Weak and weary grows the Winter, Grows the father of the seasons, Grows the king of frozen rivers, Grows the crowner of the mountains; And his thunder-harp no longer Echoes through the vale and woodland, On the hill-top and the mountain, Save in fits and gusts of passion.

Now he feels his end approaching,
Feels Death breathing heavy on him,
Graspe him by the hand to lead him
Onward to the Everlasting—
To the home of years departed.
And he slowly, feebly lays him
On his couch upon the mountain;
Beckons then to Spring his daughter—
Calls her from among her sisters.

"Come! thou fairest of my children! First-born of my hopes and wishes! Kneel beside thy dying father; Kneel beside thy dying father;
Take his useless crown and wear it—
Bless him with thy smile of sunshineWith the cloud-flush on thy forehead.
And, when fied shall be his spirit, Grieve not that he is departed; But in anthems pure and holy, From the throats of birds unnur Sing his praises through thy kingdon How he wrapt the Earth in ermine, Wrapped it in a cloak of Heaven-So to keep the north wind from it— So to shield it from the tempest! How he roofed the glassy river, Built a shed above its waters, That the coldness might not enter Nor the rude blasts tear its bosom; That, secure, and free from danger, Vrapped it in a cloak of Heaven-It might keep its course in pleasu Laughing, onward to the ocean?

From his bosom, cold and frozen,
Forth his spirit then departed;
While his daughter bended o'er him,
Weeping—shedding drops of feeling,
That, upon her cheeks down coursing, Fell upon his couch of ermine, And dissolved the snow beneath him Till it flowed in streamlets onward— Onward-downward towards the valley

Then descending from the mountain, Spring in all her splendor followed— As she moved, a queen majortic, Through her realms with beauty blooming, All the earth, in adoration, Seemed to smile and how before how Seemed to smile and bow before her, Seemed to worship at her coming! Where she passed the laughing brooklet Sang a laughing song to please her, While the grave and stately river in a graver measure chanted, As she passed through wood and lea-land, Passed o'er hill and through the valley, Upward sprang the grass before her-Spread a velvet carpet for her.
And the flowers at her coming,
Wakening from their sleep of winter,
Robed in all their rainbow garments,
Sprang on every side around her
To adorn her queenly Journey.

Pausing then smid the valleys, Gazing upward to the mountains, Where she last beheld her father Faithfully she thanked him For the kingdom he had left her.
And the mountains and the valley-With their countless hues of beauty, With the fragrant breath of flowers. With the songs of birds unnumbered With the golden glow of morning, And the silvery shades of evening. Halled her as a welcome monarch, Welcome to her birthright kingdom To the kingdom of her father.

FREDERICK T. ROBERTS, M. D., Physician to and Professor of Clinical Medicine at Univer-sity College Hospital, London, Eng., says: "Bright's Disease has no symptoms of its own, and may long exist without the knowledge of the patient or practitioner, as no pain will be felt in the kidneys or that vicinity." This ac-counts for many people dying with Bright's Disease, or advanced kidney malady. The disprice of new models and the property of the pr other one malady except consumption.

Seemingly Eradicated With repeated and powerful doses of quinine chills and fever, in some one of its various forms, springs into active existence again, often without the slightest apparent provocation. To extinguish the smouldering embers of this obtinate and recondite malady, no less than to ubdue it when it rages fiercely in the system, lostetter's Stomach Bitters is all sufficient. When every resource of the pharmacopeda has been exhausted against it in vain the Bitters conquer it—will remove every lingering vestige of it. Nay, more, the Bitters will protect those brought within the influence of the atmospheric poison that begets malarial discuss, from its attacks. Disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are among the complaints to be appro-hended from the use of miasms-tainted water. These are both cured and prevented by the Bitters. Rheumatism, constipation and renal con plaints, yield to its action.

The opinion of an old and well-known mer-chant is given in a few words, viz: "I think Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best cough medi-cine made." LUTHER B. BLACK, Selma, Ind. "Diseased nature oftentimes breaks forth in strange eruptions," and the result of it all is pain. Now Salvation Oil will send this very pain 40 the right about at the trifling cost of only 25 cents.

Special Motices.

The New Tricycle. The New Tricycle.

This machine is propelled by steam, and will carry two people twenty miles in an hour, it is said. It is quite an invention but does not compare with Burdock Blood Bitters, which will carry the invalid along the road to health to beat all. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. Their Business Booming.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Conghs, Coids, Asthma, Bronchitts, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size 81. Every bottle warranted at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 138 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa. Helped Hor Out.

"For years have been a sufferer from pains in the back. Tried various applications. One bottle of Trieday Ectectric Od entirely cured me. Cured others equally quick." Mrs. Ben-ning of 14th street, Buffalo, wrote this. For sale by H. B. Cochann, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Would Have Been Set Upon.

Had not Burdock Blood Bitters been a remedy of unquestionable merit they would have been set down upon by the public as thousands of medicines have been when their worthlessness was discovered. "Burdock Blood Bitters" have received unbounded praises from the sick, thus establishing their merit beyond dispute. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Hitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health, to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and 51 per bottle at H. B. Cochna's Drug Store, 157 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa. (1)

Let us tell you what Dr. Thomas Eclectele Oil is good for. It is death to rheumatism and neuralgia. It will cure a burn, bite, or pain, and is equally good for sprains. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 157 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Has Confidence. "In one case personally known to me the suc-cess of Burdeck Blood Bitters was almost incre-dible. One lady described them as worth hun-dreds of dollars. I myself have the greatest confidence in them." F. S. Seratch, Druggist, Ruthven, Ont. For sale by H. B. Cochran, drug-gist, 137 and 129 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The People Astonished. Many people are astonished when they discover the wide circulation of Thomas' Eclectic Oil. There is hardly a drug house in the country that does not have this remedy upon its shelves. The public have found it is a good thing and stick to it. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. HOOD'S BARBAPARILLA.

On the question of resi economy Hood's &a suparilla is so far shead of other preparation as to place them entirely out of the race as competitors. Here are freta in regard to this popular medicine, easily susceptible of conclusive proof.

1. Hood's Sarasparilla Costs the Manufactur More than any other competing preparation because it is more highly concentrated and cotains more real medical value.

2. It costs the Jobber More, as a consequent of the fact just stated.

3. It costs the Retail Druggist More, for the

3. It costs the Retail Druggist More, for the same reason—as can easily be learned by inquiry. Hence the desire of some retailers to sell their own preparations, which cost them less, and for which they get the same price, thus making more money. But

4. It Costs the Consumer LESS than any other medicine, because of its greater concentrated atrength and the quantity in each bottle, and because it is the only preparation of which can truly be said, "160 Doses One Dollar."

That the people appreciate this is shown by the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla has the Largest sale of any sarsaparilla or blood purifier. It possesses peculiar merit and effects wonderful cures.

When you buy your spring medicine you want the best. Ask for Hood's Barusparilia, and insist upon having it. Do not let any argument or persuasion influence you to buy what you do not want. Be sure to get the ideal spring medi-
