A PRISONER ESCAPES.

George Hagelgaus Gets Away From Constable Shaub by Running. Constable Jacob Shaub, of the Third ward, is continually having adventures of different kinds, and this morning he had an unusually lively chase. For some time past he has been carrying around a warrant for the arrest of George Hagelgans, who is wanted for assault and battery upon John Walton. This morning Shaub saw Hagelgans in the yard of the Leopard hotel. He did not have a warrant for him then, but went and procured one. He next saw Hagelgans at Duke and Orange streets. He went up to him and told him that he was wanted. Hagelgans told him to read the warrant, which Shaub began to do. While he was reading Hagelgants suddenly turned and started out Orange street on a run. Shaub followed him closely and the fugitive ran into Fulton street. Here Shaub was almost npon him when Hagelganz dodged into a private alley and locked the gate on the inside. The constable found that he had been ou witted and at once gave up the chase, He has not seen his man since.

Irving Bishop Died.

Irving Bishop, the mind reader, died after amusing a dinner party with his wonderful power. Mr. Clay Greene, the playwright, who had doubted his ability, was requested to think of some word. He picked up a book, and his glance was attracted by the name "Townsend." This he decided upon as the test word. Bishop placed one of his hands on Greene's forchead, and almost immediately wrote the name correctly on a piece of paper, beginning with the last letter and spelling backwards. He was then securely blindfolded and the book handed to him. He turned over the leaves rapidly till he came to the page from which the word had been chosen and then put his pencil on the name. Almost immediately after performing those feats Bishop passed into a cataleptic trance. As he was known to be subject to attacks of this kind, and had even been charged with simulating them, no great alarm was felt. In about fifteen, minutes he recovered, joked about his seizure and gave some farther exhibition of his powers, but at their close again pascool into a rigid trance, and in spite of the efforts of two physicians he died. MUTTERINGS OF WAR.

A Brazilian Newspaper Says the Gov-ernment Will Fight Boltvia.

The following lately appeared in the ornal da Commercio of Rio de Janeiro : "There is no doubt that the government is preparing for war. Runfor asserts that the Brazilian government can do nothing to prevent a conflict between Bolivia and to prevent a conflict between Bolivia and Paraguay, since our government has suffered a check from the first power, which will seize the territory in dispute. It is also evident that a treaty of alliance exists between Brazil and Paraguay, and one which, while strengthening the republic, guarantees the interests of Brazil. There is no doubt that we are preparing for war, since everything indicates that one is imminent.

since everything indicates that one is imminent.

"The government is the only responsible party in this matter, and it will have to give an answer to the country. But what this answer will be God only knows, now that the honor of the Brazilian flag can only be sustained by bathing it in the blood of our brothers of America. Let us not be told that war is not at our doors. The intimate relations existing between the Paraguayan and Brazilian governments are well known, and it is known that we hold interests in Paraguay, and therefore, under the pretence of preventing an invasion of our territory, we send to our frontiers an army which is five times larger than is necessary. And yet we want to pretend we are not threatening Bolivia, and in a manner which may cost us a very high manner which may cost us a very high

Y., where they were married. Miss Fletcher is the member of a society called the "Secret Union."
