"Encor! excore!"
Though the danger's past.
And the woman is ease
On her feet at last—
Though the ropes are swinging
High over the net,
And swinging and clinging
And trembling yet,
So near to the gas
And its dazzling light,
Right over the mass
At a terrible height!
The people are calling

The leap was appalling-They'll have it again!

"¡Encore! encore!"
Though the flesh may creep,
And the eyes be drooping
For want of sleep,
And the heart be aching
For home and rest,
There's no forseking

Ever so meagre! Should fine her "a day." And what would that mea When the rent is due.

Wants attending to? And what would it cost When the times are bad, And money is lost On a drunken dad?

The labor is killing.
But Life must be carn'd
The peril is thrilling. But Death must be spurned!

Encore! encore!

"Encore! encore!"
She has heard the cry,
And she's climbing once more
To the platform high,
So near to the gas
And its dazzling light,
Right over the mas

And its unzering igns,
Right over the mass,
At a terrible height!
From bar to rope,
And from rope to bar,
With many a hope
That the end's not far,
She's swinging and clinging,
Not darlor to mass.

Not daring to pause, While the people are singing Their song of applause!

There's a grasping for breath In the poisonous air,
A warning of death,
And a look of despair! There's a cry near the roof, Then a thud on the floor!

And the people go silently Out at the door— Go silently shrinking Away from the hall, Not speaking, but thinking Of somebody's fall !-

Of a woman who died In response to the roar, Encore! encore!"

-Leopold Turner, in the Theatre.

Clear the Way Without loss of time when the intestinal canal is blocked up by reason of constipation, chronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this aliment is prone to become last-ing and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the ecise remedy to remove the obstruction effect-lly, but without drenching or weakening hally, but without drenching or weakening the blockaded bowels, a consequence always to be apprehended from the use of violent laxatives, which are among the most pernicious of the cheap nostrums swallowed by the credulous and misinformed. The flat of experience, and of the incidical fraternity, sanction the claims of this standard aperient. Not only as a source of relief and permanent regularity to the bowels, liver and stomach, but as a means of remedying and preventing kidney and bladder troubles, and fever and ague, it is without a peer.

The greatest cure on earth for pain, alvation Oil I sing the refrain.

"You out to-day, my friend, in this cold wind? I thought you were sick in bed with a cold." He said nothing but smiled a jolly smile and led me to the apothocary shop and pointing out to a big advertisement of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup said: "Thereby hangs the tale; that tells the story."

Special Motices.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery Free at H. B. Cochran's drugstore, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa.

CHOES FOR SUMMER TIME!

The cheapest Opera Slipper we have sells at 50c. It is made on the National Turn Shoe Machine, the National Turn Shoe Machine, the manufacturer warranting it not to rip. Hundreds of pairs were sold here last and during this season, and we've the first pair to find possessing the above fault. Experiments have been made with them, too, as to wear, and they've not been "found wanting." They find place and supply a need for which, formerly, 60 to 75c grades were not too good. They are nice, clean, new goods, and stylish. We've an elegant Opera Slipper at 75c, that you should try. It's white kid lined, has leather counters, narrow toes and high heels. It's white kid lined, has leather counters, narrow toes and high heels. It's real pretty and will prove a favorite. Here's another to tell of—25 cents more in price—one of the best selling Opera Slippers we have. It's attractive looking, and rarely ever proved faulty in wear—we sell hundreds of pairs, and are in a position to know its worth. In $1.25 grades we have all widths, B to E. The uppers are made of carefully selected material, and have good, substantial leather counters. Every pair bears evidence that skilled workmen only make them. Hardsome and durable. We've better grades if you care to have them—fine, finer, finest. There's nothing in Opera Slippers, high or very low priced, you may not find here. Try us; we'll not disappoint you.
