THE MAIDEN. Of all the spring buds at one's feet,
Upon the stem agrowing,
In garden beds or meadow sweet.
Or in the fields ablowing,
There's none so fair,
Beyond compare,
As this sweet maid of soft brown hair.

I scarcely dare confess the gem,
Lest others should capy it,
And pluck from off its slander stem
So much he might desire it;
For should I part
With this sweet heart,
I ne'er should find its counterpart.

So sweetly innocent the large She sings in melting cadence, I lose the power my love to say—I'm held in sweet abeyance.

Por white she sings,

No power can bring
Buch sweet content to serf or king.

Her half-averted glance defices
The love I would be making,
And many a dimpled blush implies
A dream, perchance, that's waking—
A dream of bliss,
From honeyed kiss,
A king might wish from lips like this.

Her soft blue eyes like rivuleta Through all my soul meander Her smiles I wear as amuleta, And were I but Leander, I'd stem the tide And seas outride, To claim this maid as my sweet bride.

—The Boston Traveller.

Drunk Beside His Mother's Corps Drunk Boside His Mother's Corpse.

A side of the picture of life in New York city is told in the story of the death of Mrs. Bridget Hanrahan, which was discovered on Tuesday. The five-story tenement, 319 East Sixtieth street, where the deceased lived on the ground floor just off the street, is occupied by twenty families. These neighbors did not know for the past week that Mrs. Hanrahan was dead in her room. And the woman's son who slept in the room did not know, or perhaps care either, and And the woman's son who slept in the room did not know, or perhaps care either, and she may have been dead ten days from all appearances. A disagree-ble smell about the tenement as early as last Friday sent the tenants with complaints to the agent of the building. He looked for a dead rat The smell increased in strength through Saturday, Sunday and Monday. That Mrs. Hanrahan had not complained or been seen during that time excited no comment, for her eighteen-year-old son John won' in and out. The janitor on Tuesday, however, located the smell in the Hanrahan apartments and broke in the door. In one room located the sinell in the Hanrahan apartments and broke in the door. In one room he found, the son lying on a filthy sofa with an empty beer can by his side. In the back room was found the mother in the last stages of decay. The son appeared stupid, or pretended to be. He had apparently been having a wake for a week over his mother, and all to himself. He had eaten nothing, and was so weak that he was taken to the hospital.

Clear the Way
Without loss of time when the intestinal canal is blocked up by reason of constipation, chronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this nilment is prone to become lasting and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the precise remedy to remove the obstruction effectually, but without drenching or weakening the blockaded bowels, a consequence always to be apprehended from the use of violent laxatives, which are among the most pernicious of the cheap nostrums swallowed by the credulous and misinformed. The flat of experience, and of the medical fraternity, sanction the chains of this standard aperient. Not only as a source of relief and permanent regularity to the bowels, liver and stomach, but as a means of remedying and preventing kidney and bladder troubles, and fever and ague, it is without a peer.

Special Motices.

Eupepsy.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electic Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you Good Digestion and oust the demon Dyspepsia and install instead Eupepsy. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia, and all diseases of Liver Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c and fl per bottle by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 138 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa. Spring medicine means more now-a-days than it did ten years ago. The winter of 1828-59 has left the nerves all fagged out. The nerves must be strengthened, the blood purished, liver and bowels regulated. Paine's Colery Compound—the Spring medicine of to-day—does all this, as nothing else can. "In the spring of 1887 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with so tired a feeling, and was so weak that I could hardly get around. I bought a bottle of Palne's Celery Compound, and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better. I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a building up and strengthening medicine."
