THE MELANCHOLT MEANS
A weary lot is his who longs
For something bright in rhyme;
Men, women, children send me songs
Sepulchrator sublime.
The songs are all of bale and blight;
Alas! I do not need them,
For almost every one can write.
And sobody can read them!
Has merriment gone wholly out?

And accord can read them:

Has merriment gone wholly out?

Have all the hearts been broken?

Must every mortal sing of doubt,

From Peebles to Portsoken? Men rhyme of penalties and pains, Forgetting Joy and wassall! The Muses dwell with stripes and chains

In Bunyan's Doubting Castle.
Ah, there have all the Pleasures
The Cupids all departed,
The Muses that to dance we led, Light-footed and light-hearted! Will ne'er a Knight go blow the horn,

And knock that Glant over.

Dispel the dark, let in the morn,
Give every Musea lover?

Sad maiden Muses, vowed to pain,
Too long, perchance, they've tarried;
There never will be joy again
Till every Muse is married.

—J. M. R., in Langman's Magazine.

CUBA WILL PAY $100,000,000 If spain Will Let Her Join the United States.

States.

A memorial to the Congress of the United States relative to the island of Cuba, was presented in the Florida House of Represented two and the Florida House of Representatives on May 17 by Mr. Moreno, and was referred to the judiciary committee.

It asserts that the blessings we enjoy as a nation should stimulate us to stretch forth a helping hand to other and less favored people, assisting them in a peaceable but effective manner. The people of Cuba have for many years been hoping for freedom, and know that it can only be brought to them from our shores, not by war but by amicable arbitration between the government of our country and that to which they now owe allegiance. That for the purpose of thus securing their liberty they again renew, through our general government, their offer to Spain as follows:

"In consideration of the independence of the Island of Cuba, the people of Cuba pro-

the Island of Cuba, the people of Cuba promise and guarantee to pay to the crown of Spain the sum of one hundred million dollars in twenty annual installments of five million dollars each; or in the event that the said crown of Spain demands payment in full of the total amount offered, then and in that case the people of Cuba will make arrangements tend-ing towards a speedy compliance with such demand. That in token of their sincerity in the offer thus made and of the fulfilment of the obligations re-sulting from successful negotiations, the said people of Cuba agree to place them-selves under and cheerfully submit to a protectorate of the United States until the entire amount stipulated for in such treaty is liquidated by them." Therefore, be it resolved by the Legislature of Florida: resolved by the Legislature of Florida. That our senators in Congress are hereby most earnestly requested to take such steps as they may deem expedient and to use all proper efforts in bringing about the desired negotiations.

A Sand Salpe Caught by a Clam. Harvey Cook is the traditional fisher-men of Saratoga Lake, N. Y. Perch, black bass and other toothsome denizens of these waters, which furnish so much material for the delicious second course at the hotel dinners, that shun every other hook, are prompt to bite at his bait and are easily hooked by him. The regular Saratega summer visitors have known Harvey Cook, or of his name and fame, for the past half a century. He is a plain old-fashioned man, a shrowd observer, and in the course of his long experience as a fisherman has become familiar with the habits of almost every living thing that crawls on the borders, or swims in the waters, or flies over the surswims in the waters, or flies over the surface of Saratoga lake.

"I have lived on those waters, so to speak, for fifty-four years," said Mr. Cook to a reporter, "but I never before saw anything like what I saw a few days ago. I was moving along the shore of the lake when I saw a sand-snipe, or 'tipup,' as the boys call them, standing at the water's edge, and struggling as if its feet were in a trap. Soon the bird arose a little way in the air and flew as far as the road, where it fell and fluttered as though calling on me, as on an old friend, for help. When I reached the spot I saw that one of the bird's feet was clasped by a large fresh water clam, but before I could render aid the bird again with a great effort arose into the air again with a great effort arose into the air and made a few wild circles unfortunately over the lake, but the clam held on, and in a minute more both were in the water.

After a brief fluttering resistance the poor sand suipe succumbed to the weight of the clinging clam, and was ignominiously drowned. I have seen a good many queer things," said Mr. Cook, "but I never saw anything like that before,"

Object to a Colored Chief.

From the Washington Post The president last Saffirday appointed as recorder in the land office the Rev. James Townsend, of Richmond, Ind., who is said to be an estimable gentleman, is secretary of a national missionary society, has been of a national missionary society, has been twice a member of the Indiana Legislature, owns a fine farm, and came very near being elected bishop of his church recently. But all these things are forgotten by the twenty-five ladies in that division. The only thing that they think or care about is that the Rev. James think or care about is that the Rev. James Townsend is a colored man. Since his appointment was made nearly half of the Ridies in his division have applied for a transfer to some other division. They all want to be kept on the government pay roll, and for that reason are averse to talkwant to be kept on the government pay reil, and for that reason are averse to talking much about the matter, but the applications for transfers speak for themselves. "We naturally have to pay a certain amount of court and deference to our chief," said one of the ladies to a Post reporter vesterday, under the solemn promise that her name should not be divulged, and her position thereby endangered, "and it will be very disagreeable for me to treat a negro as my superior. I shall get into some other division if I can; if not, I suppose I shall have to stand it, as my bread and butter depend upon it."

Another one, under similar promise, spoke of the necessity for considerable intercourse with the chief, since they were compelled to ask his permission every time they left the building and to consult with him about their work. She did not know what kind of a men Mr. Townsend was, but thought that didn't make any difference, so long as he was black.

Going Out to " See a Man. " Washington Disputch to the Detroit Tribune. One night in the winter of 1865 Artemus Ward lectured in Lincoln hall, and when the great humorist was about half through his discourse he paralyzed his audience with the announcement that they would have to take a recess of fifteen minutes so as to enable him to go across the street to "see a man." H. R. Tracy, then editor of the Washington Republican, was in the andicace, and seeing an opportunity to improve the joke penciled the following lines and seut them to the platform:

"Dear Artemus: If you will place ference, so long as he was black.

and sent them to the platform:

"Dear Artenus: If you will place yourself under my guidance I'll take you to see a man without crossing the street."

Artenus accepted the invitation, and while the great audience impatiently but with much amusement awaited the re-appearance of the humorist, the latter was realized the acceptance. making the acquaintance of Aman and luxuriating at a well-laden refreshment Of course everybody "caught on to" the phrase, and men became fond of getting up between acts and "going out to ee Aman. ' The restaurateur's business from this time forward becomed. Men who would ordinarily sit quietly through an entertainment and behave themselves allowed themselves to be influenced by the

A Pompellan House at Saratoga. Saratoga has been quite curious for some weeks past concerning the crection of a large building on the late site of the art gallery adjoining the Windsor hotel, to cover 48x100 feet. The architect refused to give any information, but the Navabagian states that it is to be, when completed, the states that it is to be, when completed, the largest and unces perfect Pompelian house in the world. It is the personal venture of Franklin W. Smith, architect and antiquarian, of Boston, who built the Casa Monica at St. Augustine. The Pompelian construction will be an exact reproduction of the houses of Pansa and Sallust at Pompeli, and the object is educational. It is designed to help the students of Roman autiquity. Its completion is promised by July 1.

In Guy's (London) Hospital Reports, vol. 1, page 386, is found the statement: "Simple hypertrophy (enlargement) of the heart, especially of the left ventricle, is found without valvalur incompetency. In this numerous class the cardiac is secondary (a symptom) to the renal affection." This explains why Warner's Safe Cure is effectual in cases of heart disease. It removes from the blood the kidney acid which causes the heart disease.

On the ocean, cares little about a storm. He is positively indifferent whether he is washed overboard or not. But, set right by a wineglassful or two of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, he feels renewed interest in his personal safety. This fine corrective neutralizes in brackish water—often compulsorily drank on shipboard, to the grievous detriment of health—the pernicious impurities which give rise to disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. To the mariner, the tourist, the western ploneer and miner, the Bitters is invaluable as a means of protection against mainta, when its seeds are latent in air and water. To the effect of overwork, meatal or manuel, it is a most reliable antidote, and to the debilitated and nervous, it affords great and the debilitated and nervous, it affords great and speedily felt relief and vigor. m20to27

Ladies' Opera Slippers.

The cheapest Opera Slipper we have sells at 50c. It is made on the National Turn Shoe Machine, the manufacturer warranting it not to rip. Hundreds of pairs were sold here last and during this season, and we've the first pair to find possessing the above fault. Experiments have been made with them, too, as to wear, and they've not been "found wanting." They find place and supply a need for which, formerly, 60 to 75c grades were not too good. They are nice, clean, new goods, and stylish. We've an elegant Opera Slipper at 75c, that you should try. It's white kid lined, has leather counters, narrow toes and high heels. It's real pretty and will prove a favorite.

real pretty and will prove a favorite. Here's another to tell of-25 cents

Here's another to fell of—25 cents more in price—one of the best selling Opera Slippers we have. It's attractive looking, and rarely ever proved faulty in wear—we sell hundreds of pairs, and are in a position to know its worth. In $1.25 grades we have all widths, B to E. The uppers are made of carefully selected material, and have good, substantial leather counters. Every pair bears evidence that skilled workmen only make them. Hardsome and durable. We've better grades if you care to have them—fine, finer, finest. There's nothing in Opera Slippers, high or very low priced, you may not find here. Try us; we'll not disappoint you.
