BRUNNEN, May 13.—Emperor William will receive a deputation of three of the striking miners from Westphalia to-morrow night. A number of strikers at Castrop attempted to make a riotous demonstration, but were charged upon and dispersed by dragoons and lancers. There was random firing between the strikers and military at that place last night. At Lamsen the taverns have been closed. The strike committee of the Dortmund miners have issued a manifesto in which they declare that the strikers will not resume work until their demands are conceded by the mine owners. The miners in the Essen district have struck. This accession to the number of strikers has raised the total of the men who have now quit work to 80,000. The strike at Dortmund is spreading. The strikers are assembling at the place and parading the streets and menacing employees at the water works which supply the district. The pit workers at Margrath have expressed willingness to resume work on the condition that they be protected from strikers.

They Gave Ball for Trial. LONDON, May 13.—The persons arrested yesterday morning in raids on the Field and Ashby clubs, the city, were arraigned this morning. The Earl of Dudley and Lord Lurgan were among the prisoners arraigned. The Earl of Dudley appeared ashamed of the position in which he found himself, but Lord Lurgan assumed a defiant air. The police who made the arrests admitted that the persons taken into custody were not members of the Field club, but stated that they resorted there for the purpose of gambling. The prisoners were admitted to bail to appear for examination next week. The court room was crowded.

Decamped With a Jeweler's Stock. ST. LOUIS, May 13.—A dispatch from Pueblo, Colorado, says that L. Corvauld, a Jeweler of Pueblo, visited the adjoining town of Montarch one day last week, leaving his store and business in charge of his clerk, a young Jew named Strauss. During Corvauld's absence Strauss picked up 50,000 of jewelry and shipped it to St. Louis, taking the plunder with him. He has been tracked by officers to Pueblo, and is trying to escape in an easterly direction. The officers are after him. He came from St. Louis and has worked in most of the Western cities.

They Confessed. CANTON, Ohio, May 13.—Frank Ryan and Harry Sadler, the young men arrested yesterday upon the charge of attempting to wreck a New York and Chicago limited vestibule train, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago road, recently, broke down this morning and signed a confession of guilt, giving the details of their crime. Detectives will arrest three other young men to-day. The Fort Wayne company is determined to send the men to the penitentiary.

A Socialist Elected. PARIS, May 13.—A municipal election was held at St. Perreux, which resulted in a victory for the Socialists. During the progress of the election a fight occurred in the hall where the voting was being carried on. A party of socialists, headed by M. Ferroni, member of the Chamber of Deputies, paraded the streets singing the Marseillaise hymn.

A Terrible Mistake. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 13.—James Beebe Smith, local editor of the Republican, was shot and instantly killed at 3 o'clock this morning by his brother-in-law, Royal B. Sturtevant, at the home of his father-in-law, W. F. Sturtevant. He was mistaken for a burglar.

Conspirators Arrested. LONDON, May 13.—A conspiracy has been discovered among the military officers stationed at St. Perreux. A large number of its conspirators have been arrested. In their possession were found papers which proved that they intended to make an attempt to assassinate the czar. A number of bombs were also found.

Appointed Commissioner. HARRISBURG, May 13.—William B. Gill, superintendent of the 6th district of the Western Union company, with headquarters at Philadelphia, has been appointed by Governor Beaver one of the Pennsylvania commissioners to the Paris exposition.

Sadly Bereaved. John B. Reilly, infant son of Richard M. Reilly, of Reilly Brothers & Raub, died on Sunday of convulsions, with which he was seized on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Reilly have the sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement at the loss of their first born.

TELEGRAPHIC TALKS. The next regular meeting of the state board of pardons will be held on Tuesday, May 28. The wall of an old house in New York fell to-day at noon, and buried seven men who were at work near it. Two were killed and two dangerously injured. In Philadelphia to-day the license court announced decisions in cases of appeal in thirteen out of thirty-three wards, 517 licenses being granted out of 1,183 applicants. Messrs. Cooley, Morrison and Bragg, of the inter-state commerce commission, went to-day from Washington to Titusville, Pa., where several cases await them. All efforts to verify the Toronto stories about Cronin have failed. It is suspected that he is at St. Catharines. Supreme court to-day affirmed the validity of the Scott Chinese exclusion act. The United States supreme court is in opinion by Justice Bradley awarded the election of the will of Myra Clark Gaines 576,000 against New Orleans tax of property sold by the city but recovered by Mrs. Gaines after long litigation. This case has been the hardest and longest fought case in the judicial history of the country. Mrs. Gaines' litigation commenced in 1854. Mrs. Gaines died fighting for her rights and also all her immediate relatives, excepting her daughter-in-law, Mattie E. Whitney.

DEATH OF HERMAN HIRSH

TERRIBLE FALL.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

THE STRIKES IN GERMANY APPEARING SERIOUS RESULTS ANTICIPATED.

THE MEN AT DORTMUND ASSEMBLING PARADING IN THE STREETS - TROUBLES AFTER THE BELLIGERENTS.

A body of infantry arrived at Schellberg at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, when the rioters, who had formed into two battalions took refuge behind a railway embankment and jeered at the troops. Three times the troops were called upon to disperse, but they refused to obey. The soldiers then fired into the crowd, killing six persons one of them a year-old child. A woman was also wounded. After the firing the mob dispersed. The district trustee was troops.

BRUNNEN, May 13.—Emperor William will receive a deputation of three of the striking miners from Westphalia to-morrow night. A number of strikers at Castrop attempted to make a riotous demonstration, but were charged upon and dispersed by dragoons and lancers. There was random firing between the strikers and military at that place last night. At Lamsen the taverns have been closed. The strike committee of the Dortmund miners have issued a manifesto in which they declare that the strikers will not resume work until their demands are conceded by the mine owners. The miners in the Essen district have struck. This accession to the number of strikers has raised the total of the men who have now quit work to 80,000. The strike at Dortmund is spreading. The strikers are assembling at the place and parading the streets and menacing employees at the water works which supply the district. The pit workers at Margrath have expressed willingness to resume work on the condition that they be protected from strikers.

They Gave Ball for Trial. LONDON, May 13.—The persons arrested yesterday morning in raids on the Field and Ashby clubs, the city, were arraigned this morning. The Earl of Dudley and Lord Lurgan were among the prisoners arraigned. The Earl of Dudley appeared ashamed of the position in which he found himself, but Lord Lurgan assumed a defiant air. The police who made the arrests admitted that the persons taken into custody were not members of the Field club, but stated that they resorted there for the purpose of gambling. The prisoners were admitted to bail to appear for examination next week. The court room was crowded.

Decamped With a Jeweler's Stock. ST. LOUIS, May 13.—A dispatch from Pueblo, Colorado, says that L. Corvauld, a Jeweler of Pueblo, visited the adjoining town of Montarch one day last week, leaving his store and business in charge of his clerk, a young Jew named Strauss. During Corvauld's absence Strauss picked up 50,000 of jewelry and shipped it to St. Louis, taking the plunder with him. He has been tracked by officers to Pueblo, and is trying to escape in an easterly direction. The officers are after him. He came from St. Louis and has worked in most of the Western cities.

They Confessed. CANTON, Ohio, May 13.—Frank Ryan and Harry Sadler, the young men arrested yesterday upon the charge of attempting to wreck a New York and Chicago limited vestibule train, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago road, recently, broke down this morning and signed a confession of guilt, giving the details of their crime. Detectives will arrest three other young men to-day. The Fort Wayne company is determined to send the men to the penitentiary.

A Socialist Elected. PARIS, May 13.—A municipal election was held at St. Perreux, which resulted in a victory for the Socialists. During the progress of the election a fight occurred in the hall where the voting was being carried on. A party of socialists, headed by M. Ferroni, member of the Chamber of Deputies, paraded the streets singing the Marseillaise hymn.

A Terrible Mistake. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 13.—James Beebe Smith, local editor of the Republican, was shot and instantly killed at 3 o'clock this morning by his brother-in-law, Royal B. Sturtevant, at the home of his father-in-law, W. F. Sturtevant. He was mistaken for a burglar.

Conspirators Arrested. LONDON, May 13.—A conspiracy has been discovered among the military officers stationed at St. Perreux. A large number of its conspirators have been arrested. In their possession were found papers which proved that they intended to make an attempt to assassinate the czar. A number of bombs were also found.

Appointed Commissioner. HARRISBURG, May 13.—William B. Gill, superintendent of the 6th district of the Western Union company, with headquarters at Philadelphia, has been appointed by Governor Beaver one of the Pennsylvania commissioners to the Paris exposition.

Sadly Bereaved. John B. Reilly, infant son of Richard M. Reilly, of Reilly Brothers & Raub, died on Sunday of convulsions, with which he was seized on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Reilly have the sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement at the loss of their first born.

TELEGRAPHIC TALKS. The next regular meeting of the state board of pardons will be held on Tuesday, May 28. The wall of an old house in New York fell to-day at noon, and buried seven men who were at work near it. Two were killed and two dangerously injured. In Philadelphia to-day the license court announced decisions in cases of appeal in thirteen out of thirty-three wards, 517 licenses being granted out of 1,183 applicants. Messrs. Cooley, Morrison and Bragg, of the inter-state commerce commission, went to-day from Washington to Titusville, Pa., where several cases await them. All efforts to verify the Toronto stories about Cronin have failed. It is suspected that he is at St. Catharines. Supreme court to-day affirmed the validity of the Scott Chinese exclusion act. The United States supreme court is in opinion by Justice Bradley awarded the election of the will of Myra Clark Gaines 576,000 against New Orleans tax of property sold by the city but recovered by Mrs. Gaines after long litigation. This case has been the hardest and longest fought case in the judicial history of the country. Mrs. Gaines' litigation commenced in 1854. Mrs. Gaines died fighting for her rights and also all her immediate relatives, excepting her daughter-in-law, Mattie E. Whitney.

DEATH OF HERMAN HIRSH

TERRIBLE FALL.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

THE STRIKES IN GERMANY APPEARING SERIOUS RESULTS ANTICIPATED.

THE MEN AT DORTMUND ASSEMBLING PARADING IN THE STREETS - TROUBLES AFTER THE BELLIGERENTS.

A body of infantry arrived at Schellberg at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, when the rioters, who had formed into two battalions took refuge behind a railway embankment and jeered at the troops. Three times the troops were called upon to disperse, but they refused to obey. The soldiers then fired into the crowd, killing six persons one of them a year-old child. A woman was also wounded. After the firing the mob dispersed. The district trustee was troops.

BRUNNEN, May 13.—Emperor William will receive a deputation of three of the striking miners from Westphalia to-morrow night. A number of strikers at Castrop attempted to make a riotous demonstration, but were charged upon and dispersed by dragoons and lancers. There was random firing between the strikers and military at that place last night. At Lamsen the taverns have been closed. The strike committee of the Dortmund miners have issued a manifesto in which they declare that the strikers will not resume work until their demands are conceded by the mine owners. The miners in the Essen district have struck. This accession to the number of strikers has raised the total of the men who have now quit work to 80,000. The strike at Dortmund is spreading. The strikers are assembling at the place and parading the streets and menacing employees at the water works which supply the district. The pit workers at Margrath have expressed willingness to resume work on the condition that they be protected from strikers.

They Gave Ball for Trial. LONDON, May 13.—The persons arrested yesterday morning in raids on the Field and Ashby clubs, the city, were arraigned this morning. The Earl of Dudley and Lord Lurgan were among the prisoners arraigned. The Earl of Dudley appeared ashamed of the position in which he found himself, but Lord Lurgan assumed a defiant air. The police who made the arrests admitted that the persons taken into custody were not members of the Field club, but stated that they resorted there for the purpose of gambling. The prisoners were admitted to bail to appear for examination next week. The court room was crowded.

Decamped With a Jeweler's Stock. ST. LOUIS, May 13.—A dispatch from Pueblo, Colorado, says that L. Corvauld, a Jeweler of Pueblo, visited the adjoining town of Montarch one day last week, leaving his store and business in charge of his clerk, a young Jew named Strauss. During Corvauld's absence Strauss picked up 50,000 of jewelry and shipped it to St. Louis, taking the plunder with him. He has been tracked by officers to Pueblo, and is trying to escape in an easterly direction. The officers are after him. He came from St. Louis and has worked in most of the Western cities.

They Confessed. CANTON, Ohio, May 13.—Frank Ryan and Harry Sadler, the young men arrested yesterday upon the charge of attempting to wreck a New York and Chicago limited vestibule train, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago road, recently, broke down this morning and signed a confession of guilt, giving the details of their crime. Detectives will arrest three other young men to-day. The Fort Wayne company is determined to send the men to the penitentiary.

A Socialist Elected. PARIS, May 13.—A municipal election was held at St. Perreux, which resulted in a victory for the Socialists. During the progress of the election a fight occurred in the hall where the voting was being carried on. A party of socialists, headed by M. Ferroni, member of the Chamber of Deputies, paraded the streets singing the Marseillaise hymn.

A Terrible Mistake. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 13.—James Beebe Smith, local editor of the Republican, was shot and instantly killed at 3 o'clock this morning by his brother-in-law, Royal B. Sturtevant, at the home of his father-in-law, W. F. Sturtevant. He was mistaken for a burglar.

Conspirators Arrested. LONDON, May 13.—A conspiracy has been discovered among the military officers stationed at St. Perreux. A large number of its conspirators have been arrested. In their possession were found papers which proved that they intended to make an attempt to assassinate the czar. A number of bombs were also found.

Appointed Commissioner. HARRISBURG, May 13.—William B. Gill, superintendent of the 6th district of the Western Union company, with headquarters at Philadelphia, has been appointed by Governor Beaver one of the Pennsylvania commissioners to the Paris exposition.

Sadly Bereaved. John B. Reilly, infant son of Richard M. Reilly, of Reilly Brothers & Raub, died on Sunday of convulsions, with which he was seized on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Reilly have the sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement at the loss of their first born.

TELEGRAPHIC TALKS. The next regular meeting of the state board of pardons will be held on Tuesday, May 28. The wall of an old house in New York fell to-day at noon, and buried seven men who were at work near it. Two were killed and two dangerously injured. In Philadelphia to-day the license court announced decisions in cases of appeal in thirteen out of thirty-three wards, 517 licenses being granted out of 1,183 applicants. Messrs. Cooley, Morrison and Bragg, of the inter-state commerce commission, went to-day from Washington to Titusville, Pa., where several cases await them. All efforts to verify the Toronto stories about Cronin have failed. It is suspected that he is at St. Cathar