

FLOWERS FOR THE DEAD.

COMPANY C ARRANGES TO DECORATE THE GRAVES OF THOSE WHO WERE MEMBERS.

Emblems Needed on Memorial Day. Officers Brought Forward Justices of the Peace—B. F. Mullen Buried.

COLUMBIA, May 24.—At a meeting of Company C it was decided to decorate the graves of the departed comrades who lie buried in Mount Bethel, on Memorial Day, with an appropriate floral emblem.

James Turner, John Mack, Cato Jordan, John Edmund and Annie Dorsey, colored children, were before Squire Hershey last evening for malicious mischief and disorderly conduct. The children annoyed the pupils and teachers of the Fifth street school by climbing up to the windows and on the fences, playing marbles on the portico, etc., and were complained against by Wm. Baker, janitor of the school. The case was continued.

Officer Morrison arrested John Smith, of Harrisburg, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and Squire Hershey sent him to jail for five days.

The case of Georgia Poff, for assault and battery on Annie Evans, was settled last night before Squire Evans by Poff paying the costs.

The H. L. C. will hold their annual picnic at Wild Cat on June 21st. The picnic will be held on the grounds of the school building.

The land concert at Mount Joy has been postponed on account of sickness of several members.

Squire Evans made his appearance on the bench this morning, after a three weeks' sickness.

The Ladies Mite society, of the Methodist church, will hold a strawberry picnic on May 31st and June 1st.

A special meeting of Sedgewick Arch will be held this evening.

The Forest and Stream club held a meeting last night and decided to camp near Lewistown. The club will leave on Tuesday, July 23d.

The funeral of the late Benj. F. Mullen was held this afternoon, from the Second street Lutheran church, and was largely attended. Gen. Welsh, Post, No. 118, G. A. R. attended the funeral in a body.

There were a number of floral designs, among them being one from the "Eolians," a singing club of which Mr. Mullen was a member.

The members of the Columbia canoe club are practicing almost every evening at the river.

H. M. Sample returned home last evening from a trip to Allentown attending the Grand Lodge of Red Men.

Two fences of the P. R. R. are being whitewashed, and all the buildings freshly painted, making the property of the company to have a good appearance.

"A CELEBRATED CASE." The Popular Drama Played by a Good Company at the Opera House.

The opera house last evening that very strong drama, "A Celebrated Case," was presented by E. P. Sullivan and his dramatic company to a small audience.

The play has not been seen here in some time, but it was certainly well presented last evening. Mr. Sullivan, who is the star of this company, is an excellent actor.

He is a hard, earnest worker and never fails to please. Last night he appeared in the character of Jean Renaud, the brave soldier who is falsely accused of killing his wife. He did splendidly and the audience was delighted.

The company which supports him is strong in every particular. Miss Rose Stahl plays the parts of Madeline and Adrienne and does very well. Cryptic Palmonia, as Lazare, the camp follower, and Count de Morney, F. R. Montgomery as Dennis O'Rourke, Little Georgia Pearl as Adrienne, in the first part of the play, were also worthy of special mention.

CHARITABLE BEQUESTS MADE. The late of Lydia Breininger, deceased, wife of Ephraim townships, admitted to probate this morning, makes the following charitable bequests: One-third of one-eighth of her estate to the Evangelical Lutheran congregation of Berks-Strasse; the same amount to Bethany Reformed church and the same amount to the German Baptist congregation of Ephrata township.

When the walking match started on so well on Wednesday evening, came to an abrupt termination last night. It became evident early in the match that the affair was not going to be a financial success, as but few people attended. After Scheid had withdrawn the men began to grow shaky. Last evening came, but the people did not come. When the walkers saw this business was so bad they decided to continue, and between 11 and 12 o'clock the match was left the track. They all remained about the building until this morning when they packed up their traps and left for their homes. The number of miles made by each one was as follows: Nolan, 123; Kauffman, 103; Lawrence, 102; Wiegand, 100, and Scheid, 22.

A Second Writ of Habeas Corpus. On Thursday Henry Smith secured a lot of household goods in the possession of Hiram Slough, which he claimed as his, on a writ of replevin. To-day Mr. A. E. Smith, wife of Henry, issued a writ of replevin for the same articles, in the possession of her husband, from whom she is separated, claiming to be owner of the property.

A Good Showing. The twenty-eight semi-annual report of the Union Building and Loan association was issued to-day. It shows the assets of the association to be $117,770.81, which is good news to its numerous stockholders. A new series of stock will be issued on Monday evening.

Mr. B. Dawson Coleman to Marry. From the Lebanon Standard, comes to-day Mr. B. Dawson Coleman, of Mt. Lebanon, will be married on the 6th of June to Miss Annie Churchill, of New York. They will take up their residence at Mt. Lebanon.

Sent to the House of Refuge. Louis and Ceila McUtchen were heard by Judge Livingston and Patterson this afternoon on a charge of being incorrigible and beyond the control of their father. The testimony as to the bad conduct of the girls was very strong. The court committed both girls to the House of Refuge and Officer Pyle will take them to Philadelphia to-day.

Officers of a Company Arrested.

Frank L. Loomis, Howard G. Loomis and Edwin S. Jewell, officers of the Century Book and Paper company in Lancaster, have been indicted for conspiracy to defraud. Witnesses testified to the alleged fraudulent practices of the company, and all, with two exceptions, were convicted in suits varying from $200 to $1,000.

The above paragraph appears in the Philadelphia Ledger this morning, telegraphed from Chicago.

Mr. A. W. Shuman, the representative of the Century company in this city, was seen and asked in reference to the above. He could not say that the officers named as prosecuted are the officers of the company he represents. The names of the officers of his company are F. S. Loomis, A. G. Jewell and H. G. Loomis. Their names are printed in the Ledger item he has mentioned and intended to those of the company as he knows them.

A number of persons in this vicinity have had dealings with the Century company since he became its agent, and in every instance those persons got the articles they ordered. He intends making inquiry to see if he can get against the company, and if he finds that it is a fraudulent concern he will withdraw from it.

Two Charges Against Him. Conrad Sheaffer was prosecuted to-day before Alderman McCann, for committing an assault on the Ledger item he has mentioned and intended to those of the company as he knows them.

Execution was issued to-day against Mrs. Anna W. Livingston, the owner of real estate on West King street, near Water, for $5,142.35.

A Church Entertainment. "A Trip to the National Capitol" is the title of the entertainment to be given in the Western M. E. church on Tuesday evening next by Mr. W. W. Ames, of the Fowler gallery. Mr. Ames gives views of all the noted places along the route and in Washington.

A Magnificent List of July Tours. Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb have issued a splendid programme of excursions for the month of July, comprising fifteen excursions to various parts of New England, Canada and the Middle States. There are several exciting trips which deserve attention. One is a week's tour to the White Mountains, the Marlboro' Provinces, with visits to all the principal cities, historic points, and resorts of that interesting region; another takes in Lake St. John, 200 miles north of Quebec, a lonely and gorgeous region few tourists or travelers have yet penetrated. All the leading resorts of the North are included in the other tours, the best being altogether in the region of reputation.
